Maid In The Market Womens Paid Domestic Labour:

Maid in the Market Wenona Mary Giles, Sedef Arat-Koç, 1994      Paid Migrant Domestic Labour in a Changing Europe Berit Gullikstad, Guro Korsnes Kristensen, Priscilla Ringrose, 2016-07-13 This book analyses the changing face of work gender equality and citizenship in Europe Drawing on in depth research conducted in nine different countries it focuses on the discourses social relations and political processes that surround paid domestic labour In doing so it rethinks the vital relationship between this kind of employment the formal and informal citizenship of migrant workers and their employers and the cultural and political value of gender equality Approaching these as fluid complex and interrelated phenomena that change according to local context it will appeal to sociologists political scientists geographers anthropologists and gender studies scholars      Doméstica Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, 2007-03-20 Dom stica is a pathbreaking study It opens our eyes to the hidden world of transnational care work and calls on us to shape domestic and international policies that will bring basic principles of human rights and social justice into that world Everyone who is concerned about care and equality should read it Lucie White Professor Harvard Law School Hondagneu Sotelo challenges the reader to rethink the organization of caring work the roles of race and immigrant status in the structure of domestic work the importance of regulations and the need for legal and personal recognition of the rights and human dignity of each worker Bonnie Thornton Dill author of Across the Boundaries of Race and Class      Maid In China Wanning Sun, 2009-01-21 This compelling book examines the mobility of domestic workers at both material and symbolic levels and of the formation and social mobility of the urban middle class through its consumption of domestic service      House-Girls Remember Margaret Rodman Critchlow, Daniela Kraemer, Lissant Bolton, Jean Tarisesei, 2007-06-30 Giving voice to the women who worked as maids known as house girls in the Pacific islands of Vanuatu is the goal of this innovative work The stories the women tell resonate with the experiences of domestic workers around the world their histories contribute to theorizing intimacy and traveling culture and their struggles with adverse working conditions help find solutions which are outlined at the end of the book In addition to contributions by the editors workshop reports by eleven ni Vanuatu women fieldworkers and ten others who spoke about their lives as house girls are included These reports detail ni Vanuatu women s experiences as domestic workers during the colonial period One chapter presents an elderly French woman s recollections of the Vietnamese orphan who grew up in her home and worked as a house girl Material from contemporary house girls appears in a final chapter based on research conducted in Port Vila      Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations , 2013-05-02 Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations connects the 19th and 20th century labor migrations and migration systems in global transcultural perspective It emphasizes macro regional internal continuities or discontinuities and interactions between and within macro regions The essays look at migrant workers experiences in constraining frames and the options they seize or constraints they circumvent It traces the development from 19th century proletarian migrations to industries and plantations across the globe to 20th and 21st century domestics and caregiver migrations It integrates male and female migration and shows how women have always been present in mass migrations Studies on historical development over time are supplemented by case studies on present migrations in Asia and from Asia A systems approach is combined with human agency perspectives Contributors include Rochelle Ball Shelly Chan Dennis D Cordell Michael Douglass Christiane Harzig Dirk Hoerder Muhamad Nadrattuzaman Hosen Hass ne Kassar Kamel Kateb Amarjit Kaur Kiranjit Kaur Gijss Kessler Akram Khater Elizabeth A Kuznesof Vera Mackie Adam McKeown Tomoko Nakamatsu Ooi Keat Gin Aswatini Raharto Marlou Schrover and Patcharawalai Wongboonsin

When Care Work Goes Global Mary Romero, Valerie Preston, Wenona Giles, 2016-02-11 Women who migrate into domestic labour and care work are the single largest female occupational group migrating globally at present Their participation in global migration systems has been acknowledged but remains under theorized Specifically the impacts of women migrating into care work in the receiving as well as the sending societies are profound altering gendered aspects of both societies We know that migration systems link the women who migrate and the households and organizations that employ domestic and care workers but how do these migration systems work and more importantly what are their impacts on the sending as well as the receiving societies How do sending and receiving societies regulate women's migration for care work and how do these labour market exchanges take place How is reproductive labour changed in the receiving society when it is done by women who are subject to multifaceted othering racializing processes A must buy acquisition When Care Work Goes Global will be an extremely valuable addition for course adoption in migration labour and gender courses taught in Sociology Anthropology Geography Women's Studies Area Studies and International Development Studies

Mothers of the Municipality Judith Fingard, Janet Guildford, 2005-12-15 Highlighting women's activism in Halifax after the Second World War Mothers of the Municipality is a tightly focused collection of essays on social policy affecting women The contributors feminist scholars in history social work and nursing examine women's experiences and activism including those of African Nova Scotian day's workers Sisters of Charity St John Ambulance Brigades Voices for peace and social welfare bureaucrats The volume underscores the fact that the 1950s and 60s were not simply years of quiet conservatism born again domesticity and consumption Indeed the period was marked by profound and rapid change for women Despite their almost total exclusion from the formal political arena which extended into the tumultuous 1970s women in Halifax were instrumental in creating and reforming programs and services often amid controversy Mothers of the Municipality explores women's activism and the provision of services at the community level If the adage think globally act locally has any application in modern history it is with the women who fought many of the battles in the larger war for social justice

