Other Animals:

Humans and Other Animals Prof. Samantha Hurn, 2012-04-20 What are our attitudes towards other animals and how does this affect our humanity This work of anthrozoology explores the myriad and evolving ways in which humans and animals interact the divergent cultural constructions of humanity and animality found around the world and individual experiences of other animals This book looks at case studies covering blood sports such as hunting fishing and bull fighting pet keeping and petism eco tourism and wildlife conservation working animals and animals as food It addresses the idea of animal exploitation raised by the animal rights movements as well as the anthropological implications of changing attitudes towards animal personhood and the rise of a posthumanist philosophy in the social sciences more generally Human and Other Animals Bob Carter, Nickie Charles, 2011-10-04 This collection examines human animal relations and the different ways in which they can be understood exploring animal rights and animal welfare whether and under what circumstances animals are regarded as social actors with agency media representations of human animal relations and the relation between animals and national identity

Humans and Other Animals in Eighteenth-Century British Culture Frank Palmeri, 2020-07-09 Combining historical and interpretive work this collection examines changing perceptions of and relations between human and nonhuman animals in Britain over the long eighteenth century Persistent questions concern modes of representing animals and animal human hybrids as well as the ethical issues raised by the human uses of other animals From the animal men of Thomas Rowlandson to the part animal part human creature of Victor Frankenstein hybridity serves less as a metaphor than as a metonym for the intersections of humans and other animals The contributors address such recurring questions as the implications of the Enlightenment project of naming and classifying animals the equating of non European races and nonhuman animals in early ethnographic texts and the desire to distinguish the purely human from the entirely nonhuman animal Gulliver s Travels and works by Mary and Percy Shelley emerge as key texts for this study The volume will be of interest to scholars and students who work in animal colonial gender and cultural studies and will appeal to general readers concerned with the representation of animals and their treatment by humans

Humans and Other Animals Barbara Noske, 1989

Our Children and Other Animals Matthew Cole, Kate Stewart, 2016-05-23 Focusing on the socialization of the human use of other animals as resources in contemporary Western society this book explores the cultural reproduction of human nonhuman animal relations in childhood With close attention to the dominant practices through which children encounter animals and mainstream representations of animals in children s culture whether in terms of the selective exposure of children to animals as pets or as food in the home or in school or the representation of animals in mass media and social media Our Children and Other Animals reveals the interconnectedness of studies of childhood culture and human animal relations In doing so it establishes the importance of human animal relations in sociology by describing the sociological importance of animals in children s lives and children in animals lives Presenting a new typology of the various kinds of human animal relationship this conceptually innovative book constitutes a clear demonstration of the relevance of sociology to the interdisciplinary field of human animal relations and will appeal to readers across the social sciences with interests in sociology childhood studies cultural and media studies and human animal interaction

Jews, Gentiles, and Other Animals Mira Wasserman, 2017-05-19 In Jews Gentiles and Other Animals Mira Beth Wasserman undertakes a close reading of Avoda Zara arguably the Babylonian Talmud's most scandalous tractate According to Wasserman Avoda Zara is where this Talmud joins the humanities in questioning what it means to be a human

Communication in Humans and Other Animals Gisela Håkansson, Jennie Westander, 2013-06-27 Communication is a basic behaviour found across animal species Human language is often thought of as a unique system which separates humans from other animals This textbook serves as a guide to different types of communication and suggests that each is unique in its own way human verbal and nonverbal communication communication in nonhuman primates in dogs and in birds Research questions and findings from different perspectives are summarized and integrated to show students similarities and differences in the rich diversity of communicative behaviours A core topic is how young individuals proceed from not being able to communicate to reaching a state of competent communicators and the role of adults in this developmental process Evolutionary aspects are also taken into consideration and ideas about the evolution of human language are examined The cross disciplinary nature of the book makes it useful for courses in linguistics biology sociology and psychology but it is also valuable reading for anyone interested in understanding communicative behaviour

Ecofeminism: Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth Carol J. Adams, Lori Gruen, 2014-07-31 This book first offers an historical overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism and provides a timeline for important publications and events This is followed by contributions from theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world In the final section the contributors explore the complexities of appreciating difference and the possibilities of living less violently Throughout the book the authors engage with intersections of gender and gender non conformity race sexuality disability and species

Derrida and Other Animals Judith Still,2015-07-13 Judith Still analyses Derrida s late writings on animals especially his seminars The Beast and the Sovereign to explore ethical questions of how humans treat animals and how we treat outsiders from slaves to terrorists

Dominance and Aggression in Humans and Other Animals Henry R. Hermann,2017-01-05 Dominance and Aggression in Humans and Other Animals The Great Game of Life examines human nature and the influence of evolution genetics chemistry nurture and the sociopolitical environment as a way of understanding how and why humans behave in aggressive and dominant ways The book walks us through aggression in other social species compares and contrasts human behavior to other animals and then explores specific human behaviors like bullying abuse territoriality murder and war The book examines both individual and group aggression in different environments including work school and the home It explores common stressors triggering aggressive behaviors and how individual personalities can be vulnerable to or resistant to these stressors The book closes with an exploration of the cumulative impact of human aggression and dominance on the natural world Reviews the influence of evolution genetics biochemistry and nurture on aggression Explores aggression in multiple species including insects fish reptiles birds and mammals Compares human and animal aggressive and dominant behavior Examines bullying abuse territoriality murder and war Includes nonaggressive behavior in displays of respect and tolerance Highlights aggression triggers from drugs to stress Discusses individual and group behavior including organizations and nations Probes dominance and aggression in religion and politics Translates the impact of human behavior over time on the natural world

