Ray,2023-08-10 Everything in the Bible and in the Catholic Church starts with the Book of Genesis The Greek word genesis means beginning and this inspired text reveals to us not only our origins but our purpose our meaning and God s plan for mankind Yet Genesis can be daunting especially given the scientific discoveries of the last few centuries Stephen K Ray author of Crossing the Tiber breaks down this sacred and profoundly influential book wrestling with the complex intersection of history and theology Thoroughly Catholic in his approach Ray is unafraid to draw from sources of all kinds from Jewish and Protestant commentaries from archaeology from geography and even from modern literature Genesis A Bible Study Guide and Commentary uncovers the excitement and drama of this ancient narrative so often ignored or misunderstood In Ray s reading the Book of Genesis is a shout of joy We can know where we came from We can know who we are We can know our destiny And we are not alone in the universe A Redemptive Theology of Art David A. Covington,2018-05-01 A Redemptive Theology of Art develops a biblical systematic and practical theology of aesthetics It begins with the roots and ontology of aesthetics vs art and the architecture and narrative of affection and passion their woes and their glory Those who would search the Bible find little support for art as commonly conceived in the West The language of aesthetics applied to the maker s intentions the qualities of the work and the responses of the audience better addresses the questions of beauty and better suits the discussion of human actions beliefs and culture than the language of art does The Bible yields more consistent and helpful answers to questions about the broader category of aesthetics than it does to questions about art leading in turn to better questions and a more practical and theological appreciation of human affections beauty and delight and the many paths by which people including Christians pursue them Using the categories and definitions from Scripture Covington gives hope and help not only for those who labor in the arts but for everyone who cares about the passions that motivate us We were made for God s delight and though sin and bondage plague our passions God can shape our fun feelings desires affections and aversions Feelings are neither objective nor subjective they are redeemable Borrowing key ideas from other Christian writers on the arts or aesthetics Covington explores the connection between orthodox Protestant theology and a responsible respectful treatment of arts artists and all aesthetic fields of human work and speech Hawk's Way Brides Joan Johnston,2007-01-01 A true master of
