Fletcher,1964 Modern Manuscripts and the Pre-History of Digital Humanities Alex Christie,2024-06-01 While text processing is often associated with the digital humanities it is still seen as worlds apart from literary modernism and its aesthetic preoccupations This book upsets that narrative Examining literary manuscripts from some of the twentieth century s best known and lesser known novelists from Marcel Proust to Mina Loy Alex Christie reveals where authors experimented with proto digital writing methods by hand Instead of looking to computers as sources of inspiration the authors discussed turned to twentieth century media for their ability to reveal new layers of the material world From analog fantasies of contacting the dead to digital anxieties of invisible information the aesthetic ambitions of these novels can be traced back to their author s interest in emerging media devices and their technical operation To capture the magic of such devices through writing these authors devised radical methods for generating literary text anticipating today s digital humanities

Microscopy, Magnification and Modernist Fiction Patrick Armstrong,2024-12-26 Exploring how modernism registered shock experiences of the microscopic and extended vision in prose fiction through the work of four modernist writers D H Lawrence Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett this book is the first substantial study of the interrelations between microscopy and modernist fiction Illustrating ways in which optical instruments had the capacity to change displace and reframe ideas of what the world is like this book argues that encounters with the microscopic are often depicted as thresholds between the human and the non human in ways that reverberate through modernist fiction Exploring a period of significant developments in microscopical tools and techniques from the light microscope to the electron microscope this book traces a shift that reconfigured the limits of the observable Proust's Imaginary Museum Gabrielle

Townsend,2008 This study of Marcel Proust s creative imagination examines an aspect of the novel that has hitherto been largely overlooked the author s dependence on secondary visual sources Gabrielle Townsend argues that reproductions play a key role in the work s complex multi layered structure Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber,2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Genevi ve Hal vy Bizet Straus Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adh aume de Chevign and lisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de si cle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women s daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women s lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past The Invisible Middle Term in Proust's A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Roxanne Hanney,1990 This volume seeks to offer a new way of reading A la Recherche du Temps Perdu using a fluid manner of interpretation which suggests process rather than product This study contends that everything in Proust s work is threefold The middle term is the common ground shared by the two terms of comparison that constitute a metaphor Proust's Recherche Randolph Splitter,2023-08-18 Originally published in 1981 and now reissued with a new preface by Randolph Splitter this volume examines Proust s novel A la recherche du temps perdu from a psychoanalytic viewpoint showing that Marcel the central character like the novel itself is characterized by an unstable equilibrium of opposing forces so that he wishes both to dissolve the boundaries between inner and outer worlds and to maintain divisions and defenses Instead of trying to force the text into a rigid theoretical structure this reading of Proust s novel illuminates it by confronting and re examining the problems that Freudian theory itself addresses In considering these problems the author also takes into account the findings of modern French psychoanalysis and literary criticism referring particularly to the work of Jacques Lacan and Jacques Derrida James Merrill Langdon Hammer,2015-04-14 Langdon Hammer has given us the first biography of the poet James Merrill 1926 95 whose life is surely one of the most fascinating in American literature Merrill was born to high privilege and high expectations as the son of Charles Merrill the charismatic cofounder of the brokerage firm Merrill Lynch and Hellen Ingram a muse ally and antagonist throughout her son s life Wounded by his parents bitter divorce he was the child of a broken home looking for repair in poetry and love This is the story of a young man escaping yet also reenacting the energies and obsessions of those powerful parents It is the story of a gay man inventing his identity against the grain of American society during the eras of the closet gay liberation and AIDS Above all it is the story of a brilliantly gifted fiercely dedicated poet working every day to turn his life into art After college at Amherst and a period of adventure in Europe Merrill returned to the New York art world of the 1950s he was friendly with W H Auden Maya Deren Truman Capote Larry Rivers Elizabeth Bishop and other midcentury luminaries and began publishing poems plays and novels In 1953 he fell in love with an aspiring writer David Jackson They explored boys and bars as they made their life together in Connecticut and later in Greece and Key West At the same time improbably they carried on a forty year conversation with spirits of the Other World by means of a Ouija board The board became a source of poetic inspiration for Merrill culminating in his prizewinning uncanny one of a kind work The Changing Light at Sandover In his virtuosic poetry and in the candid letters and diaries that enrich every page of this deliciously readable life Merrill created a prismatic art of multiple perspectives and comic self knowledge expressing hope for a world threatened by nuclear war and environmental catastrophe Holding this life and art together in a complex evolving whole Hammer illuminates Merrill s chronicles of love loss and the poignant personal journey they record

Postmodernity, Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson, 2002-01-04 In Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson sets out to demonstrate that postmodern theory has actually made possible an ethical discourse around fiction Each chapter elaborates and discusses a particular aspect of Levinas thought and raises questions for that thought and its bearing on the novel It also contains detailed analyses of particular texts Part of the book s originality is its concentration on a range of modernist and postmodern novels which have seldom if ever served as the basis for a larger ethical theory of fiction Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel discusses among others the writings of Joseph Conrad Henry James Jane Austen Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Salman Rushdie

What Color Is the Sacred? Michael Taussig, 2024-05-31 Over the past thirty years visionary anthropologist Michael Taussig has crafted a highly distinctive body of work Playful enthralling and whip smart his writing makes ingenious connections between ideas thinkers and things An extended meditation on the mysteries of color and the fascination they provoke What Color Is the Sacred is the next step on Taussig s remarkable intellectual path Following his interest in magic and surrealism his earlier work on mimesis and his recent discussion of heat gold and cocaine in My Cocaine Museum this book uses color to explore further dimensions of what Taussig calls the bodily unconscious in an age of global warming Drawing on classic ethnography as well as the work of Benjamin Burroughs and Proust he takes up the notion that color invites the viewer into images and into the world Yet as Taussig makes clear color has a history a manifestly colonial history rooted in the West s discomfort with color especially bright color and its associations with the so called primitive He begins by noting Goethe s belief that Europeans are physically averse to vivid color while the uncivilized revel in it which prompts Taussig to reconsider colonialism as a tension between chromophobes and chromophiliacs And he ends with the strange story of coal which he argues displaced colonial color by giving birth to synthetic colors organic chemistry and IG Farben the giant chemical corporation behind the Third Reich Nietzsche once wrote So far all that has given colour to existence still lacks a history With What Color Is the Sacred Taussig has taken up that challenge with all the radiant intelligence and inspiration we've come to expect from him
