Other Wise Preaching A Postmodern Ethic For Homiletics:

Other-wise Preaching John S McClure, 2001-12-01 John McClure's book is a double treasure. It tracks the way North American homileticians have responded to the cultural, social, and philosophical movements of recent decades and it introduces the reader to both linguistic and ethical ways to deconstruct preaching. Edward Farley, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then? Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit. Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation. Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching. A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon, including Augustine, Aquinas, Eckhart, Luther, Calvin, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Chesterton, Barth, Bultmann, Tillich, Ebeling, and others, to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity, clarity, and paradoxical plurivocality, leading to a nuanced account of dialectic. Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching, Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension. He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination, prophetic discernment, and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation.

Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching, offering short explanations of these ideas, what scholars of preaching are saying about them, and how they can help in today's preaching. Topics range from elements of the sermon (introduction, body, and conclusion) to aspects of delivery (types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching).

Believing in Preaching: what Listeners Hear in ,

Stand-Up Preaching Jacob D. Myers, 2022-10-06 Few vocations share more in common with preaching than stand-up comedy. Each profession demands attention to the speaker's bodily and facial gestures, tone, and inflection, timing, and thoughtful engagement with contemporary contexts. Furthermore, both preaching and stand-up arise out of creative tension with homiletic or comedic traditions, respectively. Every time the preacher steps into the pulpit or the comedian steps onto the stage, they must measure their words and gestures against their audience's expectations and assumptions. They participate in a kind of dance that is at once choreographed and open to improvisation. It is these and similar commonalities between preaching and stand-up comedy that this book engages.

Stand Up Preaching does not aim to help preachers tell better jokes. The focus of this book is far more expansive. Given the recent popularity of comedy specials, preachers have greater access to a broad array of emerging comics who showcase fresh comedic styles and variations on comedic traditions. Coupled with the perennial Def Comedy Jams on HBO, preachers also have ready access to the work of classic comics who have exhibited great storytelling and stage presence This book will offer readers tools to discern what is homiletically significant in historical and contemporary stand up routines equipping them with fresh ways to riff off of their respective preaching traditions and nuanced ways to engage issues of contemporary sociopolitical importance

Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen, 2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life s contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort

Feminine Registers Jennifer E. Copeland, 2014-10-16 Women have been adding their voices to the proclamation of the gospel for as long as there has been a gospel to proclaim but only in the last half century have these voices become part of the official catalogue of Christian preaching Diagnosing the distinctiveness of women s voices and exploring the richness they convey about the presence of God requires a detailed look at the meaning making strategies used by those who preach and those who listen Register provides a tool for analyzing not only the theological and semantic contributions of women but also demonstrates how gender impacts the meaning making possibilities of the sermon Feminine Registers offers a gendered analysis of preaching that does not rely on essentialist claims about gender and moves the analysis of the preaching beyond sermon content to include the relational dynamics operating between the communicating parties and the medium used to communicate A critical examination of this constellation of meanings influenced by gender related issues of authority and self disclosure helps illuminate the production of meaning within the church and expands the homiletical possibilities for the Christian faith

Scripting a Sermon Shauna Hannan, Gael Chandler, 2024-11-12 Scripting a Sermon approaches common challenges for crafting sermons looking toward the essential components of filmmaking to help preachers create more potent sermons In this third volume in the Preaching and series Shauna K Hannan and Gael Chandler combine their expertise to focus on the convergences between the crafts of homiletics and filmmaking Looking to enliven the preached word this book draws attention to the ways in which the sermon is set up to captivate the audience For example sermon openings which are frequently disconnected from the sermon s overall point or needlessly long are explored through the techniques of filmmakers who use opening shots to introduce the narrative Readers will be enlightened to how filmmakers use these openings to set the tone of the film involve the audience in the characters story and establish expectations for what the audience will encounter throughout the film Hannan and Chandler give detailed and practical advice on specific aspects of this and other processes that preachers could use to craft far more effective sermons Other chapters cover building scenes and characters being a good editor of your work and crafting effective sermon endings

Equipped with the wisdom of the best filmmakers skilled preachers will gain greater insight into powerful methods for captivating hearers and impacting our world

Stumbling over the Cross Joni S. Sancken, 2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world

Introduction to Preaching Leah D. Schade, Jerry L. Sumney, Emily Askew, 2023-02-03 Coauthored by a homiletician a theologian and a biblical scholar this book is a preaching primer that provides tools for crafting effective engaging and inspiring sermons Using a unique workbook style format Introduction to Preaching equips seminarians and preachers to use appropriate theological claims informed by solid biblical interpretation while providing several sample sermons from the authors Readers will learn how to use a three part schema the Central Question the Central Claim and the Central Purpose to provide the drive direction and destination for the sermon Offering guidelines for using appropriate sermon forms imagery metaphors and creativity together with advice on how to deliver contextually relevant sermons using our bodies presence and voice make this a staple for both new and experienced preachers Introduction to Preaching includes a chapter on exploring the space of preaching including onsite and online sermons In addition it features charts and worksheets to help organize the sermon writing process as well as exercises for the preacher s voice and body and tips for advice for guest preachers and supply preachers A glossary of terms and an extensive bibliography make this a handy reference guide for students and all preachers

Ways of the Word Sally A. Brown, Luke A. Powery, 2016-05-19 Preaching and the discipline of preaching is at a crossroads The changing realities of church and theological education the diversity of our classrooms and our increasingly complex community contexts leave us in search of tools to help train a rising generation of preachers for a future whose contours are far from clear The questions are immense How to support preachers in contexts that are diverse religiously culturally and ethnically both inside and outside the church How to help students take varied contexts seriously as they are formed as leaders In Ways of the Word a dynamic team of master preachers brings much needed help Different in race gender age and tradition both Sally A Brown and Luke A Powery speak with one voice their belief that preaching is Spirit empowered event an embodied vocalized actively received here and now witness to the ongoing work of God in the world They aspire to help students and preachers alike to reflect on a journey of learning by doing They aim to help preachers to become more attuned to the Spirit more adept in preaching s component skills and more self aware about all that is at stake in proclaiming the redemptive work of God in specific contexts

