Mahzor Eretz Israel A Geniza Codex:

Origins of Hebrew Liturgical Rhetoric and Poetics Joseph Yahalom, 2024-07-22 This book follows the origins of the Kedushta a sequence of poems that leads up to the epitome of Jewish prayer the Kedusha or Sanctus It tracks back the earliest forms of prayer in late antiquity and by doing so defines the main characteristics of this genre both from the standpoint of Rhetoric and poetics This genre draws from Midrash and Mysticism adjacent literary forms that influence liturgical poetry How has such an enigmatic and complex liturgical genre survived the twists and turns of history and is recited to this day for over 1500 years The answer to this question pertains to both form and content When analyzing form we address rhyme alphabetical acrostics and different poetic forms Those all have a specific rhetorical function in determining the structure of the poem pushing it forward and musically aligning the different segments The form cannot be detached from narratology referencing early midrash and mysticism In addition the emotional approach of the private prayer can express one's existential pain as part of an oppressed community We can follow the composition of the prayer book for each community over the ages through the first millennium starting with Geniza fragments to the European prayer books Finally these poems use of sophisticated etymology correlation by sound leads to innovative Medieval interpretation of the Torah It seems that the combination of a public recitation simulating a divine choir the musicality of the text and emotional depth all contributed to this eternal poetic genre to penetrate cross cutting traditions of prayer throughout the ages

The Talmud in Dispute During the High Middle Ages Fidora, Alexander, Hasselhoff, Görges, 2019-12-17 The Christian discovery of the Babylonian Talmud is a significant landmark in the long and complex history of anti Jewish polemic While the Talmudic corpus developed in the same period as early Christianity this post biblical text was largely unknown to the Christians Full awareness of the Talmud among Christian authors did not arise until the late 1230s when the Jewish convert Nicholas Donin presented a Latin translation of

Hebrew Poetry from Late Antiquity Wout van Bekkum, 2018-12-10

The discovery of the Genizah manuscript collection is nothing less than a revolution for the knowledge of Hebrew literature and Jewish culture in Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages One of the main results of one hundred years of Genizah research is the rediscovery of Hebrew liturgical poetry which shed much light on various aspects of Jewish studies For the last half century it has been almost commonplace to discover new poems unknown poets novel uses of poetry and unfamiliar poetic versions of familiar prose texts within liturgical settings being revealed among the manuscripts and manuscript fragments The products of the composers and reciters of synagogue poetry convincingly demonstrate the importance of poetry in Jewish worship and communal life The major corpora of Palestinian liturgical poetry bear evidence to the prolific literary activity of a number of famous poets who laid the foundations for the development of Hebrew poetry in later periods Yossi ben Yossi Yannai Simon bar Megas Elazar birabbi Kilir and Yohanan ha Kohen One of these mostly Byzantine Jewish melodists was Yehudah who composed a cycle of poems in accordance with the reading tradition of the Pentateuch and Prophets on the sabbath This study presents Yehudah's oeuvre with commentaries and deals with its historical and literary context in four introductory chapters The edition is complemented by indices and a bibliography

מנחם שמלצר,2006 Collected Essays The Makings of the Medieval Hebrew Book Malachi Beit-Arié,1993 Birkat HaMinim Yaakov Y. Teppler,2007 One of the intriguing questions in the study of the period of the re formation of Judaism after the destruction of the Second Temple is the identity of a group which appears in hundreds of Talmudic sources from those days the minim It is clear that most of these sources reflect different facets of the polemic between Judaism and Christianity which were both engaged in establishing their identities This book concentrates mainly on the second century CE and includes two basic questions the question of the earliest text of the twelfth blessing of the central Jewish prayer composed at that time Birkat haMinim and the question of the identity of those minim who are cursed in this blessing In the first section of the book Yaakov Yanki Teppler analyzes the blessing itself In the second section which concerns the question of its principal objects he sets out on a quest for the characterization of the minim using all the hundreds of sources which deal with them Having united these two sections in one framework a proposal is made as to the identity of the minim This proposal should provide a coherent basis for further research on this subject laying a firm foundation for understanding the processes of separation between Judaism and Christianity in this stormy and fascinating period Elenchus of Biblica ,1992
