The youth theatre of the 1980s and 90s has thrown aside the concerns of the angry underground and developed a fast moving bewilderingly kaleidoscopic drama of breath taking energy

Sino-Japanese Transculturation Richard King, Cody Poulton, Katsuhiko Endo, 2012 This is a multi author work which examines the cultural dimensions of the relations between East Asia's two great powers China and Japan in a period of change and turmoil from the late nineteenth century to the end of the Second World War This period saw Japanese invasion of China the occupation of China's North east Manchuria and Taiwan and war between the two nations from 1937 1945 the scars of that war are still evident in relations between the two countries today In their quest for modernity the rulers and leading thinkers of China and Japan defined themselves in contradistinction to the other influenced both by traditional bonds of classical culture and by the influx of new Western ideas that flowed through Japan to China The experiences of intellectual and cultural awakening in the two countries were inextricably linked as our studies of poetry fiction philosophy theatre and popular culture demonstrate The chapters explore this process of transculturation the sharing and exchange of ideas and artistic expression not only in Japan and China but in the larger region which Joshua Fogel has called the Sinosphere an area including Korea and parts of Southeast Asia with a shared heritage of Confucian statecraft and values underpinned by the classical Chinese language The authors of the chapters who include established senior academics and younger scholars and employ a range of disciplines and methodologies were selected by the editors for their expertise in particular aspects of this rich and complex cultural relationship As for the editors Richard King and Cody Poulton are scholars and translators of Chinese literature and Japanese theatre respectively each taking a historical and comparative perspective to the study of their subject Katsuhiko Endo is an intellectual historian dealing with both Japan and China

Gleams From Japan (Routledge Revivals) S. Katsumata, 2013-05-13 First published in 1937 this is a collection of articles written by the author under the pseudonym Waseda Eisaku for the Japan Tourist Bureau's magazine over twenty five years Intended to satisfy the intellectual curiosity of cultivated tourists from abroad by giving the insider's view of all things Japanese it was published as a book just before the outbreak of World War II Writing in the first person Katsumata becomes both guide and confidante writing about his own travel experiences in Japan and about Japanese customs and practices that interest him such as traditional incense ceremonies or fishing with rod and creel This personal approach results in an unusual selection of topics and itineraries including tray landscapes old Japanese clocks hot springs Japanese humour sumo wrestling pines in Japanese scenery the Japanese sun flag and Buddhist temple bells The author not only describes but draws the reader into his own experiences his joy on buying an antiquarian book he cannot really afford the monotony he feels when travelling too long through snowy landscapes the delight he takes in telling you that the best bait for carp fishing is sweet potato Katsumata's unconventional choice of subjects and his informal and individualistic writing style make this a refreshingly different guide to Japan and a valuable record of the period in which it was written
