James Herriot Michael Rossi, 1997-01-28 This study examines James Herriot's five major books as carefully crafted volumes of autobiography based on the building block of the short story In each of these works Herriot explores the fundamental choice of values underlying a happy and successful life In his vision the bonds of affection and mutual dependence between all creatures human and animal form an enduring theme that lies at the heart of the choices he makes in his personal and professional life This study will help the reader to understand the relationship between Herriot's stories and each book as a whole and to appreciate Herriot's work in the context of twentieth century anxieties about identity and meaning Following a biographical chapter that describes the relationship between Herriot's life and literary work Rossi discusses the genre of autobiography the relationship between truth and fiction in modern autobiography and Herriot's use of the genre A separate chapter is then devoted to each of Herriot's works in turn All Creatures Great and Small All Things Bright and Beautiful All Things Wise and Wonderful The Lord God Made Them All and Every Living Thing The discussion of each work includes sections on plot development and narrative structure character development thematic issues and alternative critical approaches that may be fruitfully applied to the book Helpful appendices contain identifications of minor characters in the works A complete bibliography of all of James Herriot's works critical sources and a listing of reviews of all of his works completes the volume Because of the popularity of Herriot's work among adults and young adults this companion will be a key purchase for school and public libraries James Herriot's Dog Stories James Herriot, 1986-04-15 A collection of dog stories by James Herriot The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L.
