a set of three volumes 9781571050946 Key Theological Thinkers Svein Rise, 2016-04-22 The 20th and 21st Centuries have been characterized by theologians and philosophers rethinking theology and revitalizing the tradition This unique anthology presents contributions from leading contemporary theologians including Rowan Williams Fergus Kerr Aidan Nichols G R Evans and Tracey Rowland who offer portraits of over fifty key theological thinkers in the modern and postmodern era Distinguished by its broad ecumenical perspective this anthology spans arguably one of the most creative periods in the history of Christian theology and includes thinkers from all three Christian traditions Protestant Catholic and Orthodox Each individual portrait in this anthology includes a biographical introduction an overview of theological or philosophical writing presentation of key thoughts and contextual placing of the thinker within 20th Century religious discourse Overview articles explore postmodern theology radical orthodoxy ecumenical theology feminist theology and liberation theology A final section includes portraits of important thinkers who have influenced Christian thought from other fields not least from Continental philosophy and literature Legacies of Liberation John Burdick, 2019-07-15 Originally published in 2004 In Brazil the liberationist reading of the Bible was once supposed to be an unstoppable force for social change yet many observers now say that in the era of neo liberalism the liberationist project may be counted all but dead In Legacies of Liberation John Burdick offers a bold new interpretation of the state of the Catholic liberationism Challenging the claim that it is dead Burdick carefully builds the case that it continues to exert a major influence on Brazilian society and culture through its penetration of a broad range of grassroots struggles especially those having to do with race gender and land Burdick brings to bear on his analysis an understanding of Brazil rooted in twenty years of fieldwork and a perspective shaped by anthropology theology and history Rereading Women in Latin America and the Caribbean Jennifer Abbassi, Sheryl L. Lutjens, 2002-03-26 This indispensable text reader provides a broad ranging and thoughtfully organized feminist introduction to the ongoing controversies of development in Latin America and the Caribbean Designed for use in a variety of college courses the volume collects an influential group of essays first published in Latin American Perspectives a theoretical and scholarly journal focused on the political economy of capitalism imperialism and socialism in the Americas The reader is organized into thematic sections that focus on work politics and culture and each section includes substantive introductions that identify key issues trends and debates in the scholarly literature on women and gender in the region Demonstrating the rich and multidisciplinary nature of Latin American studies this collection of timely empirical studies promotes critical thinking about women's place and power about theory and research strategies and about contemporary economic political and social conditions in Latin America and the Caribbean Valuable as both a supplementary or primary text Rereading Women makes a convincing claim for a materialist feminist analysis. It convincingly shows why women have become an increasingly important subject of research, acknowledges their gains and struggles over time, and explores the contributions that feminist theory has made toward the recognition of gender as a relevant, indeed essential, category for analyzing the political economy of development.

Latino/a Theology and the Bible Francisco Lozada Jr., Fernando F. Segovia, 2021-05-11 This book explores the use of the Bible among Latino theologians today. Latino a Theology emerged in the 1980s alongside a broad variety of contextual theological movements and discourses following the Latino a movement and the formation of Latino a Studies in the 1960s and 1970s. While much work has been done on biblical interpretation in Latino a biblical criticism, little can be found regarding interpretation in Latino a theological reflection. To address this gap in the literature, the contributors from various ecclesial affiliations and religious traditions examine the status and role of the Bible in Latino a Theology.

The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2019-09-10 Contains a general introduction to the discipline featuring classic and pioneering essays that address the history, methods, issues, and exemplary illustrations of research, teaching, and practice. Presenting a diverse collection of landmark essays, The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology explores the turn of the century renaissance of practical theology as an academic discipline and shows how the discipline has advanced a steady epistemological insurgency in theology throughout the twentieth and twenty-first century. The text provides scholars, students, and ministerial professionals with easy access to original seminal sources that represent major milestones, growing edges, and useful classificatory rubrics. A handy one-volume primer to practical theology, the book offers an excellent bird's-eye view of the discipline's essential foundational contributions. Provides significant introductory overview material helpful in guiding both new and experienced readers to practical theology. Includes brief overview introductions before each essay to situate the reading and highlight key contributions and occasional limitations. Features essay selections that consider race, gender, sexuality, age, and other differences as a critical subtheme. The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology is an indispensable resource for students, faculty, and professionals in practical theology and colleagues in related cognate disciplines in theological education and religious studies.

Mexican-American Catholics Eduardo C. Fernández, 2007 Mexican American Catholics is the third book in the Paulist Press Pastoral Spirituality Series following Vietnamese American Catholics by Peter C. Phan and American Eastern Catholics by Fred J. Saato. Author Fr. Fernández presents the history of Christianity in Mexico via Spain, the conditions of Mexican Catholics in America, and the challenges facing Mexican American Catholics, as well as suggestions on how to meet them. Pastoral strategies for assisting Mexican American Catholics in becoming more active members of the church are included, as is an extensive bibliography.

