Punk B.L. Morgan,2015-06-26 What would happen if an abused ignored angry teenage boy was given the power to make all of his tormentors pay for what they did to him Red Simon Vampire Punk answers that question with buckets of blood A bullied teenage boy is murdered and comes back as a vampire to take gruesome revenge on everybody who mistreated him He s tracked by police a private detective and a vampire hunting priest Simon develops a group of followers who want the same kind of vampire powers he has But Simon is actually nothing but a confused child While trying to get some answers from the police and vamp hunter Father Spinello about the meaning of life he wonders if this empty existence can ever come to an end Because let s face it once you ve had your revenge what s left Whiteness, Otherness and the Individualism Paradox from Huck to Punk D. Traber,2007-02-19 Traber reexamines the practice of self marginalization in Euro American literature and popular culture that depict whites adopting varied markers of otherness to disengage from the dominant culture He draws on critical theory whiteness and cultural studies to counter an eager correlation between marginality and agency The nonconformist cultural politics of these border crossings implode since the transgressive identity the protagonists desire relies upon is built from the center's values and definitions An orthodox notion of individualism underpins each act of sovereignty as it rationalizes exploiting stereotypes of an Other constructed by the center The work closes by positing a theory of identity based on Jean Luc Nancy's concept of the emptied self In recognizing the already mixed quality of being identity is made a vacuous concept as the standards for determining self and difference become too slippery to hold

Post-Punk Perception Edmund Wong, 2013-07-27 Growing up in Singapore in the 80s has been challenging I didn't know much about life or economy I didn't know what I want to do apart from playing I know I had to study and get a job In school we had to write composition about our profession when we grow up I had never wanted to be a philosopher let alone writing about social philosophy It is just that growing up with a single parent is tough It is tougher when she is uneducated and I had to learn most things by myself After my National Service I decided to further studies That was when I was exposed to philosophy and psychology in the UK After graduation in 1999 with a degree in Electronics I came back home to resume my National Service I disrupt it and had about 2 months left The life in UK exposed me to something that I did not notice when growing up in Singapore I find local social scene unsatisfactory They are Confucians Muslims Christians freethinkers and humanists Most time they are preoccupied with how to earn more money Religion does not give me the fulfillment that it promised In addition most were based on Singaporeans interpretation of the Bible and Buddhism's dharma Most times I feel that everything that Singaporeans do has got to do with wealth creation or at least with the expenditure of it It end up like what Pope Francis referred to as the cult of money Organised religion involves more fear mongering than cultivating an inner grace and peace Hence this book is about how I relate an ancient thinker's ethics Aristotle to the present day I find Aristotle's ethics to most suit my needs as a man and lover It does not pretend to be more than what it seek the golden mean It does require us to think and explore the values to find balance and achieve wisdom with intellectual and moral virtues I also find other philosophers French or not particularly insightful and thought provoking They offer me explanation and exploration on subjects like love sex and death Freudian psychoanalysis are also very penetrating in their findings and insights Moreover I needed some contemporary psychological theory not in depth psychoanalysis to back Aristotle's model of ethics intellectual and moral virtues Hence the psychological background of my book I got acquainted with these psychological theories when I was preparing myself to be a financial consultant I later found out more about them and they became useful in my work and life Hence I would like to share it with people in Asia so that they can ask the right kind of questions in life in order to learn more about themselves and the social milieu they are living in Because everyone of us are affected by the social sciences politics economics and sociology This book will I hope allow us to understand why we are irrational and how we can make rational changes through reasonings in their life and achieving eudaimonia My wish is simply to share what I enjoy doing apart from creating useful ideas to improve the world Through my book I hope to make others understand religion science and philosophy and how they play an increasingly integral part in the Asian century
