Our Mountain Place Robert Sanders, 2021-03-08 Four young boys ages eight to twelve discover the beautiful country around them in the four corners area of the southwest Their home in Navajo New Mexico is the center of an assortment of red rock and lush green valleys and mountains There is a sprinkling of caves that they explore not only for safety and shelter but a wealth of mystery that leads them to become heroes as well as discovering their strengths and weaknesses From their ability to have the knowledge and skills of the vast wilderness and wildlife they discover from deep within themselves their care and friendship for those around them who may need friendship and help They learn one another s innermost weaknesses as they search the mountainous landscape and face many objectives that must be overcome Those of great pleasure are presented to them as well as challenges that threaten their well being pushing them into maturity and extending to them the realization of the wisdom of their parents They find themselves as heroes in their most devastating discovery where they must work together as a team then find a daring challenge that threatens their own life Their most unexpected foe comes to them at precisely the right time bringing to them the realization of friendship in its finest form

Speak to Your Mountain John Robertson,2013-08-30 Jesus said Whosoever shall say unto this mountain be thou removed Mark 11 23 He was preparing us for the times when we would have to take direct authority in the spiritual realm to impact things in the natural realm The two main factors to remember are His authority and the spoken word By this passage we already have access through His words as long as we appropriate His name when we speak to our mountain As a metaphor a mountain can be anything from financial issues to health issues rebellious children or any seemingly insurmountable thing that blocks our path Speak Gods Word to your mountain and watch its removal

Messengers from the West Mountain C. R. Truitt,2007-12-28 A Great Fire War had once scorched the earth leaving it barren for generations and only those who took refuge underground were their childrens children able to live once again upon the surface of the earth For years the West Mountain people lived pleasantly on the surface of the earth outside of the Mother Cave until reports from the other Warrior tribes told of attacks from a people who still use the ancient machines to capture and enslave The Chiefs daughter Paula was delighted when the Council announced she would lead and be sent with three others as messengers to the other Warrior tribes for a call of unity to stand against these invaders She set out with her best friend Sissy a young healer her cousin Mira the best warrior of her tribe and their friend Peggy Together they set out to warn the other tribes but separated to make up for lost time waiting for Paula and Peggy to heal after a battle with mutated men Paula and Sissy catch a ride in the wasteland and unknowingly find themselves in the enemy territory There they find danger and unexpected allies All four of us sat erect pushing our chests out holding our heads high riding through the main street with our people cheering us There is nothing like the adorations of our family and peers How soon we would come to learn the difference of people who would not see us so regarding us as their prey or their enemy to use us whatever way they could Leaving the tribe behind we had no knowledge of that We were sure of our skills and our persons He glared at me his voice deepened commanding You will hand me that chain and then you will strip and put those dirty rags in this basket Now His retaliation was swift He slapped me hard enough to bring me to my knees with my eyes watering and my cheek stinging
