"Our Asiatic Christ" Oscar MacMillan Buck,1927 Hindus and Their Christian Bible R. S.

Sugirtharajah,2024-02-22 R S Sugirtharajah shows how at the height of European colonialism whilst the colonizers were studying the sacred texts of Hindus Muslims Buddhists Sikhs and Zoroastrians the Hindus were themselves scrutinizing the invader s book the Christian Bible Sugirtharajah examines how these Hindus transformed the Bible into what they deemed fit for and suited to their contexts The result was that the Bible acquired a totally different form and lost its authority as the Book of the Empire Sugirtharajah shows how the resistant subversive and at times antagonistic readings of the Hindus went beyond what the colonizer had intended Sadly what these Hindus made of the Bible went largely unnoticed and was ignored by Western scholarship This volume seeks to rectify this regrettable omission and to place both the Hindu reformers and nationalists attitude to the Bible in their own specific context and to allow them to speak on their own terms rather than reading them with Christian preconception The Hindu reformers covered include figures such as Raja Rammohun Roy Arumuga Navalar Keshub Chunder Sen Swami Vivekananda Ponnambalam Ramanathan M K Gandhi and Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and nationalists such as Dhirendranath Chowdhary Sita Ram Goel and Ram Swarup The book contains the interpretative context the textual negotiation that went on between these Hindus and the missionaries and orientalist examples of their Hinduization of the Bible and the hermeneutical impact on mainstream biblical interpretation

Soteriologies of India and Their Role in the Perception of Disability Anand Rao,2004 At the turn of the century and the beginning of the new Millennium India has made extraordinary industrial and economic progress At the same time the sub continent is faced with innumerable problems in the area of basic social services Religion plays an important role in the interpersonal relationship and social interaction of the people Religion is not only worship and prayer but dictates such factors as who could come in physical contact with the other and who has the right to draw water from a well and who is deprived of it Because of these factors it is necessary to look at the perception of disability in the soteriologies of India This study confines itself to Hinduism as the major religion of India that is based on the achievement of salvation and thus to escape the cycle of birth death and rebirth and Christianity on the other hand that is involved in trying to improve the conditions of the poor and the needy and its main precept is the love of neighbours It would be interesting to pursue these distinctions in reviewing the perception of disability in both these religions Heathenism Under the Searchlight
