Our Historic Boundary Waters:

Our Historic Boundary Waters Duane R. Lund, 1980 Experience the adventures of each group of people that came to this historic waterway Find out what life was like in the wilderness Discover the importance of strength and endurance and how early settlers dealt with sickness animals and weather A Boundary Waters History: Canoeing Across Time Stephen Wilbers, 2011-07-15 Teasing out the history of a place celebrated for timelessness where countless paddle strokes have disappeared into clear waters requires a sure and attentive hand Stephen Wilbers's account reaches back to the glaciers that first carved out the Boundary Waters and to the original inhabitants as well as to generations of wilderness explorers both past and present He does so without losing the personal relationship built through a lifetime of pilgrimages anchored by almost three decades of trips with his father This story captures the untold broader narrative of the region as well as a thousand different details sure to be recognized by fellow pilgrims like the grinding rhythm of a long portage or the loon call that slips into that last moment before sleep Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness and Mining Protection Area
