Our Future Selves Love Life Sex And Aging:

Our Future Selves Merrily Weisbord,1991 Sexuality, Disability, and Aging Jane Gallop,2018-12-13 Drawing on her own experiences with late onset disability and its impact on her sex life along with her expertise as a cultural critic Jane Gallop explores how disability and aging work to undermine one's sense of self She challenges common conceptions that equate the decline of bodily potential and ability with a permanent and irretrievable loss arguing that such a loss can be both temporary and positively transformative With Sexuality Disability and Aging Gallop explores and celebrates how sexuality transforms and becomes more queer in the lives of the no longer young and the no longer able while at the same time demonstrating how disability can generate new forms of sexual fantasy and erotic possibility Sexuality and the Elderly Bonnie L. Walker,1997-05-12 This literature review was undertaken in order to determine what caregivers needed to know about elderly sexuality to determine the needs of elderly people related to their sexuality and to determine how caregivers could best assist them in meeting those needs In selecting materials to be annotated for this book the first priority was given to empirical studies Also included were articles by prominent practitioners and researchers interested in elderly sexuality literature reviews and books written for the lay population which are often cited in the professional literature In addition to seeking knowledge about elderly sexuality and understanding attitudes about sexuality this literature review sought information about measurement issues and measurement instruments frequently used in research within elderly populations Also of interest were investigations of educational and training programs involving caregivers Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2001 Comprehensive Review of Geriatric Psychiatry--II Joel Sadavoy,1996 Geriatrics and geriatric psychiatry are at a historic turning point Major growth in clinical interest and research activity has sparked new discoveries in the field No longer are senility and depression viewed solely as a fate in growing old an unavoidable concomitant of aging Comprehensive Review of Geriatric Psychiatry II was developed in response to the major advances in the field As in the first edition eminent contributors offer their collective expertise on emerging issues in the psychiatry of aging providing mental health practitioners with a focused but comprehensive review of the field Much of the first edition has been rewritten revised or updated and new chapters have been added to reflect recent advances in theory and practice Targeted to all mental health professionals involved in the care of elderly people this exceptional work covers the aging process evaluation and diagnosis and the major psychiatric disorders typically encountered by psychiatrists who treat aging patients Newly written material is presented on topics such as genetics normal aging ethnocultural and sociodemographic aspects of aging self and experience across the second half of life Alzheimer's disease grief and bereavement and geriatric consultation liaison psychiatry Updated information on medical legal and ethical issues is provided Clinicians and residents alike will find the self assessment section a significant part of which is new extremely beneficial Robert N. Butler, MD W. Andrew Achenbaum,2013-08-13 Robert Neil Butler 1927 2010 was a scholar psychiatrist and Pulitzer Prize winning author who revolutionized the way the world thinks about aging and the elderly One of the first psychiatrists to engage with older men and women outside of institutional settings Butler coined the term ageism to draw attention to discrimination against older adults and spent a lifetime working to improve their status medical treatment and care Early in his career Butler seized on the positive features of late life development aspects he documented in his pathbreaking research on healthy aging at the National Institutes of Health and in private practice He set the nation's age based health care agenda and research priorities as founding director of the National Institute on Aging and by creating the first interprofessional interdisciplinary department of geriatrics at New York City's Mount Sinai Hospital In the final two decades of his career Butler created a global alliance of scientists educators practitioners politicians journalists and advocates through the International Longevity Center A scholar who knew Butler personally and professionally W Andrew Achenbaum follows this pioneer's significant contributions to the concept of healthy aging and the notion that aging is not synonymous with physical and mental decline Emphasizing the progressive aspects of Butler's approach and insight Achenbaum affirms the ongoing relevance of his work to gerontology geriatrics medicine social work and related fields
