Civilians in Colombia face a range of abuses from all sides including killings disappearances and rape and more than four million have been forced to flee their homes. The oral histories in Throwing Stones at the Moon describe the most widespread of Colombia's human rights crises forced displacement. Speakers recount life before displacement the reasons for their flight and their struggle to rebuild their lives. NARRATORS INCLUDE MARIA VICTORIA whose fight against corruption as a hospital union leader led to a brutal attempt on her life. In 2009 assassins tracked her to her home and stabbed her seven times in the face and chest. Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, 1948 Land Use and Living Space Robin H. Best, 2024-09-02 Few people have any coherent idea of whether the shifts taking place in land use structure are critically important for us all or whether they are largely immaterial. This book originally published in 1981 by setting down a more quantified and carefully researched statement and appraisal of land use structure and change than had previously been attempted shows that much of the conventional wisdom about land use can be shown to be incorrect or very suspect. Land use planning has often been built on the insecure foundation of myth rather than reality. The author maintains Land Use and Living Space shows that much of the perceived land problem in Britain is not substantiated by evidence on the ground and concludes that there is no real problem at all. This analysis was a welcome contribution to the debate during the 1970 and 80s about the true state of land use in Britain Europe and the USA Oversight--mandatory