The Climate Crisis and Other Animals Richard Twine,2024-03-01 The Climate Crisis and Other Animals is a must read for anyone who cares about the future of our planet and the animals who live on it Twine examines the impact of the climate crisis on nonhuman animals and argues for the importance of a climate and food justice movement inclusive of nonhuman animals The book examines the ways in which climate breakdown is affecting nonhuman animal species and delves deeply into the politicised controversy over the extent of emissions from animal agriculture demonstrating the markedly lower emissions of eating vegan Critical of misguided human centred framings of the climate crisis Twine makes clear the necessity of including practices of animal commodification the importance of documenting the effect of a changing climate on other animal species and the mitigative opportunities of a radical remaking of dominant human animal relations The Climate Crisis and Other Animals addresses the emissions impacts of radical land use changes and the twentieth century scaling up of animal commodification within the animal industrial complex revealing how this system is interwoven in the gendered and racialised histories of capitalism Twine collates an impressive body of scientific research that demonstrate both the already enormous impact of the climate crisis on the lives of nonhuman animals and the need to tackle the dominance of meat based cultures Twine critically explores approaches to food transition and three potentially transformative scenarios for global food systems that could help dismantle the animal industrial complex and create a more sustainable and just food system Averting the climate and biodiversity crises requires nothing less than a radical transformation in how we see ourselves in relation to other species

Animals and Women Carol J. Adams, Josephine Donovan, 1995-11-14 Animals and Women is a collection of pioneering essays that explores the theoretical connections between feminism and animal defense Offering a feminist perspective on the status of animals this unique volume argues persuasively that both the social construction and oppressions of women are inextricably connected to the ways in which we comprehend and abuse other species Furthermore it demonstrates that such a focus does not distract from the struggle for women's rights but rather contributes to it This wide ranging multidisciplinary anthology presents original material from scholars in a variety of fields as well as a rare early article by Virginia Woolf Exploring the leading edge of the species gender boundary it addresses such issues as the relationship between abortion rights and animal rights the connection between woman battering and animal abuse and the speciesist basis for much sexist language Also considered are the ways in which animals have been regarded by science literature and the environmentalist movement A striking meditation on women and wolves is presented as is an examination of sexual harassment and the taxonomy of hunters and hunting Finally this compelling collection suggests that the subordination and degradation of women is a prototype for other forms of abuse and that to deny this connection is to participate in the continued mistreatment of animals and women

Ethics, Humans and Other Animals Rosalind Hursthouse, 2013-02-01 This introductory textbook is ideally suited to newcomers to philosophy and ethical problems Rosalind Hursthouse carefully introduces the three standard approaches in current ethical theory utilitarianism rights and virtue ethics She links each chapter to readings from key exponents such as Peter Singer and Mary Midgley and asks students to think critically about these readings for themselves Key features include clear activities and activities chapter summaries and guides to further reading

Animals and War Anthony J. Nocella II, Colin Salter, Judy K.C. Bentley, 2013-12-19 Animals and War Confronting the Military Animal Industrial Complex is the first book to examine how nonhuman animals are used for war by military forces Each chapter delves deeply into modes of nonhuman animal exploitation as weapons test subjects and transportation and as casualties of war leading to homelessness starvation and death With leading scholar activists writing each chapter this is an important text in the fields of peace studies and critical animal studies This is a must read for anyone interested in ending war and fostering peace and justice

Government Gazette New South Wales, 1858 Encyclopedia of Animal Rights and Animal Welfare Marc Bekoff, Carron A. Meaney, 2013-12-16 Human beings responsibility to and for their fellow animals has become an increasingly controversial subject This book provides a provocative overview of the many different perspectives on the issues of animal rights and animal welfare in an easy to use encyclopedic format Original contributions from over 125 well known philosophers biologists and psychologists in this field create a well balanced and multi disciplinary work Users will be able to examine critically the varied angles and arguments and gain a better understanding of the history and development of animal rights and animal protectionist movements around the world Outstanding Reference Source Best Reference Source Code of Federal Regulations ,1959 Varieties of Empathy Elisa Aaltola,2018-02-09 Empathy is a term used increasingly both in moral theory and animal ethics with the suggestion that empathy enhances our moral ability and agency Yet its precise meaning is often left unexplored together with the various obstacles and challenges met by an empathy based ethic such as those concerning the ways in which empathy is prone to bias and may also facilitate manipulation of others These oversights render the contemporary discussion on empathy and animal ethics vulnerable to both conceptual confusion and moral simplicity The book aims to tackle these problems by clarifying the different and even contradictory ways in which empathy can be defined and by exploring the at times surprising implications the various definitions have from the viewpoint of moral agency Its main question is What types of empathy hinder moral ability and what types enable us to become more morally capable in our dealings with the nonhuman world During the contemporary era when valuable forms of empathy are in decline and the more hazardous self regarding and biased varieties of utilising empathy in the increase this question is perhaps more important than ever Animal Rights/human Rights David Alan Nibert,2002 This accessible and cutting edge work offers a new look at the history of western civilization one that brings into focus the interrelated suffering of oppressed humans and other animals Nibert argues persuasively that throughout history the exploitation of other animals has gone hand in hand with the oppression of women people of color and other oppressed groups He maintains that the oppression both of humans and of other species of animals is inextricably tangled within the structure of social arrangements Nibert asserts that human use and mistreatment of other animals are not natural and do little to further the human condition Nibert s analysis emphasizes the economic and elite driven character of prejudice discrimination and institutionalized repression of humans and other animals His examination of the economic entanglements of the oppression of human and other animals is supplemented with an analysis of ideological forces and the use of state power in this sociological expose of the grotesque uses of the oppressed past and present Nibert suggests that the liberation of devalued groups of humans is unlikely in a world that uses other animals as fodder for the continual growth and expansion of transnational corporations and conversely that animal liberation cannot take place when humans continue to be exploited and oppressed
