Magical Thinking Poems:

Magical Thinking Joseph Duemer, 2001 Psychologists characterize thinking as a form of thought in which wishes and desires shape the reality we perceive Such thinking is usually dismissed as delusional But most human beings think magically most of the time and have done so throughout history It is the kind of thinking that has produced cathedrals and symphonies depravity and genocide Joseph Duemer s poems attempt to shape his magical thinking into understandable forms His poetry is an argument with science and religion which seek to establish themselves as systems that organize experience into stable meanings

Your Therapist Says It's Magical Thinking Sadie McCarney, 2023-04-18 Sadie McCarney s Your Therapist Says It s Magical Thinking is a buoyant second collection that playfully navigates the turbulent waters of life with mental illness and neurodivergence In much of the book history and science are treated the way they are often viewed by a brain in mental turmoil places and events get switched around facts get rewritten and the fantastical reigns supreme Through poems ranging from didactic the horrible self care advice received by the poet when she was struggling most to historical fiction patients in an asylum in 1800s England to the quirky and unexpectedly fantastical a rainbow carpool unicorn a young child s timeline reversing each morning and an everything bagel that includes competing theories of time McCarney digs deep into the muck of her own lived experience She resurfaces with if not gold at least an old time capsule and a few treasured hunks of bone Your Therapist Says It s Magical Thinking highlights the sometimes dubious but always jubilant inner workings of a mentally unwell brain at play especially within the context of a larger society that frequently seeks to tamp down this weird and rare form of magic

How Poems Think Reginald Gibbons, 2015-09-23 To write or read a poem is often to think in distinctively poetic ways guided by metaphors sound rhythms associative movement and more Poetry s stance toward language creates a particular intelligence of thought and feeling a compressed articulation that expands inner experience imagining with words what cannot always be imagined without them Through translation poetry has diversified poetic traditions and some of poetry s ways of thinking begin in the ancient world and remain potent even now In How Poems Think Reginald Gibbons presents a rich gallery of poetic inventiveness and continuity drawn from a wide range of poets Sappho Pindar Shakespeare Keats William Carlos Williams Marina Tsvetaeva Gwendolyn Brooks and many others Gibbons explores poetic temperament rhyme metonymy etymology and other elements of poetry as modes of thinking and feeling In celebration and homage Gibbons attunes us to the possibilities of poetic thinking

Magical Thinking Xavier Pastrano, 2023 In Magical Thinking poet Xavier Pastrano delivers a collection of poetry that explores and celebrates what it means to be multifaceted He takes a candid look into the various roles and experiences of his life roles and experiences that are unique to him yet also relatable to readers of various backgrounds and demographics Back cover

Thinking with the Poem Andrew R. Mossin, 2024-12-15 Broad ranging and pluralistically investigative the essays in Thinking with the Poem document Rachel Blau DuPlessis s authorial interventions as a poet scholar and cultural critic steeped in the linguistic and political frames of her time The writers included in this volume engage root level questions at the heart of DuPlessis's praxis as posed by her in a recent essay What is a poem what is a poet what is an oeuvre what is the poetic Inventive and noncanonical these essays offer substantive responses to these and other questions providing new routes of inquiry into the poetry and poetics of this preeminent figure of new writing

How to Think Like a Poet Dai George, 2024-08-29 An entertaining guide to history's most influential and inspiring poets from Homer and Sappho to Shakespeare and Frank O'Hara and how they can teach us to better understand the world around us How did the greatest poets in history make the world anew And what can we learn from the magic wisdom and humour of their poetry From the genius of the Ancient Greeks through to the love poetry and metaphysics of the Renaissance through to the New York poets of the 20th century this is the ultimate guide to the greatest writers of the human age Through short biographical portraits poet and writer Dai George provides an entertaining introduction to the great works of poetry and a welcoming guide to how we can read them He addresses questions poets have grappled with How can we truly describe the world How can we express love grief or friendship How can poetry help us to understand justice dreams or anger This book paints vivid pictures of a global selection of renowned poets throughout history from Sappho Li Bai and Rumi to William Shakespeare and John Donne to Frank O'Hara Pablo Neruda and Sylvia Plath George also seeks to re-examine the canon traditionally dominated by Western white and male poets and bring to light major figures from other important cultures and communities including China India and the Caribbean

