A compendium on international trade in Lesotho ,2025-09-15

International trade is a topic that is important for all states regardless of their level of development Trade can directly increase foreign exchange earnings and allow consumers to access desired foreign goods and services Indirectly trade potentially increases employment and improves technology via spillover effects It ultimately improves economic growth and enhances living standards Conversely there can be negative effects to trade especially when imports are high Examples are jobs being outsourced increased economic dependence de industrialisation in importing countries as well as exposure to negative external shocks Therefore it is crucial to critically examine the multifaceted ways that international trade manifests in any economy It is on this premise that this compendium interrogates various aspects of international trade in the context of Lesotho Although Lesotho is a small country it is strategically located relative to South Africa which gives it several trade advantages The country is willing to engage in international trade and investment deals and it is a member of several significant trade agreements that facilitate its integration into regional and global markets Examples of these are the African Growth and Opportunity Act AGOA the Southern African Customs Union SACU the Southern African Development Community SADC Free Trade Area and the Tripartite Free Trade Area which combines the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA SADC and the East African Community Understanding the various dimensions of international trade in Lesotho is imperative for investors scholars and international business firms but published international trade literature on Lesotho is very scarce This compendium brings to light the implications of international trade on the history and legal political social geographical and economic realities of Lesotho The book will also have a wide appeal for similar economies beyond the particular geographical context of Lesotho A History of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians 1989-2007 Fiedler, Rachel NyaGondwe,2017-09-28 When African Theology was first formulated women played just a small role In 1989 Mercy Amba Oduyoye set out to change this by creating the Circle of Concerned African Theologians in order to give them a voice The Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians is an African Baby born in an ecumenical surrounding Though there were other movements addressing the issue of gender inequalities in church and society circle theologies are distinct from other women s liberation movements in that they are theologies formed in the context of African culture and religion This book traces the Circle history from 1989 to 2007 Historical Dictionary of Lesotho John Aerni-Flessner,Charles Fogelman,Nthabiseng Mokoena-Mokhali,2023-11-30 Lesotho s history has long been defined by its enclave status within South Africa but it is a hard fought and hard won status that helps unite Basotho through the shared history of struggle against colonial rule in the region Since the end of apartheid in 1994 Lesotho s status as a separate entity has been called into question though the fierce national pride built through centuries of resistance to outside rule has mitigated against any serious discussions of incorporating Lesotho into South Africa Still the political instability and lack of a flourishing domestic economy have made life difficult for the majority of Basotho and could call into question the viability and legitimacy of the state in the eyes of its citizens if it cannot enact significant reforms in the coming decades Historical Dictionary of Lesotho Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lesotho Lesotho 1970 B.M. Conz,2024 Shows that a fraught historical process was at work in which Basotho drew on local and global sources of knowledge and how this small nation surrounded by South Africa can serve as a valuable case study for wider conversations about progress and modernization in the Global South Both place based environmental history and global intellectual history this book explores the politics of environment agriculture poverty development and science in Lesotho Drawing on diverse experiences with this landlocked mountainous nation and based on bilingual archival and oral history research in Sesotho and English the book examines how Basotho intellectuals farmers migrant workers chiefs experts and politicians formed vernacular ideas of tsoelopele progress amid the structural violence of colonialism and capitalism in southern Africa Rather than a unidirectional flow of enlightened knowledge from Europe to Africa the study shows that a fraught historical process was at work in which Basotho drew on local and global sources of knowledge from ancestral agricultural practices to colonial soil science and from African American missionaries to African nationalists in Ghana Basotho ideas about tsoelopele it is argued informed the many political social and environmental innovations that enabled survival within a sea of white supremacy and that underpin approaches to development in independent Lesotho Throughout the book shows how this small nation surrounded by South Africa can serve as a valuable case study for wider conversations about progress and modernization in the Global South
