Scenic Impressions Estill Curtis Pennington,Martha R. Severens,2015-12-16 The radical changes wrought by the rise of the salon system in nineteenth century Europe provoked an interesting response from painters in the American South Painterly trends emanating from Barbizon and Giverny emphasized the subtle textures of nature through warm color and broken brush stroke Artists subject matter tended to represent a prosperous middle class at play with the subtle suggestion that painting was indeed art for art s sake and not an evocation of the heroic manner Many painters in the South took up the stylistics of Tonalism Impressionism and naturalism to create works of a very evocative nature works which celebrated the Southern scene as an exotic other a locale offering refuge from an increasingly mechanized urban environment Scenic Impressions offers an insight into a particular period of American art history as borne out in seminal paintings from the holdings of the Johnson Collection of Spartanburg South Carolina By consolidating academic information on a disparate group of objects under a common theme and important global artistic umbrella Scenic Impressions will underscore the Johnsons commitment to illuminating the rich cultural history of the American South and advancing scholarship in the field specifically examining some forty paintings created between 1880 and 1940 including landscapes and genre scenes A foreword written by Kevin Sharp director of the Dixon Gallery and Gardens in Memphis Tennessee introduces the topic Two lead essays written by noted art historians Estill Curtis Pennington and Martha R Severens discuss the history and import of the Impressionist movement abroad and domestically and specifically address the school s influence on art created in and about the American South The featured works of art are presented in full color plates and delineated in complementary entries written by Pennington and Severens Also included are detailed artist biographies illustrated by photographs of the artists extensive documentation and indices Featured artists include Wayman Adams Colin Campbell Cooper Elliott Daingerfield G Ruger Donoho Harvey Joiner John Ross Key Blondelle Malone Lawrence Mazzanovich Paul Plaschke Hattie Saussy Alice Ravenel Huger Smith Anthony Thieme and Helen Turner

Reflections Gary Russell Libby, 2009 Reflections includes 69 paintings from the collection of Cici and Hyatt Brown of artists who worked in Florida capturing a visual history through art from 1865 1965 It includes chapters on over 40 artists with several essays from the artists on their work

Florida's American Heritage River Mallory McCane O'Connor, Gary Monroe, 2009 A visual journey through time along the St Johns River Indispensable for anyone seeking to explore Florida beyond the brochures Herbert L Hiller author of Highway A1A Florida at the Edge If you are looking for an elegant way to navigate up the St Johns River without leaving your armchair allow me to recommend spending time with this book It is beautifully illustrated and a wonderful read John Delaney president University of North Florida The mighty St Johns River flows from its headwaters near Lake Okeechobee north through central Florida to Jacksonville Its watershed covers an area nearly the size of New Hampshire The river and its tributaries have been part of the cultural landscape of the peninsula for thousands of years From the Native Americans who first settled along its banks to the French Spanish British and American settlers who followed it has been a source of food water transportation industry agriculture and recreation In 1998 the St Johns was declared an American Heritage River the only one in Florida and one of only fourteen in the country to be so designated Shortly thereafter Mallory O Connor and Gary Monroe began searching for and collecting paintings sketches sculptures photographs and material culture from the region Searching in antique shops and art galleries nineteenth century periodicals and twentieth century fish camps the authors found literally thousands of images They selected the best two hundred for this volume some from the fine art tradition as represented by Thomas Moran and Martin Johnson Heade others by self taught visionaries The result is a broad survey that captures and celebrates the beauty power and impact of this unique landscape