Clothed in Integrity Barbara Paleczny, 2006-01-01 Barbara Paleczny herself a daughter of garment workers tugs at the threads of homeworking in the garment industry to reveal a low wage strategy that rends the fabric of social integrity and exposes global trends The resurgence of sweatshops affects the working poor in both first and third world countries Paleczny assesses the responsibility of transnational retailers for unacceptable wages and working conditions and describes historic shifts in the global context of garment production After exploring systemic causes of poverty relevant policy setting and ethical foundations Paleczny introduces both short and long range possibilities for transformation emphasizing the collaborative nature of work Clothed in Integrity draws on feminist studies alternative economics and the ethical foundations proposed by Bernard Lonergan to fashion a constructive work in which Paleczny connects issues of societal meanings and values moral imperatives and economic feasibility With candour she shares personal stories of engagement in coalition work Those who dwell on this text will find information challenges and inspiration to nurture their reflection research dialogue and action

Migrant Domestic Workers and Family Life Maria Kontos, Glenda Tibe Bonifacio, 2016-02-23 This timely and innovative book delivers a comprehensive analysis of the non recognition of the right to a family life of migrant live in domestic and care workers in Argentina Canada Germany Italy Lebanon Norway the Philippines Slovenia South Korea Spain the United Arab Emirates the United States of America and Ukraine

Human Rights and Migrant Domestic Work Maria Deanna P. Santos, 2005-09-01 On a general level this research project concerns ways in which the domestic and international laws relating to the situation of migrant domestic workers MDWs are shaped by broader socio political and economic factors More specifically this dissertation examines the human rights situation of Filipina MDWs who participate in Canada's Live in Caregiver Program LCP It attempts to meet these objectives in part by undertaking a limited comparison of the situation of these Filipina MDWs and the Filipina MDWs in Hong Kong The comparison is meant to further test and validate the arguments and proposals presented in this dissertation regarding the socio legal status of Filipina MDWs under Canada's LCP This is done through an analysis of existing data on Filipina MDWs and a consideration of the ways in which the relevant laws and policies in these two jurisdictions affect create and or perpetrate the status quo in this area of social life The main explanatory theoretical framework that is deployed is the Third World Approaches to International Law the TWAIL theory

Migration, Masculinities and Reproductive Labour Ester Gallo, Francesca Scrinzi, 2016-07-15 This innovative book analyses the role gender plays in the relationship between globalisation migration and reproductive labour Exploring the gendered experiences of migrant men and the social construction of racialised masculinities in the context of the international division of reproductive labour IDRL it examines how new patterns of consumption and provision of paid domestic care work lead to forms of inequality across racial ethnic gender and class lines Based on an ethnographic analysis of the working and family lives of migrant men within the IDRL it focuses on the practices and strategies of migrant men employed as domestic care workers in Italy The authors highlight how migrant men's experiences of reproductive labour and family are shaped by global forces and national public policies and how they negotiate the changes and potential conflicts that their feminised jobs entail They draw on the voices of men and women of different nationalities to show how masculinities are constructed within the home through migrant men's interactions with male and female employers women relations and their wider ethnic network Bridging the divide between scholarship on international migration care work and masculinity studies this book will interest sociologists anthropologists economists political scientists and social policy experts

Unsettling the Great White North Michele A. Johnson, Funké Aladejebi, 2022-01-27 An exhaustive volume of leading scholarship in the field of Black Canadian history Unsettling the Great White North highlights the diverse experiences of persons of African descent within the chronicles of Canada's past The book considers histories and theoretical framings within the disciplines of history sociology law and cultural and gender studies to chart the mechanisms of exclusion and marginalization in multicultural Canada and to situate Black Canadians as speakers and agents of their own lives Working to interrupt the myth of benign whiteness that has been deeply implanted into the country's imagination Unsettling the Great White North uncovers new narratives of Black life in Canada

Women, Migration and Citizenship Alexandra Dobrowolsky, 2016-02-17 Given the recent and rapid changes to migration patterns and citizenship processes this volume provides a timely compelling empirical and theoretical study of the gendered implications of such developments More specifically it draws out the multiple connections between migration and citizenship concerns and practices for women The collection features original research that examines women's diverse immigrant and refugee experiences and exposes how gender ideologies and practices organize migrant citizenship in its various dimensions at the local national and transnational levels The volume contributes to theoretical debates on gender migration and citizenship and provides new insights into their interrelation It includes rich case studies that range from the Philippines and Somalia to the Caribbean and from Australasia to Canada and Britain Designed to have a multidisciplinary appeal it is suitable for courses on migration diversity gender race ethnicity law and public policy comparative politics and international relations

