examiner acknowledged there was no evidence of rape after a five week trial replete with conflicting testimony and accusations of crime scene contamination McCowen was condemned to three lifetime sentences with no parole Rarely has a homicide trial been refracted so clearly through the prism of those who engineered it Bestselling author and biographer Peter Manso dug deep into the case and the results were explosive The Cape DA indicted the author threatening him with fifty years in prison In this exhaustively researched and vividly accessible book Manso bares the anatomy of a horrific murder a botched investigation rife with bias and one of the most grossly unjust verdicts in modern trial history Page 4 of cove

Fire and Power William D. Atwill, 2010-10-01 In Fire and Power William D Atwill maps the cultural contours of space age America through readings of some of the era's most popular and influential narratives Saul Bellow's Mr Sammler's Planet John Updike's Rabbit Redux Norman Mailer's Of a Fire on the Moon Tom Wolfe's The Right Stuff Thomas Pynchon's Gravity's Rainbow and Don DeLillo's Ratner's Star Together Atwill demonstrates these key texts comprise a literary history of the space age an exploration of the novel's possibilities in uncertain times and a disturbing critique of postwar society The massive technological enterprise known as the Manned Space Program was in Atwill's words the historical marker of our age and in our race to the moon he says Bellow Updike Mailer Wolfe Pynchon and DeLillo found a trope for the postmodern condition To these writers the space program was the most visible and outward sign of a radical shift in the culture that fostered it a shift from modernism's search for interior individual unity amidst chaos to the postmodern perception of the individual's fragmentation and uncertain standing in the world

Civil Rights in the White Literary Imagination Jonathan W. Gray, 2013-02 The statement The Civil Rights Movement changed America though true has become something of a cliché Civil rights in the White Literary Imagination seeks to determine how exactly the Civil Rights Movement changed the literary possibilities of four iconic American writers Robert Penn Warren Norman Mailer Eudora Welty and William Styron Each of these writers published significant works prior to the Brown v Board of Education case in 1954 and the Montgomery Bus Boycott that began in December of the following year making it possible to trace their evolution in reaction to these events The work these writers crafted in response to the upheaval of the day from Warren's Who Speaks for the Negro to Mailer's The White Negro to Welty's Where Is the Voice Coming From to Styron's Confessions of Nat Turner reveal much about their own feeling in the moment even as they contribute to the national conversation that centered on race and democracy By examining these works closely Gray posits the argument that these writers significantly shaped discourse on civil rights as the movement was occurring but did so in ways that intentionally or not often relied upon a notion of the relative innocence of the South with regard to racial affairs and on a construct of African Americans as politically and/or culturally naïve As these writers grappled with race and the myth of southern nobility their work developed in ways that were simultaneously sympathetic of and condescending to black intellectual thought occurring at the same time
