Silent No More John Potter, 2022-08-08 Suicide is a leading cause of death More people die from suicide than in all of the combined wars conflicts and natural disasters across the globe Suicide is also an issue that few seem willing to discuss Suicide remains a hidden or taboo topic Stigma culture and theological misunderstanding are contributing factors to this reality Silent No More A Christian Response to Suicide examines how scripture spiritual practices and congregations can address suicide Religion spirituality is frequently listed as a strong protective factor against suicide Years of research studies and literature show that religion spirituality is even stronger when beliefs religious activity and community are engaged to support people at risk of suicide Religion spirituality must be fully integrated into suicide prevention plans and efforts if a total wellness approach of spirit mind and body are to be utilized The book also addresses that Christian congregations must have love soaked people who are ready to provide community and fellowship to hurting people inside and outside of the church doors The author concludes the book with seven steps that will enable congregations and churches leaders to help those who are at risk of suicide These strategies can make simple strides to address suicide and help hurting people in any community It is time for Christian communities to rejoin the battle against suicide Christianity has a rich legacy of caring for people in crisis historically having started hospitals mental health centers and compassionate care ministries There is a way for Christianity to regain its voice and care for people at risk of suicide It is time for Christians to be silent no more

The Late Novels of Eudora Welty Jan Nordby Gretlund, Karl-Heinz Westarp, 1998 The Late Novels of Eudora Welty offers readings of two of the works considered to be Welty's most exciting both in innovative technique and postmodern existential statement Fourteen new essays by internationally distinguished critics of Southern literature provide focused appraisals of Welty's last two novels Losing Battles 1970 a provocative experiment in narration and Pulitzer Prize winning The Optimist's Daughter 1972 a profound comment on our time

Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and

Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children's literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land Conversations with John A. Williams Jeffrey Allen

Tucker,2018-02-20 One of the most prolific African American authors of his time John A Williams 1925 2015 made his mark as a journalist educator and writer Having worked for Newsweek Ebony and Jet magazines Williams went on to write twelve novels and numerous works of nonfiction A vital link between the Black Arts movement and the previous era Williams crafted works of fiction that relied on historical research as much as his own finely honed skills From The Man Who Cried I Am a roman clef about expatriate African American writers in Europe to Clifford's Blues a Holocaust novel told in the form of the diary entries of a gay black jazz pianist in Dachau these representations of black experiences marginalized from official histories make him one of our most important writers Conversations with John A Williams collects twenty three interviews with the three time winner of the American Book Award beginning with a discussion in 1969 of his early works and ending with a previously unpublished interview from 2005 Gathered from print periodicals as well as radio and television programs these interviews address a range of topics including anti black violence Williams's WWII naval service race and publishing interracial romance Martin Luther King Jr growing up in Syracuse the Prix de Rome scandal traveling in Africa and Europe and his reputation as an angry black writer The conversations prove valuable given how often Williams drew from his own life and career for his fiction They display the integrity social engagement and artistic vision that make him a writer to be reckoned with A Black Philadelphia Reader Louis J. Parascandola,2024-06-11

The relationship between the City of Brotherly Love and its Black residents has been complicated from the city's founding through the present day A Black Philadelphia Reader traces this complex history in the words of Black writers who were native to lived in or had significant connections to the city Featuring the works of famous authors including W E B Du Bois Harriet Jacobs Sonia Sanchez and John Edgar Wideman alongside lesser known voices this reader is an immersive and enriching composite portrait of the Black experience in Philadelphia Through fiction and nonfiction poetry and prose readers witness episodes of racial prejudice and gender inequality in areas like public health housing education policing criminal justice and public transportation And yet amid these myriad challenges the writers convey an enduring faith a love of family and community and a hope that Philadelphia will fulfill its promises to its Black citizens Thoughtfully introduced and accompanied by notes that contextualize the works and aid readers comprehension this book will appeal to a wide audience of Philadelphians and other readers interested in American African American and urban studies

