

My Belief System

A belief system is the combination of thoughts, opinions, or convictions on the most profound questions of life. What is a human being? What is the meaning and purpose of life? What is righteous behavior and what is sinful? Why is so much suffering caused and does it have any purpose? How can a greater and lasting happiness be found in life? What happens at death? What happens thereafter? Is there anything such as judgment? Will the righteous be rewarded? Such are the questions that weigh heavily upon any person seeking a deeper meaning of life, and possibly the way to salvation.

They are no easy self-evident answers to these questions. One cannot come to any clear-cut conclusions to these questions using thinking and analysis, although philosophers do try to do so. The ultimate questions of life belong to the dimension of metaphysics, and have to be largely accepted as a matter of belief or faith. The articles of a believer's religious faith are not conclusions derived by ratiocinative, discriminating mind. Mind has little to do with them, they are more related to the heart and the soul of a person.

For example, the existence of soul itself is not something one can infer from rational analysis or physical dissection. Yet the existence of soul is central to nearly every religious belief system on the earth. Logical thinking cannot make anything of such a belief. Similarly, the presence of God is something beyond the reach of human mind to comprehend. Yet, a belief in God is again the core of nearly every religious belief system. I myself follow a deeply Christian belief system that is founded upon the Glory of God and the mystery of His creation.

When we enter the domain of a religious system, we have to leave the mind behind and follow the voice of the heart. I believe that we should follow a belief system not because our parents followed it or the people around us follow it, but simply because there is a resonance between the elements of that particular religious thinking and oneself. Of course, usually one finds this special affinity to the religious tradition one is born into, and that is the case with me too.

I am a Protestant Christian and I find that the Protestants have a direct and intimate approach to religion. I am at home among Protestant Christians and particularly in my church and denomination, the Baptist Christians. Though I myself belong to the Baptist church, and have certain strong convictions concerning theological/metaphysical matters in accordance to my particular belief system, I try to regard other denominations and even faiths with an open mind. I believe that deep down, the religious impulse of men and women all over the world is the same.

Further, the courage or abstractness of thought needed to allow the heart to believe in

My Belief Jew My Belief:

Testimonies of Jews who Believe in Jesus, 1992 Testimonies may take you by surprise All kinds of Jews have counted the cost considered the claims and committed themselves to following Jesus as the Messiah In this book you ll read about a doctor a lawyer and a couple of business chiefs who candidly tell the events that led them to Y shua Jesus Also included are Paul Steiner a scientist Stan Telchin a pillar of the Jewish community Vera Schlamm a holocaust survivor people who some might think have every reason NOT to believe in Jesus They have come to faith in Him for reasons which are told between the covers of this book Must a Jew Believe Anything? Menachem Kellner, 2022-03-09 The crucial question for today s Jewish world Kellner argues is not whether Jews will have Jewish grandchildren but how many different sorts of mutually exclusive Judaisms those grandchildren will face This accessible book examines how the split that threatens the Jewish future can be avoided For this second edition the author has added a substantial Afterword reviewing his thinking on the subject and addressing the reactions to the original edition Dutch Jews As Perceived by Themselves and by Others Chaya Brasz, Yosef Kaplan, 2001 This study Encompasses a variety of topics relating to Dutch Jewry from the beginning of Jewish settlement through the Holocaust The Jewish Faith Grace Aguilar, 1864 The Legend of Thomas Didymus. The Jewish Sceptic James Freeman Clarke, 2025-08-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1881 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Reference and Identity in Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Scriptures D. E. Buckner, 2020-07-08 In Reference and Identity in Jewish Christian and Muslim Scriptures The Same God D E Buckner argues that all reference is story relative We cannot tell which historical individual a person is talking or writing about or addressing in prayer without familiarity with the narrative oral or written which introduces that individual to us so we cannot understand reference to God nor to his prophets nor to any other character mentioned in the Jewish Christian or Muslim scriptures without reference to those very scriptures In this context we must understand God as the person who walked in the garden in the cool of the day Gen 3 8 and who is continuously referred to in the books of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament as well as the Quran Further developing ideas presented by the late Fred Sommers in his seminal The Logic of Natural Language Buckner argues that singular reference and singular conception is empty outside such a context Faith Honoring Jill L. Lindsey, Douglas Stump, Rehenuma Asmi, Erica Brown, Amaarah DeCuir, 2024-10-22 This book calls on educators to teach the whole child by including their faith as integral to their identity and offers suggestions for how to honor faith within a nurturing learning environment Part One describes the concept of faith honoring as an extension of historical educational approaches and offers a framework for how to teach in ways that are faith honoring Part Two is a collection of personal essays reflecting on experiences of faith honoring and faith silencing A Minyan of Women Beverly A. Greene, Dorith Brodbar, 2013-09-13 This book explores the diverse manner in which family dynamics shaped Jewish identities in ways that were unique and directly connected to their experiences within their families of origin Highlighted is the diversity of experience of ethnic identity within members of a group of women who are similar in many respects and who belong to an ethnic group that is often invisible Jewish people like members of other ethnic groups are often treated as if their identities were homogeneous However gender social class sexual orientation factors surrounding immigration status proximity of family members to the holocaust or pogroms the number of generations one's family has been in the US and other salient aspects of experience and identities transform and inform the meaning and experience by group members The book explores these diversities of experience and goes on to highlight the way in which the intermingling of family dynamics and subsequent Jewish identity in these women is manifested in the practice of psychotherapy In 2012 the book had been awarded the Jewish Women Caucus of the Association for Women in Psychology Award for Scholarship for that year This book was published as a special issue of Women and Therapy
