I Am a Leader Angie Ward, 2020-03-03 You feel it deep in your bones God is inviting you to join Him to participate in His redemptive work in the world And yet as a woman leader you face so many potential obstacles Lack of clarity over your unique calling Competing time demands Changing seasons of life Challenges such as self doubt criticism and spiritual dryness With nearly 30 years of ministry experience Angie Ward knows firsthand the unique challenges that women leaders face as they seek to pursue their calling In I Am a Leader Angie explores the concept of calling as it applies specifically to women leaders those women of influence both in Christian ministry and the broader world What is calling How do you discover it And what does it look like to live out that calling practically amid a multitude of challenges Thoroughly researched theologically and biblically integrated and uniquely personal I Am a Leader will resonate no matter where you are on the calling journey whether you are wondering about your God given purpose sensing an inkling of an invitation to a particular ministry or embarking on the path but encountering challenges

Finding Your Leadership Style Keith Lamdin, 2012-04-12 This book will be attractive to all ministers who are seeking to understand how leadership works and why it can be so difficult It would be useful as a study book for lay ministers as well and for all o take up a leadership role in local churches It could also be attractive to lay people who as disciples seek to lead in their places of work with Christian values and behaviours

Becoming a Leader Is Becoming Yourself Russ S. Moxley, 2015-07-04 People yearn for leaders who are authentic who show their own face and not a game face who find and use their voice in appropriate ways and act with a tangible sense of integrity Those who engage in the process of leadership each of us at some point want to do so as our true self But staying true to one s self is not easy We are continually moving in and out of authenticity We are present one moment and absent the next We often say yes when we want to say no We act from our core values some of the time but give them a wink when the heat is on There is no formula for being integral and authentic Becoming and being ourselves requires confidence and courage Drawing on the author s 40 years in leadership training this book discusses the things we can do along the way recognizing our strengths and limitations speaking truth to power trusting our companions as we strive to fulfill our leadership potential
