Lost Boys Frederick H. Berenstein, 1995 Presentation of the author's psychoanalytic beliefs and experiences in child psychoanalytic therapy Better Late than Never Lorraine Price, 2018-05-08 This book is concerned with an enigmatic set of experiences which theorists in the Object Relations tradition have characterised as regression to dependence a return to a primitive pre verbal relational process presenting in some clients in psychotherapy It highlights the effects of early infantile trauma resulting in the experience of failed dependency Clients who present with chronic anxiety relational failures and an inner emptiness are considered and the opportunity for a therapeutic repair is explored with recommendations for the therapeutic stance being made Written from an Integrative Psychotherapy perspective it addresses the current absence of writing in the field from a relational developmental viewpoint on concepts more usually addressed in psychoanalytic writing The insights of Winnicott are particularly highlighted in relation to failed dependency and maternal failure This work aims to offer a way forward to successfully work with this client group Attuned Treatment of Developmental Trauma

Kathleen Adams, 2022-08-30 This book takes a painstaking look at developmental trauma as it manifests in group individual and combined psychotherapies tracking the growth of non abused individuals who have courageously addressed overwhelming childhood experiences to make sense of the chaos in their lives The cumulative impact of repetitive stress fear and shame in childhood wreaks havoc on the developing brain resulting in a life long vulnerability to anxiety despair and dissociative moments that are often described as developmental trauma Adverse childhood experiences are often overlooked by therapists This book focuses specifically on the profound suffering of high functioning private practice patients who manifest developmental trauma from chronic shock shame and neglect Adams offers a synthesis of diverse theoretical worlds in her study of adaptations to cumulative trauma namely relational psychoanalysis the British school of object relations trauma theory neuroscience and interpersonal neurobiology developmental psychopathology and attachment theory Using richly detailed clinical material this book provides invaluable clear examples to illustrate the effects of disorganized states in infancy making it essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and clinical psychologists working with traumatized patients

Understanding the Boys Dr John Head, John Head, 2002-01-04 Do you know what makes boys tick In recent years suicide has drastically escalated among young males and academic underachievement is common so it is of vital importance that our understanding of the young male psyche is well informed and not merely received wisdom John Head gets to the heart and mind of the matter by tackling difficult pertinent questions Has male behaviour in school worsened or has media hype inflated the proportions of a good story What is at the root of male violence Are biological or social explanations telling the whole story Head shows that it is only by engaging boys in new arenas of thought and feeling that we can hope to understand and help overcome the difficulties faced by boys today Essential reading for teachers headteachers researchers in education gender youth community and social workers Journal of Marital and Family Therapy ,1994

□□□ □□□, 2015-09-18 Missing Us Ryan LaMothe, 2013-05-09 In Missing Us Re Visioning Psychoanalysis from the Perspective of Community Ryan LaMothe questions the ways in which psychoanalytic and psychodynamic theorists and clinicians have historically relied principally on a two person psychology to understand psychosocial development and practice While this has many benefits two person perspectives often overlook a central need and struggle in human life namely community The concept of community and its cognate communion expand and deepen psychoanalytic theories of development as well as reframe in part psychoanalytic concepts processes and aims In Missing Us LaMothe relying on the Scottish philosopher John Macmurray carefully defines the concept of community being sure to differentiate it from the notions of sociality and intersubjectivity Using this definition and the concept of person LaMothe reframes potential space transference and motivation Given this unique perspective LaMothe addresses the strengths limitations and challenges of psychoanalysis as a therapeutic ritual Braving the Erotic Field in the Psychoanalytic Treatment of Children and Adolescents Mary Brady, 2022-03-17 Braving the Erotic Field in the Psychoanalytic Treatment of Adolescents and Children is a groundbreaking collection of chapters by an international group of analytic authors The book addresses the general lack of psychoanalytic writing on working with erotic feelings in the consulting room when treating children and adolescents This lack is doubly odd given Freud's emphasis on childhood sexuality as well as the intensities of the adolescent body mind This book takes the view that the subtle interchange of feelings dreams narratives and images that arise when erotic feelings are in the fore is better conceptualized as an erotic field than with the binary of transference countertransference In contemporary psychoanalysis the idea that transference love offers the possibility of knowing the other in the deepest possible way is supplanting an attitude of suspicion Clinical work with small children to late adolescents will be offered including gay and gender fluid adolescents This book makes a decisive contribution to assist clinicians to brave the erotic field with children and adolescents Reflections on Play Therapy David Le Vay, 2024-08-06 This book explores an extensive range of questions and challenges within the training theory and practice of play therapy with the aim of providing a stimulating and thought provoking debate around many of the issues and dilemmas therapists experience Drawing upon the author's own experience as both a therapist and trainer educator supervisor the volume grapples with questions of power privilege self care and mental health It additionally addresses the wider challenges and impact of the Covid 19 pandemic climate change and international conflict upon practice and personhood Questions around training are explored as well as specific practice challenges relating to managing limits and boundaries within play therapy and working with adopted children Throughout the book the author will reflect upon aspects of personal and clinical experience sharing something of his own developmental narrative through training teaching and practice Reflections on Play Therapy will serve as a core text
