Other Modernities:

Other Modernities Lisa Rofel, 1999-03-01 In this analysis of three generations of women in a Chinese silk factory Lisa Rofel brilliantly interweaves the intimate details of her observations with a broad ranging critique of the meaning of modernity in a postmodern age The author based her study at a silk factory in the city of Hangzhou in eastern China She compares the lives of three generations of women workers those who entered the factory right around the Communist revolution in 1949 those who were youths during the Cultural Revolution of the 1970s and those who have come of age in the Deng era Exploring attitudes toward work marriage society and culture she convincingly connects the changing meanings of the modern in official discourse to the stories women tell about themselves and what they make of their lives One of the first studies to take up theoretically sophisticated issues about gender modernity and power based on a solid ethnographic ground this much needed cross generational study will be a model for future anthropological work around the world Delimiting

Modernities Sven Trakulhun, Ralph Weber, 2015-02-12 This collection seeks to contribute to the many long standing discussions on modernity but also and more specifically to the more recent debates over trends to pluralize modernity These debates are current in many different academic disciplines such as sociology anthropology literature and postcolonial studies Hitherto most engagements with modernity in the plural have remained conspicuously confined to one or other intra disciplinary notion of modernities such as that of Shmuel Eisenstadt s multiple modernities which has triggered a host of conference papers and publications largely within sociology all the while it seems that the literatures for instance of multiple modernities and alternative modernities are each distinguished by the fact that one ignores the other It is the principal aim of this edited volume to subject these disciplinary discussions to a more encompassing view assembling contributions from different scholars who not only work in different disciplines and regional settings but who also engage with their research topics in a variety of approaches and at different levels of analysis The volume thus transcends the sometimes narrow boundaries of the debates over modernities within the established academic disciplines and seeks to turn the unavoidable friction brought about by this interdisciplinary setting into most original and insightful scholarship Fascist Modernities

Ruth Ben-Ghiat, 2004-03 This cultural history of Mussolini s dictatorship discusses the meanings of modernity in interwar Italy The work argues that fascism appealed to many Italian intellectuals as a new model of modernity that would resolve the European crisis as well as long standing problems of the national past Rethinking Modernity Gurinder K.

Bhambra, 2023-02-16 The second edition of this influential book addresses how the experiences and claims of non European others have been rendered invisible to the standard narratives and analytical frameworks of sociological understandings of modernity In challenging the dominant Euro centred accounts of the emergence and development of modernity Bhambra puts forward an argument for connected histories in the reconstruction of historical sociology at a global level This updated version of the original published in 2007 adds a new preface which explores key themes that Bhambra has further developed over the intervening years specifically how the rethinking of modernity enables us to reconstruct sociology and a call for a reparatory sociology committed to the repair of the social sciences and the securing of global justice Rethinking Modernity G. Bhabra, 2007-04-11 Arguing for the idea of connected histories Bhabra presents a fundamental reconstruction of the idea of modernity in contemporary sociology She criticizes the abstraction of European modernity from its colonial context and the way non Western others are disregarded It aims to establish a dialogue in which others can speak and be heard

Arab Modernism as World Cinema Peter Limbrick, 2020-03-10 Arab Modernism as World Cinema explores the radically beautiful films of Moroccan filmmaker Moumen Smihi demonstrating the importance of Moroccan and Arab film cultures in histories of world cinema Addressing the legacy of the Nahda or Arab Renaissance of the nineteenth and early twentieth century when Arab writers and artists reenergized Arab culture by engaging with other languages and societies Peter Limbrick argues that Smihi's films take up the spirit of the Nahda for a new age Examining Smihi's oeuvre which enacts an exchange of images and ideas between Arab and non Arab cultures Limbrick rethinks the relation of Arab cinema to modernism and further engages debates about the use of modernist forms by filmmakers in the Global South This original study offers new routes for thinking about world cinema and modernism in the Middle East and North Africa and about Arab cinema in the world

Cultural Studies in the Future Tense Lawrence Grossberg, 2010-11-25 Lawrence Grossberg one of the most influential figures in cultural studies assesses the mission of cultural studies as a discipline in the past present and future

Modernism on the Nile Alex Dika Seggerman, 2019-08-13 Analyzing the modernist art movement that arose in Cairo and Alexandria from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s Alex Dika Seggerman reveals how the visual arts were part of a multifaceted transnational modernism While the work of diverse major Egyptian artists during this era may have appeared to be secular she argues it reflected the subtle but essential inflection of Islam as a faith history and lived experience in the overarching development of Middle Eastern modernity Challenging typical views of modernism in art history as solely Euro American and expanding the conventional periodization of Islamic art history Seggerman theorizes a constellational modernism for the emerging field of global modernism Rather than seeing modernism in a generalized hyperconnected network she finds that art and artists circulated in distinct constellations that encompassed finite local and transnational relations Such constellations which could engage visual systems both along and beyond the Nile from Los Angeles to Delhi were materialized in visual culture that ranged from oil paintings and sculpture to photography and prints Based on extensive research in Egypt Europe and the United States this richly illustrated book poses a compelling argument for the importance of Muslim networks to global modernism

