Lantern Art celebrates the life and artistry of cinema pioneer Joseph Boggs Beale 1841-1926. Beale was America's premier artist creating images for magic lantern shows, the projected performances that gave birth to the movies. His 2,000 lantern illustrations were made into story-telling slides that were seen and admired by millions a year. Almost single-handedly, he created American screen entertainment for the generation before the movies, pioneering narrative techniques that later appeared on the nation's cinema screens. Magic Lantern Art is based on both the author's extensive Beale archive, now held by the Lucas Museum of Narrative Art in Los Angeles, and on his 25-year career performing more than 1,000 professional lantern shows using Beale's slides. Written in an engaging and accessible style and featuring over 500 color pictures, the book is a must-read for anyone interested in cinema history or American art. The Marquis de Leuville Dick Weindling, Marianne Colloms, 2012-05-30. Once called the greatest charlatan of his age, the Marquis was a fascinating Victorian renaissance man. Born to an artistic family, he became a renowned poet and adventurer. A crack shot and excellent swordsman, the Marquis fought duels and has a series of high-profile love affairs. He joined Garibaldi during the unification of Italy and claimed an affair with the Queen of Naples. Louisa Tussaud of the famous waxworks family risked her reputation for him as they set out on an extravagant journey across Europe. In New York, he met wealthy widow and newspaper proprietor Mrs. Leslie, and their on-off affair lasted over twenty years. The charismatic Marquis made friends and enemies in equal measure. Accomplished orator, story-teller, and dandy, he cut a swathe through high society in London and New York. But his colourful life held a secret: who was the real Marquis de Leuville? Suffrage Ellen Carol DuBois, 2021-02-23. Honoring the 100th anniversary of the 19th amendment to the Constitution, this indispensable book, Ellen Chesler, Ms. magazine explores the full scope of the movement to win the vote for women through portraits of its bold leaders and devoted activists. Distinguished historian Ellen Carol DuBois begins in the pre-Civil War years with foremothers Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, and Sojourner Truth, as she meticulously and vibrantly chronicles the links of the woman suffrage movement to the abolition of slavery. After the Civil War, Congress granted freed African American men the right to vote but not white and African American women, a crushing disappointment. DuBois shows how suffrage leaders persevered through the Jim Crow years into the reform era of Progressivism. She introduces new champions Carrie Chapman Catt and Alice Paul, who brought the fight to the 20th century, and she shows how African American women led by Ida B. Wells-Barnett demanded voting rights even as white suffragists ignored them. DuBois explains how suffragists built a determined coalition of moderate lobbyists and radical demonstrators in forging a strategy of winning voting rights in crucial states to set the stage for securing suffrage for all American women in the Constitution. In vivid prose, DuBois describes suffragists' final victories in Congress and state legislatures, culminating in the last, most difficult ratification in Tennessee. Ellen DuBois enables us to appreciate the drama of the long battle for women's suffrage and the heroism of many of its advocates. Eric Foner, author of The Second Founding: How the Civil War and Reconstruction Remade the Constitution. DuBois follows women's efforts to use their voting
