Loss And Bereavement:

Loss, Bereavement and Grief Bob Spall, Stephen Callis, 1997 Helps the reader to confront and address the personal issues of experienced and feared loss thus enabling them as a professional carer to work more effectively with others Presents a clear insight into the links between theoretical personal and professional issues Provides highly practical guidance on coping with the most difficult situations Structured questions are designed to trigger consideration of key issues Loss and Grief Bob Wright, 2007 The feelings and thoughts connected with loss grief dying and death have always concerned people The author Bob is a specialist in crisis intervention He has developed his experience in counselling and a workshop facilitator over a number of years This updated self directed study workbook will appeal to everyone with a health and social care interest It can be used as a stand alone module or at your workplace as part of an assessment programme or as part of a more formal training programme at a college or other institution You can read it in parts if this is more convenient for you or you can interrupt your reading to do some of the exercises There is space for you to keep notes The workbook can be used in a very flexible way and covers a variety of issues from divorce losing a limb to bereavement Working With the

Bereaved Simon Shimshon Rubin, Ruth Malkinson, Eliezer Witztum, 2012-04-27 Working With the Bereaved summarizes the major themes in bereavement research and clinical work and uses the authors own cutting edge research to show mental health practitioners how to integrate these themes into their practice It provides clinicians with a framework for exploring their own emotional and intellectual assumptions about loss and bereavement and it goes on to summarize state of the art thinking in the field The heart of the book focuses on the theoretical and clinical implications of the empirically validated Two Track Model of Bereavement as well as a variety of therapeutic techniques designed to help the bereaved both reapproach life and manage their continuing bonds with the deceased The later chapters examine methods for integrating systems and family perspectives in therapy for attending to the implications of culture and religion and for meeting crises and emergencies in bereavement care The concluding chapter addresses self care well being and resilience offering practical guidelines for both the bereaved and those who treat them The experience of grief and loss. A study about various people coping with grief Tariq raja Wassan, 2020-10-19 Master s Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Psychology Miscellaneous grade A Harvard University Harvard university course Psychology language English abstract This study qualitatively explores the experiences of nine people regarding their grief and loss Four women four men and a guest were interviewed using a set of open ended questions All the participants were interviewed once in a semi structured face to face format and were asked about their experiences of grief and loss A thematic analysis revealed key areas that included emotional reactions spirituality moving forward and memories of past losses remembering Moreover it includes sub themes such as controlling feelings hopelessness healing and harm These findings have the strength to add great depth to our understanding of the complexities associated with grief and loss Death has been a epicentre concern of human but in a society where death is being denied its place is ambiguous So death is final and irreversible Loss from death is fixed and permanent and for bereaved complete grief recovery from the loss may not occur Thus it is pertinent for counsellors to understand the experiences of bereaved individuals in order to bolster them in accepting the reality of death hinder lasting distress and agony and find resources to continue their lives In the contemporary era counsellors are exposed to loss and grief experiences in their personal lives and in their professional work According to Neimeyer 2004 every change in life involves loss and all losses require change The emotional reaction of loss is grief Muller and Thompson 2003 described the death of loved ones as the most penetrating loss individuals can experience and the most frequent and changing issue counsellors face with their clients Loss and grief are common themes and sources of presenting problems in counselling sessions Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan, Second Edition Carolyn Ambler Walter, Judith L.
