Sjur Bergan, Carita Blomqvist

Public Responsibility For Higher Education And Research 2005 Higher Education Series 2 2005 High:

From Actors to Reforms in European Higher Education Manja Klemenčič, 2022-09-05 This volume addresses the conceptions of actors and actorhood in higher education research It explores the range of actors that are or should be recognized and theorized in higher education research the processes that shape actorhood in the higher education reforms and explores the relations between the actors and higher education reforms Drawing on a range of theoretical frameworks and research projects the volume provides in depth analyses of higher education actors and reform issues through institutional system or international comparative perspective The volume celebrates and is in conversation with the intellectual contributions of Professor Pavel Zgaga whose work advances our understanding of actors and actorhood in higher education and higher education reforms

Not by Bread Alone Sjur Bergan, 2011-01-01 Not by bread alone gathers essays on higher education including some written especially for this book They cover three key areas the missions of higher education public responsibility and qualifications Together these essays spell out a view of higher education as a key factor in developing modern societies built on the fundamental Council of Europe values of democracy human rights and the rule of law They also underline the key role of higher education in developing the ability of our societies to conduct intercultural dialogue To fulfil its role higher education needs to prepare for citizenship as well as for employment for personal development as well as for the development of a broad knowledge base Our vision of higher education and its multiple purposes must be reflected in the way we view qualifications We also need to take a close look at how the public responsibility for higher education and research can best be exercised in a society with many actors all of which have their own legitimate agendas In this situation public authorities have an overall responsibility for coherent education policies

The Lisbon Recognition Convention at 15: making fair recognition a reality Sjur Bergan, Carita Blomqvist, 2014-05-13 The Lisbon Recognition Convention developed by the Council of Europe and UNESCO is the main international legal text on the international recognition of qualifications and has been ratified by more than 50 countries Few Council of Europe conventions have achieved a greater number of ratifications and the political importance of the Lisbon Recognition Convention is very considerable The recognition of qualifications is a necessary if not sufficient condition for both student and labour mobility To mark the 15th anniversary of the convention this book examines some of the challenges to the international recognition of qualifications The convention is an essential legal text but it needs to be put into better practice How can learners use their degrees and qualifications in a new country without losing the real value of those qualifications The authors who come from a variety of backgrounds review the policies and practice of recognition link recognition to the broader higher education policy debate and consider the role of recognition in enabling individuals to move freely across borders

Exploring Institutional Logics for Technology-Mediated Higher Education Neelam Dwivedi, 2019-03-19 This book articulates the complexities inherent in higher education's multi faceted response to the forces of mediatization or how institutions change when their social communication gets mediated by technology and introduces a novel perspective to comprehend them in a systematic way By drawing on archival analysis and six organizational case studies the author empirically traces the emergence of a cyber cultural institution within higher education As these case studies demonstrate this new institutional logic requires creativity individual recognition and an underlying platform powered by cyber technologies and digitization of content Using an analytical lens this cyber cultural perspective answers many questions about why faculty refuse to adopt online education why students struggle with mediated teaching and what possibly could be done to take online education to its next level

Student Engagement in Higher Education Stephen John Quaye, Shaun R. Harper, 2014-08-15 Student Engagement in Higher Education fills a longstanding void in the higher education and student affairs literature In the fully revised and updated edition of this important volume the editors and chapter contributors explore how diverse populations of students experience college differently and encounter group specific barriers to success Informed by relevant theories each chapter focuses on engaging a different student population including low income students students of color international students students with disabilities LGBT students religious minority students student athletes homeless students transfer students commuter and part time students adult learners student veterans and graduate students The forward thinking practical strategies offered throughout the book are based on research and the collected professional wisdom of experienced educators and scholars at two year and four year institutions of higher education Current and future faculty administrators and student affairs staff will undoubtedly find this book complete with fresh ideas to reverse troubling engagement trends among various college student populations

University-Community Partnerships for Promoting Social Responsibility in Higher Education Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Craig Mahoney, 2020-07-24 This book provides empirical evidence on how universities have considered social responsibilities as their prime focus and engaged with civil society to enhance their values Case studies from Indonesia to the United Kingdom enrich the book through experience interventions and narratives

Resources in Education ,1998 Family Engagement in Black Students' Academic Success Vilma Seeberg, 2021-03-15 This timely volume presents powerful stories told by Black families and students who have successfully negotiated a racially fraught affluent and diverse suburban school district in America to illustrate how they have strategically contested sanctioned racist practices and forged a path for students to achieve a high quality education Drawing on rich qualitative data collected through interviews and interactions with parents and kin students community activists and educators Family Engagement in Black Students Academic Success chronicles how pride in Black American family history and values students personal capabilities and their often collective proactive challenges to systemic and personal racism shape students academic engagement Familial and collective cultural wealth of the Black community emerges as a central driver in students successful achievement Finally the text puts forward key recommendations to demonstrate how incorporating the knowledge and voices of Black families in school decision making remaining critically conscious of race and racial history in everyday actions and longer term policy and pursuing collective strategies for social justice in education will help eliminate current opportunity gaps and will counteract the master narrative of underachievement ever present in America This volume will be of interest to students scholars and academics with an interest in matters of social justice equity and equality of opportunity in education for Black Americans In addition the text offers key insights for school authorities in building effective working relationships with Black American families to support the high achievement of Black students in K 12 education

Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children
