Wellbeing Champions: A Complete

Toolkit for Schools Alison Waterhouse, 2020-09-22 This book shows how to create a mentally healthy school by empowering young people to champion emotional wellbeing and positive mental health. It provides a practical toolkit to recruit and train Wellbeing Champions so that they can help to create an ethos and culture of positive mental health that ensures early access to the support and help needed. It explains how by focusing on emotions, self-care, resilience, communication and support systems, schools can identify what's working well and address areas for development. The detailed and user-friendly resources support every stage and include lessons and activities, supervision and training sessions, risk assessments, application forms, feedback forms and certificates. Wellbeing Champions is for primary and secondary schools who want to take a whole school approach to improve the wellbeing of both students and staff at KS2, KS3 and KS4. Self-Discovery Alison Waterhouse, 2019-04-01 One of the five books in the Mental Health and Wellbeing Teacher Toolkit, this practical resource focuses on how to support children and young people on a voyage of self-discovery as they learn to be their own best friend. The book offers research-driven practical strategies along with creative material and step-by-step lesson plans to support educators and health professionals. This is a resource book for practitioners looking to have a positive impact on the mental health and wellbeing of the children and young people in their care, both now and in the future. Chapters span key topics including Developing Resilience, Positive Thinking, Emotional Awareness and Self-Efficacy. A complete toolkit for teachers and counsellors, this book offers easy-to-follow and flexible lesson plans that can be adapted and personalised for use in lessons or smaller groups or 1:1 work. Resources that are linked to the PSHE and Wellbeing curriculum for KS1, KS2 and KS3. New research: Circles for Learning, where the introduction of baby observation into the classroom by a teacher is used to understand and develop self-awareness skills for learning, relationships, neuroscience and awareness of others. Sections on the development of key skills in communication skills for learning, collaboration, empathy and self-confidence. Learning links, learning objectives and reflection questions. Offering research-driven practical strategies and lesson plans. Self-Discovery is an essential resource book for educators and health professionals looking for fresh, engaging ways to support the wellbeing of children and young people.

The Learning Mentor Toolkit Alison Waterhouse, 2021-03-30 The Learning Mentor Toolkit provides all of the resources necessary to recruit, train and supervise adult learning mentors looking to support children and young people within the school environment. Packed full of information, this book details all of the necessary training and uncovers how best to ensure that supervision meets the needs of the volunteers, the children and the school. Developed to enable a lead member of staff to find, co-create and train a range of adults from the school community and use these Volunteer Learning Mentors to support children and young people within their environment, the support offered is linked to the five key areas that create positive foundations for mental health and wellbeing: the ability to create and develop positive relationships, emotional literacy, self-awareness, how our brains can affect learning and behaviour, skills for learning. Full of practical advice and resources, this book is the ideal resource for any wellbeing lead or senior leadership team looking to