Women in Global Migration, 1945-2000 Eleanore O. Hofstetter, 2001-03-30 With large numbers of people migrating to other countries after World War II a substantial amount of scholarship has focused on the status problems and successes of women immigrants since 1945 The first comprehensive compilation of the international literature on these women this bibliography with over 5 100 entries reveals the breadth of scholarship on feminist immigration issues Focusing particularly on sources from North America and Western Europe where most immigrant women settled the book includes feminist analyses bibliographies demographic studies economic comparisons educational research health and medical reports legal discussions biographies and autobiographies psychological case studies religious reports sociological investigations and publications dealing with general aspects of female immigration The book covers such legal issues as citizenship international conventions on contract workers the traffic in women and services and government benefits to immigrants Medical entries include such topics as female genital mutilation comparative obstetric results and equity of treatment Education entries cover such subjects as adult education and the second language programs necessary for assimilation With entries in several languages the bibliography includes books journal articles essays and chapters in books dissertations ERIC reports national and international government documents and statistical sources With immigration a major political and social issue in most countries today the book provides an important research tool Women's Legal Strategies in Canada Radha Jhappan, 2002-01-01 Have Canadian women gained from their pursuit of legal remedies to social political economic and cultural inequalities Is law a fruitful avenue for such struggles Using liberal feminist postmodern critical race and queer theory these essays confront the anti rights critiques of the legal Left regarding the use of law in general and the Charter in particular Several chapters explicitly examine the strategic limits and possibilities of the substantive equality rights approaches pursued by LEAF The Women's Legal Education and Action Fund Others focus on legal strategies mobilized in discreet areas of law and public policy by foreign domestic workers and racialized women lesbians women seeking reproductive freedom women in the childcare movement and anti violence advocates Recognizing the diversity of women across class citizenship race and ethnicity sexual identity culture and disability this collection evaluates the efficacy of the wide range of legal and political strategies women have employed particularly in this post Charter era Women's Legal Strategies in Canada is the most comprehensive account of these important issues and will surely become the standard work in the field Friend Or Flunkey? Gabrielle Meagher, 2003 Takes a close look at the working lives and attitudes of domestic workers in modern Australia The book examines a great diversity of experiences in the domestic services industry mainly through interviews with many participants both employers and employed The Making of the Mosaic Ninette Kelley, Michael J. Trebilcock, 2010-01-01 A coherent and lively tale that traces in considerable detail the evolution of Canadian immigration policy Christopher G Anderson Journal of Canadian Studies A thorough account of Canada's immigration policies Any reader interested in immigration to Canada now has a one stop source for its history Douglas Fisher Ottawa Sun A closely textured well conceived narrative an ambitious work that is tremendously reader friendly Barbara Lorenzkowski Social History Masterful and meticulously documented J D Blackwell Choice A rich resource for scholars of Canadian immigration John Harles Canadian Journal of Political Science Reshaping Gender and Class in Rural Spaces Belinda Leach, 2016-04-08 Leach and Pini bring together empirical and theoretical studies that consider the intersections of class gender and rurality Each chapter engages with current debates on these concepts to explore them in the context of contemporary social and economic transformations in which global processes that reconstitute gender and class interconnect with and take shape in a particular form of locality the rural The book is innovative in that it responds to calls for more critical work on the rural other contributes to scholarship on gender and rurality but does so through the lens of class This book places the question of gender rurality and difference at its centre through its focus on class addresses the urban bias of much class scholarship as well as the lack of gender analysis in much rural and class academic work focuses on the ways that class mediates the construction and practices of rural men masculinities and rural women femininities challenges prevalent and divergent assumptions with chapters utilising contemporary theorisations of class With the empirical strongly grounded in theory this book will appeal to scholars working in the fields of gender rurality identity and class studies      Rethinking Empowerment Jane L. Parpart, Shirin M. Rai, Kathleen A. Staudt, 2003-08-29 Rethinking Empowerment looks at the changing role of women in developing countries and calls for a new approach to empowerment An approach that adopts a more nuanced feminist interpretation of power and empowerment recognises that local empowerment is always embedded in regional national and global contexts pays attention to institutional structures and politics and acknowledges that empowerment is both a process and an outcome Moreover the book warns that an obsession with measurement rather than process can undermine efforts to foster transformative and empowering outcomes It concludes that power must be restored as the centrepiece of empowerment Only then will the term and its advocates provide meaningful ammunition for dealing with the challenges of an increasingly unequal and often sexist global local world
