Finding a New British Asian Sound on BBC Radio Liam McCarthy,2023-09-21 This book explores the contrasting responses to the South Asian diaspora in Britain of BBC local radio and BBC network radio It highlights the hidden history of how BBC local radio stations developed a schedule of five thousand hours a year of programmes targeted at South Asian communities in England Local radio stations at the periphery of the BBC built deep and influential connections with marginalised Asian communities creating the BBC Asian Network in 1989 and played an influential part in building local social cohesion This contrasts with central BBC policy that reveals a management culture resistant to change and unable to embrace an increasingly diverse Britain creating a problematic legacy for the BBC Finding a New British Asian Sound brings new insights into current debates around policy and institutional racism at the BBC where South Asian programming on local and network radio remains at risk of closure

Annunciations: Sacred Music for the Twenty-First Century George Corbett,2019-05-01 Our contemporary culture is communicating ever increasingly through the visual through film and through music This makes it ever more urgent for theologians to explore the resources of art for enriching our understanding and experience of the Judeo Christian tradition Annunciations Sacred Music for the twenty First Century edited by George Corbett answers this need evaluating the relationship between the sacred and the composition performance and appreciation of music Through the theme of annunciations this volume interrogates how when why through and to whom God communicates in the Old and New Testaments In doing so it tackles the intimate relationship between Scriptural reflection and musical practice in the past its present condition and what the future might hold Annunciations comprises three parts Part I sets out flexible theological and compositional frameworks for a constructive relationship between the sacred and music Part II presents the reflections of theologians and composers involved in collaborating on new pieces of sacred choral music alongside the six new scores and links to the recordings Part III considers the reality of programming and performing sacred works today This volume provides an indispensable resource for scholars and artists working at the interface between theology and the arts and for those involved in sacred music However it will also be of interest to anyone concerned with the ways in which the Divine communicates through word and artistry to humanity
