Other Side Of Silence A Life Of Ethel Wilson:

The Other Side of Silence Mary McAlpine, 1988 Ethel Wilson David Stouck, 2003-01-01 Ethel Wilson is one of Canada's most important writers. This biography draws on archival material and interviews to describe in detail her early life as an orphan in England and Vancouver and her long writer's apprenticeship spanning from the publication of some children's stories in 1919 to the appearance of Hetty Dorval in 1947. 2003 The Other Side of Silence Mary McAlpine, 1988 The biography of the acclaimed author of The Swamp Angel. The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre. It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood, Mavis Gallant, Alice Munro, Carol Shields and many others. Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story. This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well-known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M. Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany. The West Beyond the West Jean Barman, 1996-01-01 Critically acclaimed since its publication in 1991 the BC history of choice has now been revised. Here is the story of Canada's westernmost province beginning at the point of contact between Native peoples and Europeans and continuing up to 1995. Jean Barman tells the story by focusing not only on the history made by leaders in government but also by including the roles of women, immigrants and Native peoples. She interweaves political, social, economic and demographic events into an absorbing account that reveals the roots of contemporary British Columbia in all its diversity and apparent contradictions. The revised edition has been updated to include information from the 1991 census and revisions have been made throughout the book including the references to update it to 1995. The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer, 2011-01-18 This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth-century fiction in the English language.
