Our Merchant Marine Academy Kings Point:

Our Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point Irving Crump, 1959 Our Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point Irving Crump, 1975 In Peace and War Jeffrey L. Cruikshank, 2007-09-01 Founded in 1937 the U S Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point New York has trained more than 20 000 professional mariners and in the process has weathered many turbulent times In Peace and War draws on extensive research including archival work and interviews with past and present day administrators alumni and current midshipmen to document the Academy s evolution from its beginnings to the present This balanced and comprehensive work details the vision and contributions of determined leaders both at Kings Point and in Washington who shaped the Academy It describes the evolution of the U S merchant marine and explains how a tragic fire aboard the passenger ship SS Morro Castle off the coast of New Jersey in which the shameful behavior of the ship s crew caused the unnecessary deaths of many passengers led to the passage of the Merchant Marine Act in 1936 which paved the way for the Academy It details how Kings Point has adjusted its training and priorities to meet the evolving needs of the nation For example visual signaling training was added to the curriculum in response to the growing threat from German subs in the months leading up to World War II In June 1940 Cadet William O Reilly s frantic signaling from the SS Washington a vessel carrying more than 1 700 refugees averted its sinking by a hostile submarine From its inception Kings Point has used the high seas as a campus with its students shipping out for a full year on commercial vessels to receive a thorough grounding in practical seamanship In wartime this has meant that Kings Point cadets often have found themselves in harm s way and some have paid the ultimate price Between 1942 and 1945 for example 142 Kings Point cadets were lost in action and countless others survived attacks all around the world At other times the conflict has been closer to home The book also describes the Academy s invaluable service after 9 11 when Kings Point personnel and vessels worked around the clock to ferry fire fighters and rescue personnel to and from nearby Ground Zero in Lower Manhattan Using compelling examples In Peace and War conveys the educational experience at the Academy today including the regiment of midshipmen and the required Sea Year both of which sharply distinguish Kings Point from almost all other educational institutions It uses the stories of ten graduates in Norfolk Virginia to explain what today s merchant marine is and to illustrate the wide range of careers and leadership roles for which the Academy prepares its students Finally the book details the dedication of the many alumni and other supporters who are committed to continuing Kings Point s contributions to the nation and the maritime industry and to preserving the proud traditions of this venerable institution Our Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point , 1959 My Life at Kings Point Gustave Jockers, 2017-11-13 I graduated from Kings Point in 1971 It was the last engineering class in our history to graduate using only a slide rule Portable calculators were not available until September of the year I graduated a few months too late It was not my intention to write a book about my four years at Kings Point it was a chapter of a different book I m writing I was urged by my college roommate close friend and confidant Tom to focus my attention on the US Merchant Marine Academy four year period and tell some stories about those experiences A huge number of books about the other U S service academies both fiction and nonfiction have been written but very few about the U S Merchant Marine Academy You ll discover Kings Point is an unusual military college to attend and all alumni treasure the experience for a variety of reasons I came of age in the 1960s and lived through the assassination of some of the most influential people of our time grew up in the exact location where the Woodstock event of 1969 took place and I watched as our brightest people worked with a national purpose to land men on the moon and bring them back to Earth safely This is an accounting of how I first decided to attend Kings Point and the four years I spent learning the Kings Point way I hope to show how Acta Non Verba becomes a way of life for so many of the graduates which helps explain why Kings Point USMMA is a quiet treasure
