important and necessary complement to these processes enhancing creativity at problem solving and reinforcing coping strategies among other benefits In adults magical thinking and beliefs perform important functions both for individuals coping with unsolvable problems and stressful situations and for society enabling mass influence and promoting social harmony Operating in realms not bound by physical causality such as emotion relationships and suggestion magical thinking is an ongoing developing psychological mechanism that Subbotsky argues is integral in the contexts of politics commercial advertising and psychotherapy and undergirds our construction and understanding of meaning in both mental and physical worlds Magic and the Mind represents a unique contribution to our understanding of the importance of magical thinking offering experimental evidence and conclusions never before collected in one source It will be of interest to students and scholars of developmental psychology as well as sociologists anthropologists and educators A to Zoo Rebecca L.

Abboud, Ellen Stern,2004-11-02 Designers are great white sharks and we roam the waters ourselves We often pretend to like and admire each other but sometimes we don't even bother to fake it. The fashion industry is as hardworking, incestuous and political as any other and it's virtually impossible given the size of designers' egos to sincerely wish someone else well because behind every false tribute is "It should have been me." So writes Joseph Abboud who fell in love with style at five. There in the dark of the movie house he wasn't just some Lebanese kid with a babysitter. He was the hero in tweeds and pocket squares. That's where he learned that clothes represented a better life, a life he wanted and would grab for himself. From his blue collar childhood in Boston's South End to his spread collar success as one of America's top designers, he has forged a remarkable path through the unglamorous business of making people look glamorous. He transformed American menswear by replacing the traditional stiff shouldered silhouette with a grown up European sensuality. He was the first designer to win the coveted CFDA award as Best Menswear Designer two years in a row and the first designer to throw out the opening pitch at Fenway Park. He's been jilted by Naomi Campbell who didn't show up on the runway for his first women's fashion show and questioned by the FBI who did show up in his office right after September 11 because he fit the profile. He's soared and sunk more than a few times and lived to tell the tales. Threads is his off the record take on fashion from the inside out. With breezy irreverence he looks at guys and taste divas and deviousness, fabric and texture and all those ties. He takes us to the luxe bastion of Louis Boston where he came of age and learned the trade and to the seductive domain of Polo Ralph Lauren where he became associate director of menswear design. He reveals the mystique of department store politics, what's what at the sample sale and who copies whom. He explains the process of making great clothes from conception and sketch to manufacturing and marketing. Whether he's traveling by daredevil horse, plunging plane, Paris Metro or cross country limo, Abboud is an illuminating guide to a complex world.