Shakespeare's Sonnets and Narrative Poems A. D. Cousins, 2014-07-21 Alongside Spenser Sidney and the early Donne Shakespeare is the major poet of the 16th century largely because of the status of his remarkable sequence of sonnets Professor Cousins' new book is the first comprehensive study of the Sonnets and narrative poems for over a decade He focuses in particular on their exploration of self-knowledge sexuality and death as well as on their ambiguous figuring of gender Throughout he provides a comparative context looking at the work of Shakespeare's contemporaries The relation between Shakespeare's non-dramatic verse and his plays is also explored

Augustan Poetry and the Irrational Philip Hardie, 2016-01-07 The establishment of the Augustan regime presents itself as the assertion of order and rationality in the political ideological and artistic spheres after the disorder and madness of the civil wars of the late Republic But the classical Apollonian poetry of the Augustan period is fascinated by the irrational in both the public and private spheres There is a vivid memory of the political and military furor that destroyed the Republic and also an anxiety that furor may resurface that the repressed may return Epic and elegy are both obsessed with erotic madness Dido experiences in her very public role the disabling effects of love that are both lamented and celebrated by the love elegists Didactic especially the Georgics and the related Horatian exercises in satire and epistle offer programmes for constructing rational order in the natural political and psychological worlds but at best contain uneasily an ever-present threat of confusion and backsliding and for the most part fall short of the austere standards of rational exposition set by Lucretius Dionysus and the Dionysiac enjoy a prominence in

Augustan poetry and art that goes well beyond the merely ornamental The person of the emperor Augustus himself tests the limits of rational categorization Augustan Poetry and the Irrational contains contributions by some of the leading experts of the Augustan period as well as a number of younger scholars An introduction which surveys the field as a whole is followed by chapters that examine the manifestations of the irrational in a range of Augustan poets including Virgil Horace Ovid and the love elegists and also explore elements of post classical reception Futures of Enlightenment Poetry Dustin D. Stewart,2020 Explores the creative work of writers and theologians who used their poetic writings as a means to explore and envisage scenarios of embodiment and existence that extended to life after bodily death 100 Poems to Break Your Heart Edward Hirsch,2021 We are not so much diminished as enlarged by grief by our refusal to vanish or to let others vanish without leaving a verbal record The poet is one who will not be reconciled who is determined to leave a trace in words to transform oceanic depths of feeling into the faithful nuances of art Poetry companions us Poems are written in solitude but they reach out to others which makes poetry a social act It rises out of one solitude to meet another Poems of terrible sadness and loss trouble and challenge us but they also make us feel less alone and more connected Our own desolations become more recognizable to us more articulate something shared We become less isolated in our sorrow and thus are befriended by the words of another There is something ennobling in grief that is compacted expressed and transfigured into poetry Book jacket The Best American Poetry 2020 David Lehman,Paisley Rekdal,2020-09-08 The 2020 edition of contemporary American poetry returns guest edited by Paisley Rekdal the award winning poet and author of Nightingale proving that this is a best anthology that really lives up to its title Chicago Tribune Since 1988 The Best American Poetry anthology series has been one of the mainstays of the poetry publication world Academy of American Poets Each volume in the series presents some of the year's most remarkable poems and poets Now the 2020 edition is guest edited by Utah's Poet Laureate Paisley Rekdal called a poet of observation and history who revels in detail but writes vast moral poems that help us live in a world of contraries by the Los Angeles Times In The Best American Poetry 2020 she has selected a fascinating array of work that speaks eloquently to the contraries of our present moment in time Lost Loss in American Elegiac Poetry Toshiaki Komura,2020-10-07 Lost Loss in American Elegiac Poetry Tracing Inaccessible Grief from Stevens to Post 9/11 examines contemporary literary expressions of losses that are lost on us inquiring what it means to lose loss and what happens when dispossession experiences go unacknowledged or become inaccessible Toshiaki Komura analyzes a range of elegiac poetry that does not neatly align with conventional assumptions about the genre including Wallace Stevens's The Owl in the Sarcophagus Sylvia Plath's last poems Elizabeth Bishop's Geography III Sharon Olds's The Dead and the Living Louise Glück's Averno and poems written after 9/11 What these poems reveal at the intersection of personal and communal mourning are the mechanism of cognitive myth making involved in denied grief and its social and ethical implications Engaging with an assortment of philosophical psychoanalytic and psychological theories Lost Loss in American Elegiac

