

Night Dreams

I'd like to think that I could fly,
To lift my feet and touch the sky,
To soar above, look down below,
And never know just where I'd go."

And if I could, oh what I'd see!
Earth would not be the same to me.

"Oh, if the wind would carry two,
I'd hope that I could fly with you;
And hand-in-hand we'd chase the stars
And lock them up in pickle jars."

"We'd laugh and smile, then set them free
To twinkle for eternity.

Chaucerian Dream Visions and Complaints Dana M Symons,2004-11-01 On several counts one particular collection of French lyrics made in France in the late fourteenth century University of Pennsylvania MS 15 is the most likely repository of Chaucer s French poems It is the largest manuscript anthology extant of fourteenth century French lyrics in the formes fixes balade rondeaux virelay lay and five stanza chanson with by far the largest number of works of unknown authorship The known authors represented in the manuscript and the texts themselves have notable associations with England and with Chaucer And intriguingly there are fifteen lyrics each headed by the initials Ch very likely indications of authorship neatly inserted between rubric and text The rubrics together with other substantial manuscript evidence and the intrinsic worth of the poems make them easily the best candidates among extant French lyrics for Chaucer's authorship appropriate representatives of his French work from the Introduction

Rare High Meadow of Which I Might Dream Connie Voisine, 2010-02-15 The Bird is Her Reason There are some bodies that emerge into desire as a god rises from the sea emotion and memory hang like dripping clothes this want is like entering that heated red on the mouth of a Delacroix lion stalwart always that red which makes my teeth ache and my skin feel a hand that has never touched me the tree groaning outside becomes a man who knocks on my bedroom window edge of red on gold fur the horse the wild flip of its head the rake of claws across its back the unfocussed swallowed eye Rare High Meadow of Which I Might Dream is a book haunted by the afterlife of medieval theology and literature yet grounded in distinctly modern quandaries of desire Connie Voisine's female speakers reverberate with notes of Marie de France's tragic heroines but whereas Marie's poems are places where women's longings quickly bloom and die in captivity in towers and dungeons Voisine uses narrative to suspend the movement of storytelling For Voisine poems are occasions for philosophical wanderings extended lyrics that revolve around the binding and unbinding of desire with lonely speakers struggling with the impetus of wanting as well as the necessity of a love affair's end With fluency intelligence and deeply felt emotional acuity Rare High Meadow of Which I Might Dream navigates the heady intersection of obsessive love and searing loss Praise for Cathedral of the North Voisine's poetry is wholly unsentimental tactile and filled with unexpected beauty She is political in the best sense A dazzling brave and surprising first book Denise Duhamel Ploughshares Writing and Workshopping Poetry: A Constructive Introduction Stephen Guppy, 2016-12-07 Most texts on creative writing emphasize either sources of inspiration or strategies for editing The process of getting from initial inspiration to final draft isn't often dealt with in any practical way Writing and Workshopping Poetry focuses on all three phases of the process of composition finding the material building and developing the poem from rough draft to complete work editing and refining The text offers everything students and instructors need extensive notes written in an accessible conversational style seventy-five writing exercises and about a hundred poems chosen from a wide range of sources from sixteenth-century sonnets to experimental constrained forms with an emphasis on exciting poems by contemporary American and Canadian poets Each chapter concludes with a brief point-form summary of major learning objectives as well as a review list of useful terms The Ladies' Home Journal, 1922 Latin Lyric and Elegiac Poetry Diane J. Rayor, William Wendell Batstone, 1995 First published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Ladies' Home Journal, 1922 Current Literature, 1917
