Pupils Perceptions Of Europe Identity And Education:

Pupils' Perceptions of Europe Anne Convery, 1997 Presents the results of a survey examining adolescents attitudes towards the changing face of Europe Are French children for example more informed than their British peers The text considers how much children know about the changes and how much they really care Young People's Perceptions of Europe in a Time of Change Bruno Losito, Gabriella Agrusti, Valeria Damiani, Wolfram Schulz, 2018-05-01 This open access book presents findings from 15 European countries participating in the second cycle of the IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS 2016 The study investigates the ways in which young people are prepared to undertake their roles as citizens in a range of countries in the second decade of the 21st century It responds to new and persisting challenges in the area of civic and citizenship education The main results presented in this book are based on data collected using a European student questionnaire and provide insights into lower secondary students views on European identity such as whether they identify as European or have opportunities to learn about Europe in school perceptions of freedom of movement and immigration such as attitudes toward immigration restriction of freedom of movement and the freedom of European citizens to live and work across Europe and perceptions of Europe and its future such as views on European cooperation expectations regarding Europe s future and attitudes toward the European Union For the 12 countries that participated in the previous cycle ICCS 2009 ICCS 2016 reveals changes in young people s perceptions of immigration and European identity between 2009 and 2016 Test and questionnaire data from the international core study are used to review the extent to which region specific perceptions are related to other factors such as students level of civic knowledge and social or educational contexts New Directions for Research in Foreign Language Education Simon Coffey, Ursula Wingate, 2017-10-23 New Directions for Research in Foreign Language Education brings together contributions by reputed scholars that examine the challenges opportunities and benefits of teaching and learning foreign languages With a particular focus on languages other than English the book looks at the socio political dimension of language learning and teaching and the need to re theorize multilingualism for our age The volume includes a range of perspectives from language teaching as an act of reconciliation to language learning across the lifespan from innovations in assessment and curriculum to critical appraisals of pedagogy and textbook materials Each chapter presents a clear case study drawn from diverse contexts to illustrate the different concerns of the contributors The book is a valuable resource for all students teachers teacher educators and researchers who share an interest in researching multilingualism and the different facets of teaching and learning foreign languages Negotiating Political Identities Daniel Faas, 2016-04-22 Globalization European integration and migration are challenging national identities and changing education across Europe The nation state no longer serves as the sole locus of civic participation and identity formation ceasing to have the influence it once had over the implementation of policies Drawing on rich empirical data from four schools in Germany and Britain this groundbreaking book is the first

study of its kind to examine how schools mediate government policies and create distinct educational contexts to shape youth identity negotiation and integration processes Negotiating Political Identities will appeal to educationists sociologists and political scientists whose work concerns issues of migration identity citizenship and ethnicity It will also be an invaluable source of evidence for policymakers and professionals concerned with balancing cultural diversity and social cohesion in such a way as to promote more inclusive citizenship and educational policies in multiethnic multifaith schools Young Citizens' Views and Engagement in a Changing Europe Valeria Damiani, Bruno Losito, Gabriella Agrusti, Wolfram Schulz, 2024-11-18 This open access report presents the European results from the third cycle 2022 of the IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS Eighteen countries and two benchmarking participants the German states of North Rhine Westphalia and Schleswig Holstein administered the European student questionnaire to target grade students The purpose of the European student questionnaire is to explore specific European related civic and citizenship issues derived from the overarching ICCS 2022 assessment framework It includes questions on students opinions on European related civic and citizenship issues such as students sense of European identity students opportunities for learning about Europe students attitudes toward free movement of European citizens the European Union and cooperation among European countries It also includes questions on students sustainable behaviors and those related to political consumerism ICCS 2022 data allows education systems to evaluate the strengths of educational policies and measure progress in their educational policies European Dimensions John Field, 1998 Field addresses the European Union's desire for a unified approach to education and its content exploring the origin of this interest the tensions that underlie the policies and its impact at national level Schools for the Future Europe John Sayer, Lynn Erler, 2012-03-08 Schools for the Future Europe brings together a team of leading academics policy makers and education professionals to explore the emergence development and application of European education policy up to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond The book charts the historical development of a Europe wide education policy and examines how that policy has sought to address such issues as European citizenship human rights and bilingual schooling Taking as examples the intended future extension of the European Schools and the European Baccalaureate and a case study of work towards the first British European Academy or Free School at Culham UK the book critically explores the interplay of EU action programmes policy and rhetoric on secondary education In the final section the editors draw on the insights of the previous chapters to outline an achievable programme for the future development of education policy structures and practice in schools for Europe Teaching Modern Languages in the Primary School Patricia Driscoll, David Frost, 2005-06-23 It has been argued for some time that to improve language learning in Britain we need to start earlier as many other European countries do This book is addressed to policy makers and teachers who are considering the possibility of getting involved in the teaching of MFL in the primary school European Identity at the Crossroads Aikaterini I. Klonari, Tatjana Resnik Planinc, 2013 This study deals with the development existence and dilemmas concerning European identity among youth in Europe It compiles the results of a research conducted within the Comenius project Perception Attitude Movement Identity Needs Action PAM INA The eight participating institutions in the PAM INA project were from Germany Slovenia France Greece Poland Northern Ireland UK Cyprus and Sweden The authors from the respective countries discuss the results and present their views on the issue of European identity and citizenship Series Learning Europe Perspectives for Teaching European Cultural Studies Europa lernen Perspektiven fur eine Didaktik europaischer Kulturstudien Vol 3 Renewing history education to uphold democracy Council of Europe, 2024-09-01 Uncover how history education can either divide or unite and explore the Council of Europe's groundbreaking initiatives that have redefined how we teach history promoting critical thinking and democratic values for a more inclusive future History education possesses immense power serving as a double-edged sword It can either propagate divisive harmful narratives or foster critical thinking understanding and unity The Council of Europe's pioneering efforts since its creation have profoundly shaped history education emphasising multiperspectivity and democratic values Through comprehensive programmes and projects they have reformed curricula promoted critical historical inquiry and introduced innovative teaching practices Today initiatives like the Observatory on History Teaching in Europe and HISTOLAB continue this legacy addressing contemporary challenges to enhance history education This publication delves into these efforts featuring insightful articles from four HISTOLAB fellows exploring the intersection of digital innovation inclusivity and curricular reform in history education
