Main Currents of West African History, 1940-1978 Sir Frederick Pedler, 1979 Main Currents of West African History, 1940-1978 Sir Frederick Pedler, 1979 A - Airports British Library, 2012-05-21 No detailed description available for A Airports Snapshot of Past and Present Historical Events in African Countries Funso E. Oluyitan Ed.D. Ph.D., 2019-04-17 In this book you will read about the 57 African countries The history of each country begins with the original settlers followed by the European invasion and rule You will read about the countries struggle for independence indigenous governments after independence the emergence of military governments followed by democracy as practiced in Africa today The snapshot of each country is written in less than 1000 words Enjoy the reading The History of the Book in the West: 1914-2000 Alexis Weedon, 2017-03-02 This collection brings together published papers on key themes which book historians have identified as of particular significance in the history of twentieth century publishing It reprints some of the best comparative perspectives and most insightful and innovatively presented scholarship on publishing and book history from such figures as Philip Altbach Lewis Coser James Curran Elizabeth Long Laura Miller Angus Phillips Janice Radway Jonathan Rose Shafquat Towheed Catherine Turner Jay Satterfield Clare Squires Eva Hemmungs Wirt n It is arranged into six sections which examine the internationalisation of publishing businesses changing notions of authorship innovation in the design and marketing of books the specific effects of globalisation on creative property and the book in a multimedia marketplace Twentieth century book history attracts an audience beyond the traditional disciplines of librarianship bibliography history and literary studies It will appeal to publishing educators editors publishers booksellers as well as academics with an interest in media and popular culture The Trans-Oceanic Marketing Channel Erdener Kaynak, 2014-05-01 If you feel you have a disjointed or unbalanced view of the global system of demand and supply you are probably correct Most studies leave out a very important part of the system the marketing channel That is why Laurens van der Laan developed and wrote this book The Trans Oceanic Marketing Channel To help you understand what happens to export crops such as cocoa coffee cotton groundnuts tea and tobacco between their country of origin and consumer markets this book analyzes the roles of different actors in trans oceanic trade inherent differences between world markets export diversification policies and the commercial and institutional forces at play The Trans Oceanic Marketing Channel will give you a strong background in marketing channel concepts and because of its focus on the exporter rather than on the government it will provide you with an excellent model for microanalysis As you read about the special features of trans oceanic trade you will also learn about trade associations and their role in shaping world markets for trans oceanic crops the uneasy relationship between exporters and shipping companies the selling conduct of agricultural exporters in Africa the tendency of actors in Africa to accelerate the trans oceanic product flow the effectiveness of export marketing boards as channel leaders private enterprise the chief agent of development the theory of exporter preference The Trans Oceanic

Marketing Channel invites policymakers international businessmen professors and students to examine the opportunities problems and policies that confront the various players in trans oceanic trade especially the exporters As the book discusses the divergent institutional arrangements in the world markets for agricultural products and their differential effect on African exports you will become keenly aware of how vertical marketing systems differ from conventional marketing channels No other book brings together the three fundamental sections of export agriculture the country of production the channel through which the products flow and the country of destination to provide you with a complete understanding of trans oceanic marketing Kwame Nkrumah Ebenezer Obiri Addo,1997 Comprises a study of Ghana s first post colonial prime minister and president Kwame Nkrumah 1909 1972 focusing on his use of religion in the development of national integration and modernization among other political goals The author offers a historical account of religion and politics in Ghana draws on social political and anthropological theories to evaluate Nkrumah s leadership from several different angles and finally assesses Nkrumah s legacy Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

