McDonald-Rissanen, 2013-12-01 Taking its title from a poem by Prince Edward Island poet Anne Compton In the Interval of the Wave is a close study of diaries written by Prince Edward Island women in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Women from both rural and urban regions of the Island recorded their lives in a genre that allowed them to play with the conventions of the language they knew For busy farm wives their quotidian language syntax and choice of topic appear simple whereas for the urban elite like Margaret Gray Lord and Wanda Wyatt the erudition of their diaries suggests a more

leisured existence Mary McDonald Rissanen argues that the initial reception of the text its physical appearance handwriting gaps and flood of words provides interesting insights for understanding the circumstances of Prince Edward Island women from times past Intertextual readings of the diaries alongside other cultural artifacts such as paintings histories folk stories and songs embellish the idiosyncratic diary discourse Diaries enabled women to write their voices create a subjective identity and redefine their place in the world In the Interval of the Wave exposes lives lived and recorded in a special moment and place never far from the rhythm of the sea Journal of the Royal Agricultural Society of England Royal Agricultural Society of England,1876 George Stubbs, Painter Judy Egerton,George Stubbs,2007-01-01 George Stubbs is one of the greatest of British eighteenth century painters with a deep and unaffected sympathy for country life and the English countryside This fully illustrated book outlines his career followed by a catalogue raisonne the first since Sir Walter Gilbey s short listing of 1898 of all his known works One of the stickiest labels in the history of British art attached itself to Stubbs as Mr Stubbs the horse painter Over half of his paintings were of horses each founded on the pioneering observations assembled in 1766 in his book The Anatomy of the Horse but Stubbs s wide ranging subjects included portraits conversation pieces and paintings of exotic animals from the Zebra to the Rhinoceros as well as an extraordinarily sympathetic series of portraits of dogs
