incorporates contemporary political and economic events as well as the latest archaeological and DNA discoveries. Comprehensively revised and updated throughout, it considers Irish history from the earliest times through the Celts, Cromwell, plantations, famine, Independence, the Omagh bomb, peace initiatives, and financial collapse. It profiles the key players in Irish history from Diarmuid MacMurrough to Gerry Adams and casts new light on the events North and South that have shaped Ireland today. Ireland's place in the modern world and its relationship with Britain, the USA, and Europe is also examined with a fresh and original eye. Worldwide interest in Ireland continues to increase, but whereas it once focused on violence in Northern Ireland, the tumultuous financial events in the South have opened fresh debates and drawn fresh interest. This is a new history for a new era.

Northern Ireland's Lost Opportunity Tony Novosel, 2013-01-07. Rejecting the dominant narratives of the Troubles, this is a unique, in-depth investigation into working-class Loyalism in Northern Ireland as represented by the Ulster Volunteer Force (UVF), the Red Hand Commando (RHC), and their political allies. In an unorthodox account that disputes the idea that Loyalism was apolitical and sectarian, Tony Novosel argues that Loyalist groups, seen as implacable enemies by Republicans and the left, developed a political analysis of the Northern Ireland conflict in the 1970s which involved a compromise peace with all political parties and warring factions, something that historians and writers have largely ignored. Distinctive, deeply informed, and provocative, Northern Ireland's Lost Opportunity is the first study to focus not on the violent actions of the UVF/RHC but on their political vision and programme, which Novosel argues undeniably contributed to the Conflict Transformation Process by upholding the potential for a viable peace based on compromise with all groups, including the Irish Republican Army.