History of Catholic Theological Ethics, A Keenan, James F., SJ, 2022 An introduction to Catholic theological ethics through the lens of its historical development from the beginning of the church until today.

Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D. Tirres, 2024-12-03 A new perspective on spirituality and social change.

as seen through the work of six visionary thinkers In Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D Tirres offers an in depth exploration of spirituality as a catalyst for social transformation showcasing the profound insights of six distinguished twentieth century liberation thinkers from across the Americas This thought provoking work examines the contributions of Marxist philosopher Jos Carlos Mari tegui renowned educator and philosopher Paulo Freire innovative constructive theologian Virgilio Elizondo influential cultural and feminist theorist Gloria Anzald a activist mujerista theologian and social ethicist Ada Mar a Isasi D az and groundbreaking ecofeminist theologian Ivone Gebara Tirres examines the distinct yet interconnected philosophies of these figures showcasing their unified critique of colonial Christendom and their deep commitment to the marginalized He adeptly articulates how their diverse religious and philosophical backgrounds come together in a shared vision of spirituality as a fundamental aspect of human life and intelligence He further illuminates how these thinkers advocate for spirituality as a non reductive life affirming practice transcending traditional boundaries and offering an integrated approach to faith culture and social justice Their collective insights form a persuasive case for re envisioning spirituality as a crucial element in the quest for a more just and compassionate world Liberating Spiritualities is not only a tribute to these six influential figures but also a critical reflection on the relevance of their ideas in today s global context Tirres s transdisciplinary study bridges liberationist and pragmatic insights offering readers a fresh highly original interpretation of socially engaged spirituality making this book an essential resource for those seeking to understand the transformative power of spirituality in the pursuit of social justice and human dignity

In Solidarity with the Earth Hilda P. Koster, Celia Deane-Drummond, 2023-09-21 Based on case studies the book creates a multidisciplinary conversation on the gendered vulnerabilities resulting from extractive industries and toxic pollution and also charts the resilience and courage of women as they resist polluting industries fight for clean water and seek to protect the land While ecumenical in scope the book takes its departure from the concept of integral ecology introduced in Pope Francis encyclical Laudato Si The first three sections of the book focus on the social and ecological challenges facing minoritized women and their communities that are related to mining pollutants and biodiversity loss and toxicity The final section of the book focuses on the possibilities and obstacles to global solidarity All chapters offer a cross disciplinary response to a particular local situation tracing the ways ecological destruction resulting from extraction and toxic contamination affects the lives of women and their communities The book pays careful attention to the political economic and legal structures facilitating these life threatening challenges Each section concludes with a response from a practitioner in the field representing an ecclesial organization or NGO focused on eco justice advocacy in the global South or minority communities in the global North perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide It offers new perspectives on key twentieth century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non Christian traditions and on Christian theology's engagement with the arts and sciences A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism racism and the environmental crisis Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward The Modern Theologians Explores Christian theology's engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross contextual comparisons Positions individual theologians in geographical regions trans local movements and ecclesial contexts Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements topics and individuals Providing in depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research Ford's The Modern Theologians: An Introduction to Christian Theology since 1918 Fourth Edition remains an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Theology and Religious Studies such as Introduction to Christian Theology Systematic Theology Modern Theology and Modern Theologians It is also an invaluable resource for researchers those involved in various forms of Christian ministry teachers of religious studies and general readers engaged in independent study

Resisting Theologies and the Everyday Wren Radford, 2025-06-26 This powerful volume provides dynamic ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation by engaging with the everyday practices of marginalised communities In doing so this collection of theological experts reject abstracted concepts of codes and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology A Critical Introduction to Religion in the Americas Michelle A. Gonzalez,2014-07-18 This book argues that we cannot understand religion in the Americas without understanding its marginalized communities Despite frequently voiced doubts among religious studies scholars it makes the case that theology and particularly liberation theology is still useful but it must be reframed to attend to the ways in which religion is actually experienced on the ground That is a liberation theology that assumes a need to work on behalf of the poor can seem out of touch with a population experiencing huge Pentecostal and Charismatic growth where the focus is not on inequality or social action but on individual relationships with the divine Interrupting Capitalism Matthew Allen Shadle,2018 Interrupting Capitalism traces the history of Catholic thinking about economic life from the perspective of a theology of interruption The church s social teaching provides a way for Christians to interrupt capitalism to live out economic life faithfully in the midst of the global economy Helpmates, Harlots, and Heroes, Second Edition Alice Ogden Bellis,2007-07-03 This best selling book now revised and updated shares the work of many feminist biblical scholars who have examined women s stories for several years These stories are powerful accounts of women in the Old Testament stories that have profoundly affected how women understand themselves as well as men s perception of them Here Alice Bellis shares the research of feminist biblical scholarship during a quarter of a century which renders a vast amount of refreshing exciting sometimes disturbing material