Poetry elucidates how poetry gives shape to the vague despondency of unrecognized loss and what kind of phantomic effects these equivocal grieving experiences may create Modern Poetry and Ethnography S. Heuston, 2011-12-05 This study maps a new approach to the works of W B Yeats Robert Frost Robert Penn Warren and Seamus Heaney Sean Heuston combines interdisciplinary analysis specifically ethnography with close reading and in so doing argues provocatively for the intersection of modern poetry studies and contemporary ethnographic theory The Book of Ezekiel and the Poem of Erra Daniel Bodi, 1991 Creative Intuition in Art and Poetry Jacques Maritain, 2023-10-17 The classic work on the sublime interplay between the arts and poetics This book explores the rich and complex relationship between art and poetry shedding invaluable light on what makes each art form unique yet wholly interdependent Jacques Maritain insists on the part played by the intellect as well as the imagination showing how poetry has its source in the preconceptual activity of the rational mind As Maritain argues intellect is not merely logical and conceptual reason Rather it carries on an exceedingly more profound and obscure life one that is revealed to us as we seek to penetrate the hidden recesses of poetic and artistic activity Incisive and authoritative this illuminating book is the product of a lifelong reflection on the meaning of artistic expression in all its varied forms Worlds in Consciousness; Mythopoetic Thought in the Novels of Virginia Woolf Jean O. Love, 1970

Magical Consciousness Susan Greenwood, Erik D. Goodwyn, 2015-08-20 How does a mind think magically The research documented in this book is one answer that allows the disciplines of anthropology and neurobiology to come together to reveal a largely hidden dynamic of magic Magic gets to the very heart of some theoretical and methodological difficulties encountered in the social and natural sciences especially to do with issues of rationality This book examines magic head on not through its instrumental aspects but as an orientation of consciousness Magical consciousness is affective associative and synchronistic shaped through individual experience within a particular environment This work focuses on an in depth case study using the anthropologist s own experience gained through years of anthropological fieldwork with British practitioners of magic As an ethnographic view it is an intimate study of the way in which the cognitive architecture of a mind engages the emotions and imagination in a pattern of meanings related to childhood experiences spiritual communications and the environment Although the detail of the involvement in magical consciousness presented here is necessarily specific the central tenets of modus operandi is common to magical thought in general and can be applied to cross cultural analyses to increase understanding of this ubiquitous human phenomenon Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2004 The Best American Poetry 2009 David Wagoner, David Lehman, 2009-09-22 An anthology of contemporary poets presents works that reflect the diversity in American poetry Japan's Imperial Mythology Klaus Antoni, Julia Dolkovski, Louise Neubronner, How have ancient texts shaped the identity and legitimacy of a modern nation This question is at the heart of the present volume which examines Japan s earliest mytho historical chronicles the Kojiki 712 and Nihon shoki 720 and their enduring legacy through the lens of sacralization and desacralization Building on an international symposium at the University of Tbingen this interdisciplinary collection traces the fluctuating authority of Japan's imperial mythology through centuries of political religious and cultural change From Edo period Kokugaku to postwar nationalism and the Fukushima disaster the contributors examine how communities and political actors have continually reinterpreted these foundational texts to legitimize power express identity or challenge tradition Organized in reverse chronological order starting with contemporary perspectives and moving back to early mythology this volume brings together innovative case studies and comparative analyses that illuminate the dynamic interplay of text myth and authority
