Science Myth And The Fictional Creation Of Alien Worlds:

Science, Myth, and the Fictional Creation of Alien Worlds Albert Wendland, 1985 Worlds Apart Carl Darryl Malmgren, 1991-07-22 Malmgren succeeds in formulating a typology of science fiction that will become a standard reference for some years to come Choice the most intelligently organized and effectively argued general study of SF that I have ever read Rob Latham SFRA Review required reading for its evenhanded overview of so much of the previous critical theoretical material devoted to science fiction American Book Review Worlds Apart provides a comprehensive theoretical model for science fiction by examining the worlds of science fiction and the discourse which inscribes them Malmgren identifies the basic science fiction types including alien encounters alternate societies and worlds and fantasy and examines the role of the reader in concretizing and interpreting these science fiction worlds Once and Future Antiquities in Science Fiction and Fantasy Brett M. Rogers, Benjamin Eldon Stevens, 2018-12-27 In 15 all new essays this volume explores how science fiction and fantasy draw on materials from ancient Greece and Rome displacing them from their original settings in time and space in points of origins and genre and encouraging readers to consider similar displacements in the modern world Modern examples from a wide range of media and genres including Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials and the novels of Helen Oyeyemi the Rocky Horror Picture Show and Hayao Miyazaki's Spirited Away and the role playing games Dungeons and Dragons and Warhammer 40K are brought alongside episodes from ancient myth important moments from history and more All together these multifaceted studies add to our understanding of how science fiction and fantasy form important areas of classical reception not only transmitting but also transmuting images of antiquity The volume concludes with an inspiring personal reflection from the New York Times bestselling author of speculative fiction Catherynne M Valente offering her perspective on the limitless potential of the classical world to resonate with experience today Science Fact and Science Fiction Brian Stableford, 2006-09-06 Science fiction is a literary genre based on scientific speculation Works of science fiction use the ideas and the vocabulary of all sciences to create valid narratives that explore the future effects of science on events and human beings Science Fact and Science Fiction examines in one volume how science has propelled science fiction and to a lesser extent how science fiction has influenced the sciences Although coverage will discuss the science behind the fiction from the Classical Age to the present focus is naturally on the 19th century to the present when the Industrial Revolution and spectacular progress in science and technology triggered an influx of science fiction works speculating on the future As scientific developments alter expectations for the future the literature absorbs uses and adapts such contextual visions The goal of the Encyclopedia is not to present a catalog of sciences and their application in literary fiction but rather to study the ongoing flow and counterflow of influences including how fictional representations of science affect how we view its practice and disciplines Although the main focus is on literature other forms of science fiction including film and video games are explored and because science is an international matter works from non English speaking countries are discussed

Architecture and Science-Fiction Film David T. Fortin, 2016-12-05 The home is one of our most enduring human paradoxes and is brought to light tellingly in science fiction SF writing and film However while similarities and crossovers between architecture and SF have proliferated throughout the past century the home is often overshadowed by the spectacle of otherness The study of the familiar home within the alien SF creates a unique cultural lens through which to reflect on our current architectural condition SF has always been linked with alienation however the conditions of such alienation and hence notions of home have evidently changed There is often a perceived comprehension of the familiar that atrophies the inquisitive and interpretive processes commonly activated when confronting the unfamiliar Thus by utilizing the estranging qualities of SF to look at a concept inherently linked to its perceived opposite the home a unique critical analysis with particular relevance for contemporary architecture is made possible
