Public Sculpture Of Liverpool:

Public Sculpture of Liverpool Terry Cavanagh, 1997 It is the purpose of the present catalogue to document as fully as possible the complete range of the public monuments and sculpture of Liverpool from the earliest surviving item to the most recently erected Just one clearly defined category has been excluded from the survey sculpture in an ecclesiastical context or executed for a sepulchral purpose What remains is a rich and multifarious concentration within the city of not only independent pieces such as grand monuments portrait statues abstract sculptures and commemorative fountains but also sculpture executed to embellish the city's civic and commercial architecture The volume is arranged with works in order by location and details are given of materials dimensions ownership condition and literature with photographic illustration provided for almost all of the works included

Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe Imogen Hart, Claire Jones, 2020-10-29 By foregrounding the overlaps between sculpture and the decorative this volume of essays offers a model for a more integrated form of art history writing Through distinct case studies from a seventeenth century Danish altarpiece to contemporary British ceramics it brings to centre stage makers objects concepts and spaces that have been marginalized by the enforcement of boundaries within art and design discourse These essays challenge the classed raced and gendered categories that have structured the histories and languages of art and its making Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe is essential reading for anyone interested in the history and practice of sculpture and the decorative arts and the methodologies of art history

Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture's placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape

The Persistence of Memory Jessica Moody, 2020 The Persistence of Memory tells the history of the public memory of transatlantic slavery in the largest slave trading port city in the world from the end of the 18th century into the 21st century revealing the persistence of slavery memory in Liverpool as an ongoing contested debate

Liverpool Joseph Sharples, Richard Pollard, 2004-01-01 Guidebook to significant and interesting architectural sites in Liverpool

Reading the Royal Monument in Eighteenth-Century Europe Charlotte Chastel-Rousseau, 2017-07-05 Reading the Royal Monument in Eighteenth Century Europe is the first in depth study of the major role played by royal monuments in the public space of expanding cities across eighteenth century Europe Using the royal public statues as the basis for its examination of modern European cities the book considers the development of urban landscapes from the creation of capital cities to the last embers of the Ancien R me and at how the royal politics of the arts affected the cityscapes of the time The focus of the book thereby intersects across a spectrum of disciplines including the social and architectural history of cities the politics of urban planning the history of monumental sculpture and the material culture of the eighteenth century Merseypride John Belchem,2006 With a new introduction that takes account of the extraordinary renaissance that Liverpool is currently enjoying the second edition of this collection by one of the leading scholars of the city s history offers a timely and perceptive examination of the origins and persistence of Liverpool s exceptionalism BOOK JACKET

"Art in the North of England, 1979?2008 " GabrielN. Gee,2017-07-05 Based on rare archival material and numerous interviews with practitioners Art in the North of England 1979 2008 analyses the relation between political and economic changes stemming from the 1980s and artistic developments in the principal cities of the North of England in the late 20th century Looking in particular at the art scenes of Liverpool Manchester Leeds Sheffield and Newcastle Gabriel Gee unveils a set of powerful aesthetic reactions to industrial change and urban reconstruction during this period on the part of artists including John Davies Pete Clarke the Amber collective Richard Wilson Karen Watson Nick Crowe Ian Rawlinson John Kippin and the contribution of organisations such as Projects UK Locus East Street Arts the Henry Moore Sculpture Trust and the Bluecoat Gallery in Liverpool While the geographical focus of this study is highly specific a key concern throughout is the relationship between regional national and international artistic practices and identities Of interest to all scholars and students concerned with the developments of British art in the second half of the 20th century the study is also of direct pertinence to observers of global narratives which are here described and analysed through the concept of trans industriality

"William Reid Dick, Sculptor " Dennis Wardleworth,2017-07-05 William Reid Dick 1878 1961 was one of a generation of British sculptors air brushed out of art history by the Modernist critics of the late twentieth century This long overdue monograph adds to the recent revival of interest in this group of forgotten sculptors by describing the life and work of arguably the leading figure of the group in unprecedented depth The facts of Reid Dick s life and his most important works are presented against a backdrop of the historical social and aesthetic changes taking place during his lifetime Dennis Wardleworth elucidates why Reid Dick s reputation plummeted so quickly and why his position in the history of British art deserves to be restored This study draws upon a wealth of previously unpublished material including over 2000 letters and press cuttings and photographs in the Tate Archive as well as letters and photographs held by Reid Dick s family It traces the sculptor s story from his birth in the Gorbals in Glasgow to his election to the Royal Academy and knighting by George V to the decline of his career and his late life connection with American millionaire and art collector Huntington Hartford The first monograph on Reid Dick since 1945 the book also includes images of over 40 of his works and a listing of over 200 works identified by the author Art, Space and the City Malcolm Miles,1997 This book sees public art outside the normal confines of art criticism and place it within broader contexts of public space and gender Using different perspectives it explores both the aesthetic and political aspects of the medium
