Confessing Christ in the Naga Context Bendangjungshi, 2011 In this book author Bendangjungshi brings into dialogue the three leading Northeast Indian tribal theologians Renthly Keitzar K Thanzauva and Wati Longchar with the Western theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer who suffered martyrdom under the Nazi dictatorship in Germany Negotiating between Bonhoeffer s political approach and Naga cultural identity Bendangjungshi develops a liberating ecclesiology for Naga Christians who have been suffering under Indian military occupation since the withdrawal of the British colonizers from Nagaland Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 8

Nagalim Suvo Moitro, 2012-04-25 ALICIA SEMA understood little about the insurgent movement even after the Naga rebels came to her school to recruit comrades But now sitting on a cliff facing the immense expanse far below she listened with great interest the virile voice of her school mate KAITO KEVI his fervid description of the movement his dreams of a free nation a free Nagalim Years later a mystic phone call makes her to wonder did she bury her sweetheart Kaitos bullet ridden body Then she had no time to think she had strangled her baby image killed her innocence and then gunned down the responsible army officers Drawn up against the backdrop of Naga freedom struggle in which thousands sacrificed their lives wives became widows and children became orphans NAGALIM the Smoldering slopes

The Greater India Experiment Arkotong Longkumer, 2020-12-01 The assertion that even institutions often viewed as abhorrent should be dispassionately understood motivates Arkotong Longkumer's pathbreaking ethnography of the Sangh Parivar a family of organizations comprising the Hindu right The Greater India Experiment counters the urge to explain away their ideas and actions as inconsequential by demonstrating their efforts to influence local politics and culture in Northeast India Longkumer constructs a comprehensive understanding of Hindutva an idea central to the establishment of a Hindu nation state by focusing on the Sangh Parivar's engagement with indigenous peoples in a region that has long resisted the idea of India Contextualizing their activities as a Hindutva experiment within the broader Indian political and cultural landscape he ultimately paints a unique picture of the country today

Women Against the Raj Chloë Gardner, 2024-11-30 This is the story of the women from the Indian Subcontinent who fought against British imperial power from the 1600s until the independence of India and Pakistan in 1947 It begins by looking at the Partition of India and the unique impact this had on women who in addition to the displacement and violence which affected millions of South Asians suffered uniquely through a campaign of rape abduction and forced suicides which left a lasting impact on the souls of women from every community It then seeks to shine a light on the often forgotten story of these women who were not just passive victims of British and later communal violence but who fought alongside or sometimes at the head of their male counterparts to secure the fall of the British Raj and the independence of their own nation The stories of up to forty women are examined from various religious and racial communities across South Asia who advocated for Indian Independence and should be remembered and celebrated as influential freedom fighters in the same way that their male contemporaries have been The book concludes by briefly examining the role of women in Indian nationalist movements today and how this can be traced to the precedent set by their ancestors during the colonial era

The Resilience of Indigenous Religion Samson Kamei, 2022-12-22 This book is a sociological study of the resilience of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak one of the indigenous religions of the Rongmei people of Manipur It examines the underlying factors contributing towards the ability of the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak to continue with their religion despite stigmatisation conversion and persecution by sections of Christians This book reflects the contemporary relevance of the legacies of the religious movements under Jadonang Malangmei and Rani Gaidinliu Thus the book also examines the continuity between the past and the present religious movements with complex underlying factors contributing to the resilience of an indigenous religion The Rongmei people following Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak a reformed religion are seen to be not shying away from changes in their religious beliefs and practices Interestingly however despite all the reformations consciously heralded the idea of primordiality in the sense of unchanging is a sincere atavism among the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak Methodologically speaking the emphasis of the book is on theoretical and methodological triangulation Both social change theory and social identity theory are used to understand the resilience of the indigenous faith of the Rongmei people amidst dominant Hindus and tribal Christians It is observed that the idea of change is indispensable in understanding the resilience of an indigenous faith despite the commonly held belief in the essentiality of primordiality in a religion The book is intended to serve the academic interests of researchers working on indigenous religions Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print version of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Northeastern Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer S. Uglow, 1999 The most comprehensive reference book of its kind with more than 60 new entries in this third edition , Marginality in India Kedilezo Kikhi, Dharma Rakshit Gautam, 2023-01-09 The book takes a close look into the definitions and categorizations of marginality inequality agency and location in society It examines the systems of marginalization and othering by exploring perspectives of socially excluded people and communities in Northeast India The context of Northeast India provides unique perspectives on the debates around marginality due to the existence of multi ethnic cultures in the region and since its prolonged colonial historical experience alienated it from the rest of India This volume focuses on the issues pertaining to tribe caste gender identity religion and physical disability in the region It also looks at the roles which institutions education and the media play in the creation and perpetuation of social exclusion and the centre periphery binary With essays from eminent scholars and social scientists the book discusses themes such as citizenship and borders national and tribal identity the role of the law government and policies for countering exclusion and the challenges which socially excluded groups and communities face to gain agency autonomy and the right to equality This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of sociology Northeast India studies political sociology development studies political science gender studies and social anthropology