Preaching in the Purple Zone Leah D. Schade, 2019-04-23 Preaching in the Purple Zone is a resource for helping the church understand the challenges facing parish pastors while encouraging and equipping preachers to address the vital justice issues of our time This book provides practical instruction for navigating the hazards of prophetic preaching with tested strategies and prudent tactics grounded in biblical and theological foundations Key to this endeavor is using a method of civil discourse called deliberative dialogue for finding common values among politically diverse parishioners Unique to this book is instruction on using the sermon dialogue sermon process developed by the author that expands the pastor s level of engagement on justice issues with parishioners beyond the single sermon This book equips clergy to help their congregations respectfully engage in deliberation about hot topics find the values that bind them together and respond faithfully to God s Word

Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2021-02-11 In Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim Cragg argues that preaching is the act of dropping the stone of the Gospel into a lake making waves to move hearts and transform the world wounded by colonial violence The ripple effect serves as a metaphor and acronym to guide to preaching that takes postcolonial concerns seriously Rehearsal Imagination Place Pattern Language and Exegesis RIPPLE Kim Cragg explains each ripple in this approach and exercise of creating and delivering sermons The author delivers fresh insights while drawing on some traditional homiletical perspectives in the service of a homiletic that takes the reality of racism migration and environmental degradation seriously Moreover Kim Cragg demonstrates the postcolonial sermon in action by including annotated homilies This book contributes to the very first wave of the application of postcolonial scholarship in preaching Given the continuing extent and influence of colonial worldviews and legacies this approach should become a staple in preaching over the next generation

Recovering Storytelling for Ghanaian Preaching Akwasi O. Ofori, 2015-04-15 This book explores the role narrative can play to renew preaching in Ghanaian congregations It does this by describing and classifying models of preaching in North America and applies those models to the Ghanaian situation carefully guarding against assuming that a western model can be adapted without question

The Third Room of Preaching Marianne Gaarden, 2017-09-29 In this cutting edge homiletical study Marianne Gaarden offers new perspectives for understanding how listeners create meaning when hearing a sermon Drawing on sociological psychological and other empirical research Gaarden presents the notion of the Third Room of Preaching the place where the preacher s words and the listener s prior experiences come together to create a surplus of meaning outside of both the preacher s intent and the listener s frame of reference The preacher cannot control the production of meaning but must surrender to the process giving up the role of creator of meaning in order to become a vessel and a tool for meaning s creation Gaarden s insights challenge conventional understandings of preaching and invite homiletics to reflect on the implications for the sermon as an act of communication The book includes an appendix that helps to facilitate the Third Room model in homiletics classes

The Aesthetics of Violence in the Prophets Julia M. O'Brien, Chris Franke, 2010-04-08 This volume explores multiple dimensions of prophetic texts and their violent rhetoric providing a rich and engaging discussion of violent images not only in prophetic texts and in ancient Near Eastern art but also in modern film and receptions of prophetic texts The volume addresses questions that are at once ancient and distressingly modern What do violent images do to us Do they encourage violent behavior and or provide an alternative to actual violence How do depictions of violence define boundaries between and within communities What readers can and should readers make of the disturbing rhetoric of violent prophets Contributors include Corrine Carvahlo Cynthia Chapman Chris Franke Bob Haak Mary Mills Julia O'Brien Kathleen O'Connor Carolyn Sharp Yvonne Sherwood and Daniel Smith Christopher

Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood, 2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices

Under the Oak Tree Ronald J. Allen, John S. McClure, O. Wesley Allen Jr., 2013-11-06 Two trends in the early twenty first century intersect to give this volume immediate relevance 1 The emerging postmodern ethos in North America is calling into question many things we have taken for granted including the purposes of the church and 2 our time is increasingly fractious as groups with distinct worldviews become polarized and often antagonistic Eleven noted contributors join a growing current that sees conversation as an image to refresh our thinking about the nature and purpose of the church and as a process in which individuals and communities with different perspectives come together for real understanding Under the Oak Tree employs the image of Sarah and Abraham greeting three visitors under the Oaks of Mamre as an image for the church as a community of conversation a community that opens itself to the otherness of the Bible voices in history and tradition others in the contemporary social and ecological worlds Furthermore the book shows how conversation can lead the church to action The book takes a practical approach by exploring how conversation can shape key parts of the church's life Topics include preaching worship formation evangelism pastoral care mission and ecumenism social witness and the relationship of Christianity to other religions Foundational chapters consider God as conversational the church as community of conversation and the minister as conversation leader

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

Speaking Together and with God John S. McClure, 2018-04-09 Ours is a time of unprecedented pessimism regarding the possibility of achieving consensus around moral issues Christian liturgical practices which are grounded in a communicative economy of love and mercy contain wisdom that might be of significant help What difference might it make if we confessed sin learned epistemic humility worked at overcoming self deception interceded for others learned to go beyond empathy to compassion and advocacy for the well being of all persons became willing to look beyond the possible for solutions etc and learned from the best homiletical practices how to justify and apply moral positions within an ethic of hospitality and care Speaking Together focuses on the roles that liturgical practices play in promoting genuinely communicative understanding oriented forms of action and explores how liturgical practices contribute to sincere multi perspectival empathetic and truth seeking conversations regarding moral norms in an increasingly pluralistic world What this means is that our liturgical practices are a way of speaking together and this shapes how we organize and inhabit a shared social life
