English is Our Language Edna Louise Sterling, 1957 Silenced and Sidelined Carrie Lynn Arnold, 2020-07-01 In the age of multiple equity movements it is critical to explore an unspoken nuance the silencing of women leaders Carrie Lynn Arnold calls attention to the history and complex dynamics that can suppress a leader's voice while offering solutions for change Women are taught to speak up develop confidence leverage their strengths polish their interpersonal skills widen their competencies and fight to sit at the table But once they make it to that executive chair they rarely examine the unspoken dynamics that impact their success The silencing of female voices is an all too common epidemic preventing women from harnessing their full capabilities and leading with maximum potential This phenomenon of isolating women by subduing their voices is a decades old tradition It can be impossible to avoid encounters organizational cultures and even feelings of self suppression that all foster silencing It is no longer about questioning competency or confidence It is about understanding the complex factors and biases that are deeply embedded in relationships between men and women amongst women and within the dynamics of systems and the self that allows for this trend to continue despite growing successes in equity Carrie Lynn Arnold examines silencing which is essential to name and recognize as a pre requisite to effective leadership By understanding where we have been before we may fully appreciate and call attention to where we need to go Regardless of your gender or whether you are an emerging leader or a CEO of a large corporation the silencing virus is capable of infecting everyone Silenced and Sidelined explores what it means to feel suppressed giving words to the experience so that leaders can begin different types of conversations about voice and leadership There are no shortcuts or simple easy steps this call to leadership is a call for courage It requires the ability to communicate with a voice that carries currency one people will not just hear but follow Given the complexity of our world and the challenges society faces we can no longer afford leaders with silenced voices

To Tell the Story C. Thomas Elkins,2011-02-10 Those of us hearing a Well Told Story may become more aware of the Implications of that story than by a mere recital of facts The use of the Story Form of relating an event may be the best method of capturing the signifi cance of the actual event In the understanding and presentation of the Christian faith Story is considered as a fundamental category of reality It is the perfect vehicle for presenting the Good News of the Gospel

John Paul Roth The presentation of real events in story form preserves the remembrance of reality without limiting its implications to the mere recording of historical facts The Gospel story carries us beyond the realm of human understanding into the higher realm of faith The power of story assists us in bridging the gap between the inexplicable in the Gospel Story and the human experience This holds true with the stories which accompany and support the underlying Story of God in Jesus Christ True stories as is the Gospel Story will take precedence over stories told only for entertainment or to serve a specific agenda Yet even the stories of integrity and truth need to be told well and with skill This is discussed in detail herein As Theologians we must tell the Story with truth and understanding as Evangelists with persuasiveness and tolerance and as Preachers or Witnesses we must share the Story often convincingly and with Love Loving God loving each other and the Story never ends

Rethinking Our Story G. Douglas Hammack, 2014-01-13 If it ain't broke don't fix it But it's no secret that the Christian church is broke and does need fixing Despite great effort things are going badly for us We've tried trendy and tech savvy entrepreneurial and coffee house gritty They're not helping Our problem is deeper than that Our problem is our instincts instincts informed by our story There was a time when the Christian church was a powerfully transformative presence in society It can be again but it will require radical rethinking of the story that informs our instincts And it's time It's been five hundred years since the Reformation our last major update Today is a pivotal moment in history With our worldview upended by quantum physics history is demanding we renew the Christian story for our times Rethinking Our Story reframes the elements of the Christian narrative for the new era It explores quantum ways of thinking about God human nature Jesus salvation and the afterlife The future of the church and the health of our society depend on our willingness to rethink retell and live out a better story We will either update our instincts and contribute to the earth's well being or disappear into oblivion
