Kort, 2012 Given its affinity with questions of identity autobiography offers a way into the interior space between author and reader especially when writers define themselves in terms of religion In his exploration of this textual intimacy Wesley Kort begins with a theorization of what it means to say who one is and how one's self account as a religious person stands in relation to other forms of self identification He then provides a critical analysis of autobiographical texts by nine contemporary American writers including Maya Angelou Philip Roth and Anne Lamott who give religion a positive place in their accounts of who they are Finally in disclosing his own religious identity Kort concludes with a meditation on several meanings of the word assumption

Ingrained Habits Mary Ellen O'Donnell, 2018-03-09 Born Catholic Raised Catholic Americans across generations have used these phrases to describe their formative days but the experience of growing up Catholic in the United States has changed over the last several decades While the creed and the sacraments remain the same the context for learning the faith has transformed As a result of demographic shifts and theological developments children face a different set of circumstances today from what they encountered during the mid twentieth century Through a close study of autobiographical and fictional texts that depict the experience Ingrained Habits explores the intimate details of everyday life for children growing up Catholic during the 1940s 50s and 60s These literary portrayals present upbringings characterized by an all encompassing encounter with religion The adult authors of such writings run the gamut from vowed priests to unwavering atheists and their depictions range from glowing nostalgia to deep seated resentment however they curiously describe similar experiences from their childhood days in the Church

The Memoirs of a Somebody Brandon Schild, 2022-02-03 As we all know about Kyle but what about Amanda Wasn't she an important character too This is only an opinion however you can read this story and become involved and see her perspective view Sadly enough her story could relate to some people but not everyone though it could be a reality for others Life death trials and accidents all happen and even pregnancy occurs in our day to day lives People are joyful and then some are so depressed that they need help At times these individuals that are troubled may even get their memories displaced We all have those moments when we are lost in a train of thought which may even seem like a stranded endless highway And if not you can least enjoy Amanda's story and it is seen The prince de Ligne, his memoirs, letters, and miscellaneous papers, selected and tr. by K.P.