Healing Powers and Modernity Linda H. Connor, Geoffrey Samuel, 2001-02-28 What is the current state of traditional healing practices in contemporary Asian societies How are their practitioners faring in the encounter with Western science and its biomedical approach How are traditional healing practices being transformed by the politics of health within the modern nation state and by the processes of commodification typical of modern economies How do patients in Asian societies see the various healing options now open to them The authors all of whom are anthropologists observe the clashes and complementarities between traditional therapies and biomedicine which in its many manifestations is the dominant form of medicine supported by national governments and is emblematic of the modernity to which they aspire Some of the medical traditions such as the sophisticated herbal humoral systems of Tibetan medicine and Indian Ayurveda are becoming well known in the West both through scholarly study and through their increasing popularity with Western patients interested in their healing potential This book adds a new dimension to their study being focused unlike most previous writing on practice rather than textual tradition

Socialism and Modernity Peter Beilharz, 2009 This first collection of Peter Beilharz's highly influential thought traces the themes and problems manifestations and trajectories of socialism and modernity as they connect and shift over a twenty year period Woven throughout Beilharz's analysis is the urgent question of modern utopia how do we imagine freedom and equality in modernity The essays in this volume explore the relationship between socialism and modernity across the United States Europe and Australia from the mid 1980s to the turn of the twenty first century a time that witnessed the global triumph of capitalism and the dramatic turn away from Marxism and socialism to modernity as the dominant perspective According to Beilharz we have seen the expansion of a kind of Weberian Marxism with the concept of revolution giving way to the idea of pluralized forms of power and the idea of rupture giving way to the postmodern sense of difference These changes come together with the discourse of modernism both aesthetic and technological Socialism and modernity Beilharz argues are fundamentally interrelated In correcting the conflation of Marxism Bolshevism and socialism that occludes contemporary political thinking he reopens a space for discussion of what socialist politics might look like now in the postcommunist postcolonial postmodern moment

Global Modernity Arif Dirlik, 2015-11-17 A compelling essay on the contemporary human condition William D Coleman Director of the Institute on Globalization and the Human Condition McMaster University An unusually perceptive and balanced appraisal of the globalization hype and its relation to the reality of global capitalism Immanuel Wallerstein Yale University In his provocative new book Arif Dirlik argues that the present represents not the beginning of globalization but its end We are instead in a new era in the unfolding of capitalism global modernity The fall of communism in the 1980s generated culturally informed counter claims to modernity Globalization has fragmented our understanding of what is modern Dirlik's global modernity is a concept that enables us to distinguish the present from its Eurocentric past while recognizing the crucial importance of that past in shaping the present

Reforming Modernity Wael B. Hallaq, 2019-11-12 Reforming Modernity is a sweeping intellectual history and philosophical reflection built around the work of the Morocco based philosopher Abdurrahman Taha one of the most significant philosophers in the Islamic world since the colonial era Wael B Hallaq contends that Taha is at the forefront of forging a new non Western centric philosophical tradition He explores how Taha's philosophical project sheds light on recent intellectual currents in the Islamic world and puts forth a formidable critique of Western and Islamic modernities Hallaq argues that Taha's project departs from but leaves behind the epistemological grounds in which most modern Muslim intellectuals have anchored their programs Taha systematically rejects the modes of thought that have dominated the Muslim intellectual scene since the beginning of the twentieth century nationalism Marxism secularism political Islamism and liberalism Instead he provides alternative ways of thinking forcefully and virtuosically developing an ethical system with a view toward reforming existing modernities Hallaq analyzes the ethical thread that runs throughout Taha's oeuvre illuminating how Taha weaves it into a discursive engagement with the central questions that plague modernity in both the West and the Muslim world The first introduction to Taha's ethical philosophy for Western audiences Reforming Modernity presents his complex thought in an accessible way while engaging with it critically Hallaq's conversation with Taha's work both proffers a cogent critique of modernity and points toward answers for its endemic and seemingly insoluble problems Disciplining Modernism P. Caughie, 2016-01-26 A Poiret dress a Catholic shrine in France Thomas Wallis's Hoover Factory building an Edna Manley sculpture the poetry of Bei Dao the internal combustion engine what makes such artifacts modernist Disciplining Modernism explores the different ways disciplines conceive modernism and modernity undisciplining modernist studies in the process

