Africa's New Public Policy Edwin Okey Ijeoma, 2010 Africa's New Public Policy Imperatives for Globalisation and Nation building provides a comprehensive analysis of globalisation and democracy from an African perspective. It also provides policy imperatives that are aimed at seeking solutions to the myriad challenges emanating from managing the consequences of globalisation in Nigeria and other African countries. The author attempts to determine the extent to which public administration principles in Nigeria in particular and the rest of Africa in general as well as in other parts of the developing world underpin the management of the effects of globalisation within a democracy and nation building projects. Africa's New Public Policy will not only be a useful resource for public policy decision making on globalisation issues but it will also serve as a credible reference material for public sector practitioners, scholars in international relations as well as officials involved in the diplomatic work environment. It also includes a comparative analysis on how Nigeria and South Africa have handled some of the globalisation and democratisation challenges facing their respective countries under the administrations of Presidents Obasanjo and Mbeki respectively.

Policy Process Michael Hill, 2014-07-15 In this new edition of his classic reader, Michael Hill seeks to make the selected extracts reflect a more European outlook on the process of policy making and implementation. With reference to the third edition of his popular textbook The Policy Process in the Modern State, Hill has maintained the thematic approach of the first edition, looking in turn at approaches to policy making in Europe, power, bureaucracy and the State, the rationality/incrementalism debate, the role of organisational theory in policy implementation, street level bureaucracy and discretion.
