McGowan,2016-04-29 The union of the two royal houses the Habsburgs and the Bourbons in the early seventeenth century illustrates the extent to which marriage was a tool of government in Renaissance Europe and festivals a manifestation of power and cultural superiority With contributions from scholars representing a range of disciplines this volume provides an all round view of the sequence of festivals and events surrounding the dynastic marriages which were agreed upon in 1612 but not celebrated until 1615 owing to the constant interruption of festivities by protestant uprisings The occasion inspired an extraordinary range of records from exchanges of political pamphlets descriptions of festivities visual materials the music of songs and ballets and the impressions of witnesses and participants The study of these remarkable sources shows how a team of scholars from diverse disciplines can bring into focus again the creative genius of artists painters architects and costume designers musicians and poets experts in equestrianism in pyrotechnics and in the use of symbolic languages Their artistic efforts were staged against a background of intense political diplomacy and continuing civil strife and yet the determination of Marie de M dicis and her advisers and of the Duke of Lerma brought to a triumphant conclusion negotiations and spectacular commemorations whose legacy was to inform festival art throughout European courts for decades In addition to printed and manuscript sources the volume identifies ways of giving future researchers access to festival texts and studies through digitization making the book both an in depth analysis of a particular occasion and a blueprint for future engagement with digital festival resources Catherine the Great & Potemkin Simon Sebag Montefiore,2021-08-04 A widely acclaimed biography from the bestselling author of The Romanovs One of the great love stories of history The Economist between Catherine the Great and the wildly flamboyant and talented Prince Potemkin Captures the genius of two extraordinary Enlightenment figures and of the age as well The Wall Street Journal Catherine the Great was a woman of notorious passion and imperial ambition Prince Potemkin was the love of her life and her co ruler Together they seized Ukraine and Crimea territories that define the Russian sphere of influence to this day Their affair was so tumultuous that they negotiated an arrangement to share power leaving each of them free to take younger lovers But these twin souls never stopped loving each other Drawing on the pair s intimate letters and on vast research Simon Sebag Montefiore restores these imperial partners to their rightful place as titans of their age Biography in the grand tradition Riveting The author is a gifted storyteller The Washington Post D.J William Thomas Lowndes,1834 Home Stories ,1854 *Home stories, collected by the brothers Grimm, tr. by M.L.