Social Justice and Communication Scholarship Omar Swartz, 2013-09-13 Social Justice and Communication Scholarship explores the role of communication in framing and contributing to issues of social justice This collection a first on the subject of communication and social justice investigates the theoretical and practical ways in which communication scholarship can enable inclusive and equitable communities within American society It analyzes ways in which to construct communities that protect individual freedom while ensuring equality and dignity to everyone In this unique anthology Swartz brings together both senior scholars and junior colleagues to represent diverse applications of communication to issues of social justice He supports partisan scholarship in order to revitalize intellectual activity and social commitment toward creating a progressive society As a result the volume serves the heuristic function of posing new research questions In addition to its relevance within the field of communication Social Justice and Communication Scholarship will be of interest in many of the humanities and social sciences as research on the theme of social justice transcends disciplinary boundaries The volume is particularly well suited for use in undergraduate and graduate courses in communication rhetoric and composition journalism American studies and cultural studies Social Imaginaries, Vol. 1, issue 1 (Spring 2015) Suzi Adams, Jeremy Smith, 2015-05-18 Nu's au introductus date The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory C. Greig Crysler, Stephen Cairns, Hilde Heynen, 2012-01-20 Offers an intense scholarly experience in its comprehensiveness its variety of voices and its formal organization the editors took a risk experimented and have delivered a much needed resource that upends the status quo Architectural Histories journal of the European Architectural History Network Architectural theory interweaves interdisciplinary understandings with different practices intentions and ways of knowing This handbook provides a lucid and comprehensive introduction to this challenging and shifting terrain and will be of great interest to students academics and practitioners alike Professor Iain Borden UCL Bartlett School of Architecture In this collection architectural theory expands outward to interact with adjacent discourses such as sustainability conservation spatial practices virtual technologies and more We have in The Handbook of Architectural Theory an example of the extreme generosity of architectural theory It is a volume that designers and scholars of many stripes will welcome K Michael Hays Eliot Noyes Professor of Architectural Theory Harvard University The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory documents and builds upon the most innovative developments in architectural theory over the last two decades Bringing into dialogue a range of geographically institutionally and historically competing positions it examines and explores parallel debates in related fields The book is divided into eight sections Power Difference Embodiment Aesthetics Pleasure Excess Nation World Spectacle History Memory Tradition Design Production Practice Science Technology Virtuality Nature Ecology Sustainability City Metropolis Territory Creating openings for future lines of inquiry and establishing the basis for new directions for education research and practice the book is organized around specific case studies to provide a critical interpretive and speculative enquiry into the relevant debates in architectural theory Plural Medicine, Tradition and Modernity, 1800-2000 Waltraud Ernst, 2002-11 This book brings together current critical research into medical pluralism during the last two centuries It includes a rich selection of historical anthropological and sociological case studies Third World Modernism Duanfang Lu, 2010-11-02 This set of essays brings together studies that challenge interpretations of the development of modernist architecture in Third World countries during the Cold War The topics look at modernism's part in the transnational development of building technologies and the construction of national and cultural identity Architectural modernism is far more than another instance of Western expansionist aspirations it has been developed in cross cultural spaces and variously localized into nation building programs and social welfare projects The first volume to address countries right across the developing world this book has a key place in the historiography of modern architecture dealing with non Western traditions

The Memory of Genocide in Tasmania, 1803-2013 Jesse Shipway, 2016-11-02 This book presents a philosophical history of Tasmania's past and present with a particular focus on the double stories of genocide and modernity On the one hand proponents of modernisation have sought to close the past off from the present concealing the demographic disaster behind less demanding historical narratives and politicised preoccupations such as convictism and environmentalism The second story meanwhile is told by anyone aboriginal or European who has gone to the archive and found the genocidal horrors hidden there This volume blends both stories It describes the dual logics of genocide and modernity in Tasmania and suggests that Tasmanians will not become more realistic about the future until they can admit a full recognition of the colonial genocide that destroyed an entire civilisation not much more than 200 years ago Endangered African Knowledges and the Challenge of Modernity Donald Mark C. Ude, 2024-04-02 This book presents an innovative African philosophical response to coloniality and the attendant epistemicide of Africa's knowledge systems drawing on Igbo thinking. This book argues that theorizing modernity requires a critical conversation between African and Western scholarship in order to unpack its links with coloniality and the subjugation of Africa's indigenous knowledges. In setting out this discussion, the book also connects with Latin American scholarship demonstrating how the modern world is structured to marginalize and destroy knowledges from across the Global South. This book draws on Igbo epistemic resources of solidarity thinking positioned in contrast to capitalist knowledge patterns, thereby providing an important Africa-driven response to modernity and coloniality. This book concludes by arguing that the Igbo sense of solidarity is useful and relevant to modern contexts and thus constitutes a vital resource for a less disruptive, more balanced and more wholesome modernity. At a time of considerable global crises, this book makes an important contribution to philosophy both within Africa and beyond.
