Revolution James R. Hansen,1995 Experiencing Hektor Lynn Kozak,2016-12-01 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched At the Iliad s climax the great Trojan hero Hektor falls at the hands of Achilles But who is Hektor He has resonated with audiences as a tragic hero great warrior loyal husband and father protector of a doomed city Yet never has a major work sought to discover how these different aspects of Hektor s character accumulate over the course of the narrative to create the devastating effect of his death This book documents the experience of Hektor through the Iliad s serial narrative Drawing on diverse tools from narratology to cognitive science but with a special focus on film character television poetics and performance practice it examines how the mechanics of serial narrative construct the character of Hektor How do we experience Hektor as the performer makes his way through the epic How does the juxtaposition of scenes in multiple storylines contribute to character How does the narrative work to manipulate our emotional response How does our relationship to Hektor change over the course of the performance Lynn Kozak demonstrates this novel approach through a careful scene by scene breakdown and analysis of the Iliad focusing especially on Hektor In doing so she challenges and destabilises popular and scholarly assumptions about both ancient epic and the Iliad s other hero Journeys of Charter School Creators Maria M. Leahy,Rebecca A. Shore,2018-12-28 Journeys of Charter School Creators tells of the journeys of ten thriving charter schools throughout the United States and their leaders over the past 20 years The first seven cases are follow up stories from the original book published in 2004 Adventures of Charter School Creators Leading from the Ground Up The final three cases feature three North Carolina charter schools and their leaders Each leaders narrative reveals amazing journeys with different paths taken different choices made however these leaders were all entrepreneurs with a passion to guide their schools for the long haul toward success with a specific mission and vision to improve educational opportunities and a better future for a specific group of children Readers will learn through the firsthand experiences of these charter school leaders lessons on leading in the challenging charter school world a rewarding yet somewhat tumultuous journey of growth and innovation The Publishers Weekly ,1889 Adventures of Charter School Creators Terrence E. Deal,Guilbert C. Hentschke,Kendra Kecker,2004 Adventures of Charter School Creators takes the reader inside the world of individual educational entrepreneurs who have created charter schools from scratch and lived to tell about it Drawn from examples across the country individuals and a few teams tell their stories of the victories they enjoyed and the defeats they overcame to create their schools They include an Episcopal priest working in the Pico Union community of Los Angeles a corporate attorney in Miami a manpower training specialist in East Saint Louis the chief financial officer of a major African American church in New York City a retired military officer in North Carolina as well as experienced school teachers and administrators From these stories Deal and Hentschke extract and examine the issues of school leadership that are peculiar to those school leaders who have chosen to create schools from scratch This book Examines entrepreneurial leadership as a concrete manifestation of school leadership Sheds light on the concrete differences between leadership in relatively autonomous start up charters and the relatively dependent traditional schools Anchors charter school leadership within the context of general non education leadership and distinguishes it from what is typically associated with school leadership today It describes The general forces in society which are pushing public K 12 education into market based initiatives The general leadership issues of any break away or start up enterprise Will be of interest to all educators

The Phantom Image Patrick R. Crowley, 2019-12-10 Drawing from a rich corpus of art works including sarcophagi tomb paintings and floor mosaics Patrick R Crowley investigates how something as insubstantial as a ghost could be made visible through the material grit of stone and paint In this fresh and wide ranging study he uses the figure of the ghost to offer a new understanding of the status of the image in Roman art and visual culture Tracing the shifting practices and debates in antiquity about the nature of vision and representation Crowley shows how images of ghosts make visible structures of beholding and strategies of depiction Yet the figure of the ghost simultaneously contributes to a broader conceptual history that accounts for how modalities of belief emerged and developed in antiquity Neither illustrations of ancient beliefs in ghosts nor depictions of afterlife these images show us something about the visual event of seeing itself The Phantom Image offers essential insight into ancient art visual culture and the history of the image