H. C. Bankole-Bright and Politics in Colonial Sierra Leone, 1919-1958 Akintola Wyse,2003-12-11 This substantial and thoroughly documented book is a political biography of an important figure in Sierra Leone It is also a comment on two of the major themes of the country s history the relations between the Colony Krio Society and the protectorate the earlier inhabitants of the territory and more importantly the position of the imperial regime vis vis its colonial subjects The author a Sierra Leonean and a Krio himself skillfully examines the country s recent history through the life of Dr H C Bankole Bright an important leader of the Krio people The Krio descendants of the freed slaves were the elite of Sierra Leone for more than a century but ultimately they failed to master mass electoral politics during the period of decolonization leading to independence Dr Bankole Bright s failure is seen as emblematic of the disappointed hopes of the Krio as a political group in Sierra Leone An underlying theme of the book is the misrepresentation of the Krio people in Sierra Leone historiography The Dance of Death Dubem Okafor,1998 Christopher Okigbo 1932 1967 was one of Africa s foremost poets until his life was cut short by the Biafran civil war This work analyses his poetry and considers its importance as prophecy in the light of the current concern about the direction of the Nigerian government

Cultural Representations of Massacre Sabrina Parent,2014-07-10 In this book Parent puts together a history of representations of the 1944 mutiny in Senegal Combining firsthand analysis of the works and their intertextual interactions as well an external perspective Parent engages with history literature film poetics and politics and highlights the importance of remembering the past

Nation-states and the Challenges of Regional Integration in West Africa Yomi Akinyeye,2010 Since their independance Africa states West in particular have felt a need for regional integration in order to solve their development problems Various aspects of Nigeria s experience in regional integration are there examined These include the advocacy of chambers of commerce for common currencies among members of the West African Monetary Zone security implications of defense pacts between some francophone member countries and France and grassroots participation to solve problems concerning borders and borderlands Finally facilitators and obstacles of regional integration are examined

Who Influenced Whom? Dale C. Tatum, 2002 Urging the rejection of the realist paradigm of international relations that rested upon assumptions of balance of power concepts the author examines eight case studies from the Cold War as a move towards setting international relations concepts with more utility in influencing other countries Superpower relations with Syria Turkey Ethiopia and Guinea are explored in terms of strategic relationship concepts Taiwan and Cuba were chosen as cases in which superpowers established a relationship to a small country in order to protect it from an ideological rival Finally the cases of Yugoslavia and Uganda were selected as being examples where a superpower established a relationship with a country in order to gain at the expense of the other superpower Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Nigeria-Biafra War, OAU and the Politics of Diplomatic Recognition of Biafra, 1967 - 1970 Nwobi Obiora Isaac, A historical methodology of analysis that is thematic chronological and descriptive was adopted in this study of the Nigeria Biafra war of 1967 1970 particular regarding the Organization of African Unity OAU and the Politics of Recognition given to Biafra during the Civil War The focus of this book is to unearth the factors that propelled the four African states to declare support and accord de facto recognition to the Biafran regime against the OAU's position The nature dimension significance and the implications of such recognition were also analyzed The title of the work is not only interesting but inviting It spans across the diverse disciplines of History International Relations Political Science and International Law The results indicate as follows i Diplomatic recognition of Biafra by four African states became an elixir to the prolongation of the Nigeria Biafra war ii The credibility of the Organization of African Unity OAU appeared severely tarnished given the contradictions inherent in its charter vis a vis the national interests and dispositions of some of its member nations iii Nigeria's insistence that the conflict was its internal affairs also presented another contradiction as by so doing Nigeria purported to be a judge in its own cause by way of adjudication and negotiations iv The blockade and quarantine of Biafran territory meant to emasculate the economy and society of the secessionist enclave inadvertently succeeded in galvanizing international sympathy for the Biafran cause besides giving a lie to the aforementioned mantra of Nigeria's internal affairs as mentioned earlier v Despite the enormous humanitarian question raised and sustained by the war power politics and international realist perspective prevailed at the end