Sitting In The Fire Arnold Mindell,2014 Arnold Mindell Ph D shows how working with power rank revenge and abuse helps build sustainable communities Mindell is the co founder of processwork and author of numerous books including Quantum Mind The Deep Democracy of Open Forums and The Leader as Martial Artist He has appeared on national radio and television and works internationally with multi racial and highly conflicted groups

Be a Father to Your Child April R. Silver,2008-05-23 How do young black fathers relate to their children as well as to their own fathers How do they see and play their roles in both family and community These are some of the big questions this timely accessible book addresses Written by both popular commentators and those who have experienced the issues firsthand Be a Father to Your Child begins with a frank discussion of how family formation has changed since the 1960s especially for communities of color Individual selections then flesh out historical sociological and cultural contexts examining the impact of welfare child support criminal justice and employment policies on young men of color In addition to this analytical material the book presents more personal anecdotal pieces including poems and lyrics short stories and interviews that form a powerful composite portrait of the challenges facing modern communities of color and how to overcome them

In the Heart of the Beat Alexs Pate,2009-11-24 Despite its extraordinary popularity and worldwide influence the world of rap and hip hop is under constant attack Impressions and interpretations of its meaning and power are perpetually being challenged Somewhere someone is bemoaning the negative impact of rap music on contemporary culture In In the Heart of the Beat The Poetry of Rap bestselling author and scholar Alexs Pate argues for a fresh understanding of rap as an example of powerful and effective poetry rather than a negative cultural phenomenon Pate articulates a way of reading rap that makes visible both its contemporary and historical literary values He encourages the reader to step beyond the dominance of the beat and the raw language and come to an appreciation of rap s literary and poetic dimensions What emerges is a vision of rap as an exemplary form of literary expression rather than a profane and trendy musical genre Pate focuses on works by several well known artists to reveal in rap music despite its penchant for vulgarity a power and beauty that is the heart of great literature

Blues Vision Alexs D. Pate,Pamela R. Fletcher,2015-02 A rich Minnesota literary tradition is brought into the spotlight in this groundbreaking collection of incisive prose and powerful poetry by forty three black writers who educate inspire and reveal the unabashed truth Historically significant figures tell their stories demonstrating how much and how little conditions have changed Gordon Parks hitchhikes to Bemidji Taylor Gordon describes his first day as a chauffeur in St Paul and Nellie Stone Johnson insists on escaping the farm for high school in Minneapolis A profusion of modern voices poet Tish Jones playwright Kim Hines and memoirist Frank Wilderson reflect the dizzying complex realities of the present Showcasing the unique vision and reality of Minnesota's African American community from the Harlem renaissance through the civil rights movement from the black power movement to the era of hip hop and the time of America's first black president this compelling anthology provides an explosion of artistic expression about what it means to be a Minnesotan Alexis Pate an award winning novelist playwright and writing professor is the president of Innocent Technologies LLC Pamela R Fletcher is associate professor of English at St Catherine University J Otis Powell is a poet performance artist and curator working in an aesthetic rooted in Afrocentric lore and culture The Innocent Classroom Alexis Pate, 2020-08-17 When children of color enter their classrooms each year many often encounter low expectations disconnection and other barriers to their success In The Innocent Classroom Alexis Pate traces the roots of these disparities to pervasive negative stereotypes which children are made aware of before they even walk through the school door The cumulative weight of these stereotypes eventually takes shape as guilt which inhibits students engagement learning and relationships and hurts their prospects for the future If guilt is the primary barrier for children of color in the classroom then the solution according to Pate is to create an Innocent Classroom that neutralizes students guilt and restores their innocence To do so readers will embark on a relationship construction project in which they will deepen their understanding of how children of color are burdened with guilt discover students good or the motivation behind their behaviors and develop strategic responses to that good and nurture protect and advocate for students innocence Ultimately students will reclaim their innocence and begin to make choices that will lead to their success Teachers will renew their commitment to their students And the current ineffective system can give way to one that reflects a more enlightened understanding of who our children are and what they are capable of The Constant Art of Being a Writer N.M.
