Berg,Mary Catherine Hager,2017-11-06 Access Is Capture Roderic N Crooks,2024-09-03 Racially and economically segregated schools across the United States have hosted many interventions from commercial digital education technology edtech companies who promise their products will rectify the failures of public education Edtech s benefits are not only trumpeted by industry promoters and evangelists but also vigorously pursued by experts educators students and teachers Why then has edtech yet to make good on its promises In Access Is Capture Roderic

N Crooks investigates how edtech functions in Los Angeles public schools that exclusively serve Latinx and Black communities These so called urban schools are sites of intense ongoing technological transformation where the tantalizing possibilities of access to computing meet the realities of structural inequality Crooks shows how data intensive edtech delivers value to privileged individuals and commercial organizations but never to the communities that hope to share in the benefits He persuasively argues that data drivenness ultimately enjoins the public to participate in a racial project marked by the extraction of capital from minoritized communities to enrich the tech sector

Introduction to Art Image Access Murtha Baca,2002-07-25 With the proliferation of information on the World Wide Web and in other networked environments one of the main things that users search for are images of works of art and architecture End users generally try to search for images by subject a process that often proves unsatisfactory and frustrating Cataloging images of works of art has always been challenging but now that end users need only have access to the Internet the challenge is more daunting than ever This illustrated book on using metadata standards and controlled vocabularies to catalog and provide accurate end user access to images of works of art also focuses on decisions that must be made about the arrangement of visual records descriptive principles and methodologies and requirements for access Introduction to Art Image Access addresses the issues that underlie a visual collection to make it accessible in an electronic environment A glossary selected bibliography and list of acronyms and URLs are included

Stories From My Career

Lynne Gross,2014-02-20 Stories From My Career is a compilation of 50 illustrated stories about the author s career as a college professor and media practitioner Her career began in the 1960s when very few women were employed in either area and spanned six decades until her retirement. The initial stories take place in Pittsburgh where she grew up and Chicago where she went to college but most of the stories are centered in the Los Angeles area. A fair number also take place in other countries where she taught and consulted. The stories encompass topics such as combining career and family, the evolution of electronic technology, the civil rights movement, maternity leave practices, television production techniques, the Academy of Television Arts Sciences, beginnings of cable TV, teaching challenges, media functions in developing nations, and career advice.
