pay the price to achieve his greatest desire John, No Greater Prophet Kenneth Smith, 2006-05-24 For many years the author has wondered about John the Baptist who makes an appearance at the time of his birth and then seems to be missing until the actual baptism of Jesus Soon after that he is taken prisoner and dies in a Roman Prison He was related to Jesus but the Biblical record seems to have nothing else to say about him He was also a Nazarite and the only one found in New Testament times He had loving parents was related to the priestly servants of the temple yet the Biblical record tells very little about his life The author has done as extensive research as is possible on the life of John Every mention of John in the Biblical text is included along with other facets of his life that would be normal for the life of a Nazarite boy becoming a man We recognize that Jesus being the Son of God had an advantage of possible great pre knowledge John had to study and grow and find it out in the Bible which of course is only the Old Testament of our time Jesus recognizes how important John is in the few times that he talks about him but Jesus mission really moves ahead after John s mission has been completed Welcome to John No Greater Prophet who has become a friend of the author The Holy Spirit in the Third Millennium Stanford Linzey, 2003 This work deals with issues surrounding the manifestation of the Spirit in prayer from theological and practical points of view The treatment is orthodox yet it is charismatic in tone and practical in presentation It is a culmination of thirty years of study and experience received from conducting seminars spanning denominational lines It has broad appeal to charismatic Pentecostal and parachurch groups yet it has reached into evangelical mainline Catholic Pentecostal and ecumenical groups because of its reasoned theological and biblical content P 4 of cover All That I Am, I Think! Peter Britt, 2007-07-26 I attempted in my book to relay who I am through my writing and expressing my innermost feelings in regards to many different aspects of life Not life as some might try to reveal its secrets but life as what it is As merely a man who thinks and loves A man who hurts and laughs and sings to the world to give of who he is in the hopes that some may understand what his words mean what he truly is inside To be known for who I truly am Yes it is that important No different from my music It was necessary to say it and for all to hear What I see every day what I feel To love and to be loved love is everything These things and more I poured of myself into my book to reveal myself fully to you To allow you to see what I feel in regards to many things and to possibly agree or to at least think about what you ve read To do this to me is true success To make even a small difference The God Who Prays Douglas D. Webster, 2017-01-17 The God Who Prays is a spiritual reading of Jesus farewell prayers Jesus began his upper room discipleship sermon on his knees washing the disciples feet and he ended it with his eyes raised to heaven consecrating himself and his disciples to the will of the Father For Jesus the line between communion with his Father and conversation with his disciples is very thin Dialogue and devotion go hand in hand His Glory prayer and his Gethsemane prayer along with his prayers from the cross transform the disciples from pre passion inquisitiveness and doubt to post passion devotion and discipleship Through answered prayer Jesus shifts the disciples from training mode to mission His example inspires us to ask how thin the line is between praying and living Prayer s promised efficaciousness whatever you ask is locked in to our relationship with the triune God The Father is the source of every good and perfect gift The Son in whose name we pray gives the purpose and the passion for whatever we ask And our Advocate the Holy Spirit guides us into all truth On the eve of the crucifixion Jesus teaches us how to pray What Can I Do? Barbara A. Glanz,2006-12-01 Offers poems stories and practical suggestions about how to help people who have suffered a loss including anticipating their needs remembering affected children and sharing good memories The Shape of Participation L.