Zones of Peace in the Third World Arie M. Kacowicz, 1998-09-17 International relations scholars have traditionally focused on explaining war rather than peace resulting in the concept of peace being understudied and underemphasized This book in contrast explains the maintenance of extensive periods of international peace in two regions of the Third World South America and West Africa The term zones of peace has been used in reference to the Cold War 1945 1989 and to separate peace among the democracies developed progressively throughout the last two hundred years In this book however Kacowicz moves beyond a European focus to consider the theoretical and historical significance of the term in the context of the Third World He argues that there have been periods of long peace so that zones of peace characterized by the absence of interstate war have developed in South America since the late 1880s and among the West African countries since their independence in the early 1960s Kacowicz explores how regional peace is maintained in South America and West Africa through the distilling of alternative explanations including Realism Liberalism and satisfaction with the territorial status quo He also examines how peace can be maintained among states that usually do not sustain Western democratic regimes by offering a critique and improvement upon the democratic peace theory Peace can indeed be maintained he asserts among nondemocratic states although there is a direct relationship between the quality of the regional peace and the type of political regimes sustained by the countries in any given region

International Relations in Contemporary Africa Michael O. Anda,2000 Although developing countries far outnumber fully industrialized states they are often neglected in the study of international relations especially with respect to the development of foreign policy theory International Relations in Contemporary Africa attempts to fill this void in the literature on comparative international relations while at the same time providing a detailed analysis of the economic development and integration of West African countries Michael Anda specifically focuses on the members of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and their policies which encourage coordination on issues ranging from science and technology to diplomacy and mutual defense Tracing the diplomatic history of West Africa from independence to the present he assesses the various dimensions of cooperation among the smaller and less developed states of West Africa while revealing the precarious nature of the economy and security in the region Both detailed and comprehensive International Relations in Contemporary Africa represents a significant contribution to African studies that appeal to those with an interest in the foreign policy of smaller states

New Perspectives on the Sierra Leone Krio Mac Dixon-Fyle,Gibril Raschid Cole,2006 The ex slave Krio population of Freetown Sierra Leone an amalgam of ethnicities drawn from several parts of the African continent is a fascinating study in hybridity creolization European cultural penetration the retention of African cultural values and the interface between New World returnees and autochthonous populations of West Africa Although its Nigerian connections are often acknowledged insufficient attention has been paid to the indigenous Sierra Leonean roots of this community This anthology addresses this problem while celebrating the complexities of Krio identity and Krio interaction with other ethnic groups and nationalities in the British colonial experience

Dynamics of Asymmetric Territorial Conflict U. Resnick,2013-07-12 This book provides a comprehensive study of asymmetric territorial conflict combining game theory statistical empirical analysis and historiographic analysis Using the Israeli Palestine conflict as a case study it tests the model on a database of almost four hundred territorial conflicts

Ibss Poli Sci 29 1980 "International Committee For Social Sciences Documentation",2013-10-15 The International Bibliography of the Social Sciences IBSS is an essential tool for librarians academics and researchers wishing to be kept up to date with the published literature in the social sciences IBSS is compiled in four divisions Anthropology Sociology Economics and Political Science This is Volume XXIX of the International bibliography of political science as of 1980 Research in African Literatures ,1995 An Ethnographic Approach to Peacebuilding Gearoid Millar,2014-04-24 This book aims to outline and promote an ethnographic approach to evaluating international peacebuilding interventions in transitional states While the evaluation of peacebuilding and transitional justice efforts has been a growing concern in recent years too often evaluations assess projects based on locally irrelevant measures reinforce the status quo distribution of power in transitional situations and uncritically accept the implicit conceptions of the funders planners and administrators of such projects This book argues that evaluating the effects of peacebuilding interventions demands an understanding of the local and culturally variable context of intervention Throughout the book the author draws on real world examples from extensive fieldwork in Sierra Leone to argue that local experiences should be considered the primary measure of a peacebuilding project s success An ethnographic approach recognizes diversity in conceptions of peace justice development and reconciliation and takes local approaches and local critiques of the international agenda seriously It can help to empower local actors hold the international peacebuilding industry accountable to its supposed beneficiaries and challenge the Western centric ideas of what peace entails and how peacebuilding is achieved This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies transitional justice African politics ethnography International Relations and security studies as well as practitioners working in the field
