Peter Carey

Oscar And Lucinda:

Oscar and Lucinda Peter Carey, 2010-12-22 Peter Carey's novel of the undeclared love between clergyman Oscar Hopkins and the heiress Lucinda Leplastrier is both a moving and beautiful love story and a historical tour de force set in Victorian times. Made for each other, the two are gamblers, one obsessive, the other compulsive, incapable of winning at the game of love. Oscar and Lucinda is now available as a Faber Modern Classics edition. Oscar and Lucinda, 2004

Peter Carey's Oscar and Lucinda Matthew Da Silva, 1989 Oscar and Lucinda Peter Carey, 2011-03-23 The Booker Prize winning novel, now a major motion picture from Fox Searchlight Pictures. This sweeping, irrepressibly inventive novel is a romance, but a romance of the sort that could only take place in nineteenth-century Australia. For only on that sprawling continent, a haven for misfits of both the animal and human kingdoms, could a nervous Anglican minister who gambles on the instructions of the Divine become allied with a teenaged heiress who buys a glassworks to help liberate her sex. And only the prodigious imagination of Peter Carey could implicate Oscar and Lucinda in a narrative of love and commerce, religion and colonialism that culminates in a half-mad expedition to transport a glass church across the Outback. Oscar and Lucinda by Peter Carey, Brian Elkner, 1990 Peter Carey Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2010-03-10 Peter Carey, writer of such celebrated works as Oscar and Lucinda, True History of the Kelly Gang, and His Illegal Self, is one of Australia's most critically acclaimed novelists. Deeply concerned with South Pacific culture, especially the lives of its most downtrodden citizens, Carey uses popular art as a tool for raising the consciousness of readers. This book provides an introduction to the author's life as well as a guided overview of his body of work. Designed for the fan and scholar alike, this text features an alphabetized, fully annotated listing of major terms in the Carey canon, including fictional characters, motifs, historical events, and themes. Additional features include a listing of headwords, a Carey history, 44 reading and writing topics, and bibliographies of primary and secondary sources. A comprehensive index is included. Witnessing the Past Sigrun Meinig, 2004 Oscar and Lucinda Laura Jones, 1998 Oscar and Lucinda: An Overview, George P. Landrow presents an overview of the novel entitled Oscar and Lucinda, written by the Australian author Peter Carey in 1943, as part of the Australia section of the Postimperial and Postcolonial Literature in English resource. Landrow discusses the theme and subject history, characterization, political context, and literary relations of the novel. Postcolonial Issues in Australian Literature,

Fabulating Beauty, 2005-01-01 Peter Carey is one of Australia s finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey s literary achievement It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer s fictions Contributors focus on issues as diverse as the writer s biography his use of architectural metaphors his interrogation of narrative structures such as myths and cultural master plots intertextual strategies concepts of sacredness and references to the Christian tradition and his strategies of rewriting history Amidst predictions of the imminent death of postist theory the essays all attest to the ongoing relevance of the critical parameters framed by postmodernism and postcolonialism

Dancing on Hot Macadam Anthony J. Hassall, 1998 This is the first comprehensive study of one of the world s most gifted and exciting writers It follows Peter Carey s career from the nightmare haunted stories of The Fat Man in History and War Crimes to the madcap satire of Bliss from Illywhacker s picaresque landscapes to Oscar and Lucinda s glittering achievement and the powerfully confronting vision of The Tax Inspector Dancing on Hot Macadam is a lucid account of Peter Carey s fiction and its intriguing critical reception It explores his preoccupation with imprisonment and metamorphosis and the desire of his characters to escape from bewildering roles relationships and societies Dancing on Hot Macadam is another volume in the excellent Studies in Australian Literature series It is a sound and persuasive critique that gets much better as it goes along Times Literary Supplement The book contains a lot of ideas and will be the base from

Writing the Nation John C. Hawley, John Charles Hawley, 1996 The fourteen essays in this volume contribute significantly to a consideration of the interplay between nation and narration that currently dominates both literary and cultural studies With the fervent reassertion of tribal domains throughout the world and with the consequent threat to the stability of a common discourse in putative countries once mapped and subsequently dominated by colonizing powers the need for such studies becomes increasingly obvious Whose idea of a nation is to prevail throughout these postcolonial territories whose claims to speak for a people are to be legitimized by international agreement amid the demands of patriotic rhetoric what role may be allowed for individual expression that attempts to transcend the immediate political agenda who may assume positions of authority in defining an ethnic paradigm such are the questions variously addressed in this volume The essayists who here contribute to the discussion are students of the various national literatures that are now becoming more generally available in the West The range of topics is broad moving globally from the Caribbean and South America through the African continent and on to the Indian subcontinent and moving temporally through the nineteenth century and into the closing days of our twentieth We deal with poetry fiction and theoretical writings and have two types of reader in mind We hope to introduce the uninitiated to the breadth of this expanding field and we hope to aid those with a specialized knowledge of one or other of these literatures in their consideration of the extent to which post colonial writing may or may not form a reasonably unified field We seek to avoid the new form of colonialism that might impose a theoretical template to these quite divergent writings falsely rendering it all accessible and familiar At the same time we do note questions and concerns that cross borders whether these imagined lines are spatial temporal gendered or racial

The Cinema of Australia and New Zealand Geoff Mayer, Keith Beattie, 2007 From The Story of the Kelly Gang in 1906 to the Lord of the Rings trilogy Australia and New Zealand have made a unique impact on international cinema This book celebrates the commercially successful narrative feature films produced by these cultures as well as key documentaries shorts and independent films It also invokes issues involving national identity race history and the ability of two small film cultures to survive the economic and cultural threat of Hollywood Chapters on well known films and directors such as The Year of Living Dangerously Peter Weir 1982 The Piano Jane Campion 1993 Fellowship of the Ring Peter Jackson 2001 and Rabbit Proof Fence Philip Noyce 2002 are included with less popular but equally important films and filmmakers such as Jedda Charles Chauvel 1955 They're a Weird Mob Michael Powell 1966 Vigil Vincent Ward 1984 and The Goddess of 1967 Clara Law 2000
