Martínez,2017-10-06 In spite of the attention that Latin American women writers have attracted in recent years a book dedicated exclusively to those writers whose work primarily articulates a lesbian perspective was until now missing The purpose of this book first published in 1996 is to bring attention to and examine the articulation of lesbian themes motifs and issues in the works of these writers It aims to study the problems pertaining to the specific literary representations of lesbianism and to examine the dimensions of a lesbian view in the works By undertaking the study of the works of these women writers this book contributes to the recognition and legitimization of a lesbian literary discourse Dominion Matthew Scully,2003-10-08 And God said Let us make man in our image after our likeness and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air and over the cattle and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth Genesis 1 24 26 In this crucial passage from the Old Testament God grants mankind power over animals But with this privilege comes the grave responsibility to respect life to treat animals with simple dignity and compassion Somewhere along the way something has gone wrong In Dominion we witness the annual convention of Safari Club International an organization whose wealthier members will pay up to 20 000 to hunt an elephant a lion or another animal either abroad or in American safari ranches where the animals are fenced in pens We attend the annual International Whaling Commission conference where the skewed politics of the whaling industry come to light and the focus is on developing more lethal but not more merciful methods of harvesting living marine resources And we visit a gargantuan American factory farm where animals are treated as mere product and raised in conditions of mass confinement bred for passivity and bulk inseminated and fed with machines kept in tightly confined stalls for the entirety of their lives and slaughtered in a way that maximizes profits and minimizes decency Throughout Dominion Scully counters the hypocritical arguments that attempt to excuse animal abuse from those who argue that the Bible's message permits mankind to use animals as it pleases to the hunter's argument that through hunting animal populations are controlled to the popular and scientifically proven notions that animals cannot feel pain experience no emotions and are not conscious of their own lives The result is eye opening painful and infuriating insightful and rewarding Dominion is a plea for human benevolence and mercy a scathing attack on those who would dismiss animal activists as mere sentimentalists and a demand for reform from the government down to the individual Matthew Scully has created a groundbreaking work a book of lasting power and importance for all of us Back Yard Critter Tales The Story

Lady, 2001-10-31 For years I had enjoyed my back yard just sitting and relaxing in the warmth of its sunshine the coolness of its shade and the beauty of its gardens But not until recently did I ever surmise for one moment how many backyard critters one could have visiting or living there So I decided to watch and study any of these critters that made themselves apparent to me As I would sit and watch these critters I kept thinking Why all these critters large or small must have a story to tell Through your imagination these critters will lead you through their tales of fun and excitement with some unexpected twists and turns around every corner ENJOY Over the Fence Non-Sense Tales The Story Lady, 2001-11 Come join the fun as one travels through this collection of non sense tales Ever wonder what shoes talk about Enjoy the fun and excitement as you visit Stanley's Shoe Salon If you are ready for a windy ride stop a moment to visit with Mama Sunshine and Papa Moonshine and see what their Weather children are up to Rocking chairs are supposed to be for old folks but wouldn't you be interested in finding out the rocking chairs spin on it Granny's Kitchen will leave you breathless What's All Gone With The Wind This story will keep you laughing to the end I hope you enjoy reading these stories as much as I enjoyed writing them Till next time The Story Lady The Divine Manifold Roland Faber, 2014-07-30 The Divine Manifold is a postmodern enquiry in intersecting themes of the concept and reality of multiplicity in a chaosmos that does not refuse a dimension of theopoetics but rather defines it in terms of divine polyphilia the love of multiplicity In an intricate play on Dante's Divine Comedy this book engages questions of religion and philosophy through the aporetic dynamics of love and power locating its discussions in the midst of and in between the spheres of a genuine philosophy of multiplicity This philosophy originates from the poststructuralist approach of Gilles Deleuze and the process philosophical inspirations of Alfred N Whitehead As their chaosmos invites questions of ultimate reality religious pluralism and multireligious engagement a theopoetics of love will find paradoxical dissociations and harmonizations with postmodern sensitivities of language power knowledge and embodiment At the intersection of poststructuralism's and process theology's insights in the liberating necessity of multiplicity for a postmodern cosmology the book realizes its central claim If there is a divine dimension of the chaosmos it will not be found in any identification with mundane forces or supernatural powers but on the contrary in the absolute difference of polyphilic love from creativity Yet the concurrent indifference of love and power its mystical undecidability in terms of any conceptualization will lead into existential questions of the insistence on multiplicity in a world of infinite becoming as inescapable background for its importance and creativeness formulating an ecological and ethical impulse for a mystagogy of becoming intermezzo correspondence to reveal that this oft reviled figure was in fact a confident friend and architect of his client's success. In early 1955 Colonel Tom Parker, manager of the number one country music star of the day, heard that an unknown teenager from Memphis had just drawn a crowd of more than eight hundred people to a Texas schoolhouse and headed south to investigate. Within days Parker was sending out telegrams and letters to promoters and booking agents: "We have a new boy that is absolutely going to be one of the biggest things in the business in a very short time. His name is ELVIS PRESLEY." Later that year, after signing with RCA, the young man sent a telegram of his own: "Dear Colonel, Words can never tell you how my folks and I appreciate what you did for me. I love you like a father. The close personal bond between Elvis and the Colonel has never been fully portrayed before. It was a relationship founded on mutual admiration and support. From the outset the Colonel defended Elvis fiercely and indefatigably against RCA executives, Elvis's own booking agents, and movie moguls. But in their final years together the story grew darker as the Colonel found himself unable to protect Elvis from himself or control growing problems of his own. Featuring troves of previously unpublished correspondence revelatory for both its insights and emotional depth, The Colonel and the King provides a unique perspective on not one but two American originals. A tale of the birth of the modern-day superstar, an invention almost entirely of Parker's making, by Peter Guralnick, the most acclaimed music writer of his generation, it presents these two misunderstood icons as they've never been seen before, with all of their brilliance, humor, and flaws on full display." Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind, this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature. This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American, Asian American, Latino, and Native American literary traditions, among others. The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non-European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present. The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement, bilingualism, assimilation, and border narratives. Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works, including Toni Morrison's Beloved, Maxine Hong Kingston's The Paper Man, Maya Angelou's I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings, Sherman Alexie's A Raisin in the Sun, American Born Chinese, and The House on Mango Street. The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks, like the Chinese American novel, African American young adult literature, Mexican American autobiography, and Cuban American poetry.
