

A movie poster for the film 'Oublier Palerme'. The central figure is a man from the chest up, wearing a black tuxedo jacket over a white dress shirt. A pink and white floral boutonniere is pinned to his left lapel. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. The background is a stylized, blue-toned image of a city skyline at night, with several tall buildings visible. The title 'OUBLIER PALERME' is printed in large, bold, red capital letters with a white outline, positioned across the lower half of the man's torso. The overall aesthetic is classic and cinematic.

Oublier Palerme:

French News ,1963      The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone,2020 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi s logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi s personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi s creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi s work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities entertainers Flamboyant and outrageous bold and brilliant they were irresistible to friends like Marlene Dietrich Salvador Dal and the publishing tycoon Cond Nast But to those who knew them well they were also highly neurotic narcissistic and glacially self promoting prone to cut out of their lives with surgical precision close friends who were no longer of use to them Tatiana became an icon of New York fashion and the hats she designed for Saks Fifth Avenue were de rigueur for stylish women everywhere Alexander Liberman who devotedly raised Francine as his own child from the time she was nine eventually came to preside over the entire Cond Nast empire The glamorous life they shared was both creative and destructive and was marked by an exceptional bond forged out of their highly charged love and raging self centeredness Their obsessive adulation of success and elegance was elevated to a kind of worship and the high drama that characterized their lives followed them to their deaths Tatiana increasingly consumed with nostalgia for a long lost Russia spent her last years addicted to painkillers Shortly after her death Alexander then age eighty shocked all who knew him by marrying her nurse Them A Portrait of Parents is a beautifully written homage to the extraordinary lives of two fascinating irrepressible people who were larger than life emblems of a bygone age Written with honesty and grace by the person who knew them best this generational saga is a survivor s story Tatiana and Alexander survived the Russian Revolution the fall of France and New York s factory of fame Their daughter Francine survived them Francis Bacon in Your Blood Michael

Peppiatt,2015-08-27 It is a story I have been wanting to write for a long time telling it as it really was before that whole world that I shared with Francis vanishes Michael Peppiatt met Francis Bacon in June 1963 in Soho s French House to request an interview for a student magazine that he was editing Bacon invited him to lunch and over oysters and Chablis they began a friendship and a no holds barred conversation that would continue until Bacon s death thirty years later Fascinated by the artist s brilliance and charisma Peppiatt accompanied him on his nightly round of prodigious drinking from grand hotel to louche club and casino seeing all aspects of Bacon s gilded gutter life and meeting everybody around him from Lucian Freud and Sonia Orwell to East End thugs from predatory homosexuals to Andy Warhol and the Duke of Devonshire He also frequently discussed painting with Bacon in his studio where only the artist s closest friends were ever admitted The Soho photographer John Deakin who introduced the young student to the famous artist called Peppiatt Bacon s Boswell Despite the chaos that Bacon created around him Peppiatt managed to record scores of their conversations ranging over every aspect of life and art love and death the revelatory and hilarious as well as the poignantly tragic Gradually Bacon became a kind of father figure for Peppiatt and the two men s lives grew closely intertwined In this intimate and deliberately indiscreet account Bacon is shown close up grand and petty tender and treacherous by turn and often quite unlike the myth that has grown up around him This is a speaking portrait a living likeness of the defining artist of our times Building a bridge between linguistic communities of the Old and the New World Chiyo Nishida,Cinzia Russi,2012 The present volume is a collection of fourteen original papers selected from those presented at the first US installment of Chronos International Conference on Tense Aspect Mood and Modality which took place at the University of Texas at Austin in October 2008 The volume serves as an excellent forum for international scholars working on expressions of on tense aspect mood and modality It contains papers dealing with a diverse variety of languages ranging from well studied languages like English French Italian Spanish Russian and Japanese to less known ones like Basque Chamorro Iquito Australian English and Singlish The originality and relevance of the individual contributions is highlighted by the broadness of the theoretical approaches they employ and the novel empirical data they examine All the studies go beyond exploring issues strictly related to tense aspect mood and modality rather they cut across all main linguistics subfields such as syntax semantics pragmatics language acquisition and language evolution thus attesting to how research on tense aspect mood and modality is vital to the better understanding of human language in general This diverse nature of the volume will certainly appeal to broad audience
